The Eugene Water Supply.

The state board of health has issued Eugene and the local water company an injunction by condemning the water supply as impure. The Water Company pumps its water from a cistern dug deep through gravel on the east side of the town with filtration from the river, a hundred feet away. The sewerage and drain of the town is to one side and below and entirely away from the water source of supply.

Above Eugene, excepting Cottage Grove which is twenty-two miles away, there is but one town of any size, Springfield, with probably eight hundred population, and with no sewerage system to pollute the river. All above Eugene for ninety miles, are mountain streams with no possible source of contamination, flowing into the Willamette.

Take your map, Mr. State Board of Health, and see if our statement is not true, then tell us how a water supply drawn from pure mountain streams, flowing over rock bottoms and by rock banks can carry impurity? The river above Eugene is entirely different from the lower part of the valley where it flows over mud bottoms and between mud banks. Here it is all gravel, rock.

We know whereof we speak. We have fished in the river and not a few of its tributaries from far up in the mountains to Eugene.

Such a damaging statement should not be made on hearsay or at random, most of all by a body of men whose mere assertion cannot but carry great weight with and prejudice the uninformed.

Dishonest Farmer Worked Potato Steal.

A farmer residing near Logan, Clackamas county, has been discovered in the act of despoiling the commission men in Portland of their profits.

He was seen to take a large stovepipe about half as wide as the sack, place it therein and fill the inside of the pipe with small and blight-stricken stock. The space between the pipe and the outside of the sack was filled with the choicest potatoes to be found on the farm. The stovepipe would then be withdrawn and the sack sewed up. The purchaser on opening the sack from any position would only come across the good potatoes, the unfit stock being firmly secured in the center.

Several local commission men of Portland had been victimized by this and they sent a man to investigate; the exposure of the trick resulted.

Roosevelt, Miles and Wood.

The curt note of retirement of General Nelson A. Miles is not being apologized for by the administration organs on the ground that President Roosevelt does not believe in putting laudatory matter into such orders. This apology is not true. No one has been more reckless of encomiums than Roosevelt, as a reference to his speeches laudatory of Attorney General Knox, Judge Taft and others, demonstrate. To cap all, however, the following order issued only last March has been revived:

"Washington, March 25, 1903. "By direction of the president, Brigadier General Leonard Wood, U. S. A., having filed the report which completes his services as military governor of Cuba and commander of the military forces, stationed in that island from December, 1899, to the close of American occupation, is relieved from further duty in connection with the office of former military governor of Cuba.

"The administration of General Wood, both as military commander of the division and department of Cuba and as military governor was highly creditable. The civil government was managed with an eye single to the benefit of the Cuban people, under the supervision and control of the military government. The Cuban people themselves had an opportunity to carry on their own government to a constantly increasing degree, so that when Cuba assumed her independence she started with the best possible chance of success.

"Out of an utterly prostrate colony a free people was built up. The new nation started under more favorable conditions than has ever been the case in any single instance among her fellow Spanish-American republics. The record stands alone in history, and the benefit conferred thereby upon the people of Cuba was no greater than the honor conferred upon the people of the United States.

"The war department, by direction of the President, thanks General Wood and the officials, civil and military, serving under him upon the completion of a work so difficult, so important, and so well done."

There we have it in a nutshell, praise for Leonard Wood and reprimand and insult for General Nelson A. Miles.

The strenuous young man in the White House is fast reaching his level.

One of the noticeable features in connection with athletics in schools, is that all the best athletes of Oregon University are leaders in their classes. The old belief that books and athletic training are antagonistic, is not borne out by facts. In the public schools the same condition prevails largely, outdoor sport being the best stimulant to hard study ever introduced into the public school system. This department of the schools is too often neglected.—East Oregonian.

A real estate dealer who has his office over the Roseburg government land office advertises: "Guaranteed forest reserve script for sale in large or small quantities." Purchasers of this script, he might add, are not subject to the tirade of questions that are put to individuals who apply to the government for a 100-acre tract.

The lesson which politicians find so hard to learn is simple enough. It is that courage is the best political asset a leader can have, and that it is truckling to seeming expediency and not defying it which weakens him.

LANE COUNTY W. C.

T. U. CONVENTION

Interesting Meeting at Saginaw September 30th and October 1st.

The annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Lane County, convened at Saginaw, in the afternoon of Sept. 30, President Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler presiding.

The opening devotionals were followed by department reports. Discussion on the needs and methods of the work closed the session.

The evening session opened with music, scripture reading and prayer. The recitation, "He Didn't Think" by Miss Beulah DeSpain, told why many young men fall.

Rev. Boyles, pastor of the C. P. church of Cottage Grove, gave a stirring address on a few phases of the temperance problem. Noticed the fact of the majority of women and girls at religious and temperance services in contrast with the great excess of men and boys in prison and reformatories. The inconsistency of temperance workers, fighting the brewers and then helping harvest hops to make beer. Temperance workers should deal with the enemy as soldiers of war, "No aid nor comfort to the enemy."

Thursday the White Ribbons met in early session.

Reports of Departments of Evangelistic, Sunday School, Pure Literature, Medal Contest, Lumbermen and Miners were called.

Treasurer's report showed all orders cashed, with balance on hand. Reports from individual unions gave evidence of active work.

The President's address gave a general outline of the year's work. These institutes have been held, national and state lecturers have visited the county, inspiring the unions, and increasing membership. Much effort has been put forth in the Master's name, and He only can count the gain.

Election of officers resulted in the following: President, Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler, Cottage Grove; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Lizzie Orpud, Cottage Grove; Recording Secretary, Mrs. M. O. Howe; Treasurer, Mrs. Louise DeSpain; Vice President, Mrs. Louise H. Johnson.

A debate on the question, "Should wives have an individual purse?" gave a lively and harmonious discussion. Judges decided in the negative.

With thanks to the ladies of Saginaw for their hospitable homes and very excellent and bountiful lunch, the conference closed.

CHURCH RE-DEDICATED

The Christian church at Springfield was dedicated last Sunday at 11 a. m. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Dean E. C. Sanderson, L. L. D., which was exceptionally good. Mrs. E. O. Lobbell sang a beautiful solo and the dedicatory prayer was offered by Rev. D. E. Olson, Lane county Secretary and Evangelist.

The church has been beautifully improved with a new roof, two coats of paint, two new rooms in front, a large flue, a new pulpit and choir loft, carpeted and furnished with good chairs. The inside has been wainscoted, clothed and papered. The improvements amount to over $500.

This work was undertaken by Rev. D. E. Olson, the first of September, and completed the first of October.

All indebtedness was provided for on dedication day.

The ladies gave a public dinner which was a grand success.

Rev. D. E. Olson preached in the evening to a large and attentive audience on the subject of "Hope."

Rev. J. B. Holmes, state evangelist, begins a revival meeting at the church the first Sunday in November.

STATE LABOR COMMISSIONER

(Daily Guard, October 7.)

O. P. Hoff, the state labor commissioner under the new law, is in Eugene on an official trip through Southern Oregon.

Mr. Hoff is making the trip to become acquainted with labor conditions throughout the state, and will visit all the manufacturing plants to see that the child labor law is complied with.

Mr. Hoff was formerly station agent and postmaster at Irving. From there he went to Portland where he was employed in the Southern Pacific Company's freight depot. He was appointed labor commissioner by the governor last summer, and he now resides at Salem. His many friends were greeting him today.

CHIEF CLERK RAIL-WAY MAIL SERVICE

(Daily Guard, October 7.)

F. E. Dunne, chief clerk of the railway mail service, with headquarters at Portland, Or., was in Eugene yesterday and today. Mr. Dunne is the gentleman who directs the mail service of Oregon, and was in Eugene on business connected with the service. He says that Eugene is the best city in Oregon outside of Portland, and has metropolitan ways. He thought the improvements going on here were truly wonderful.

Recently the postal department made a ruling that "outside mail" could be forwarded from newspaper offices direct to their agents over any trains carrying baggage. In speaking of this he remarked that it was a curious fact that the Daily Guard was the first and up to this time, the only paper that was taking advantage of this law in Oregon.

Mr. Whitney is a genial, pleasant gentleman, and thoroughly understands his business. He is very popular among the railway mail service boys.

NEM SEWER WELL BUILT

Superintendent of Sewers Wilkins, City Surveyor Collier, and Councilman Griffin of the sewer committee yesterday made an inspection of the new sewer recently constructed by Klov Dahl and Mansrud, extending from the main sewer between East Fifth and East Sixth streets to East Fifteenth street, a distance of nine blocks.

They found the sewer to have been built in a very satisfactory manner, and it will be accepted as soon as a little minor work is completed, which will be done in a day or so.

The contract price is something over $3000.

COMMISSIONERS' COURT IN SESSION

The regular monthly meeting of the county commissioners' court is now in session, having convened this morning with Judge H. R. Kincaid and Commissioners Hill and Edwards in attendance. This forenoon was devoted principally to the allowing of bills and other routine work.

Bridge matters also claimed the court's attention for a while.

The work of repairing the damage done to the Coburg bridge yesterday by the knocking out of the approach, will be commenced as soon as the river goes down.

Bridges Completed.

A. N. Srtiker and his force of men who have been in the western part of the county several weeks building and repairing county bridges, have returned to Eugene, the work having been completed.

They built new bridges across Deadwood creek and Indian creek and repaired the Lake creek bridge. The Deadwood creek bridge is 120 feet long and the Indian creek bridge is about 100 feet and both are covered.

Those who have seen them say they are splendidly built.

From North Dakota.

Ole Haldarsen, who purchased the P. J. Hansen place west of Eugene last spring, arrived here last night from Valley City, N. D., with a carload of horses, farming implements, household goods, etc. His family arrived last Saturday. Mr. Haldarsen is an energetic farmer, and no doubt will succeed in his new Western home.

A Splendid Edition.

The Harvest Edition of the Daily Oregon Statesman is at hand. It contains 40 pages of excellent matter descriptive and illustrative of Salem and other principal Willamette valley points, including Eugene, Cottage Grove and Junction City. It is the right kind of literature to send East to intending immigrants.

Hops at 23 Cents.

Miller Brothers yesterday reported the sale of 100 bales of this year's crop of hops to C. L. Fitchard, for 23 cents per pound.

They also state that their big prune crop is about cared for and that they had a record breaker this year. The prunes were well developed and brought a fair price.

Will Meet in Eugene.

The annual meeting of the Columbia River branch of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will be held in Eugene, Oct. 8th to 11th, inclusive. Prominent women from all over the state will be in attendance, as will also several returned foreign missionaries who will make addresses.

Died.

Mrs. M. Teague, aged 78 years, died Oct. 6, 1903, in the Spencer Creek district, of old age. Funeral was held today.

Fred Larson died Oct. 6, 1903, at the county poor farm, from consumption. He was aged 37 years.

Another Hop Sale.

F. E. Dunn has just purchased 21,000 pounds of hops from C. A. Severn, who ran the Owen yard west of Eugene. The price paid is not given out, but we understood it is near the top price paid this year.

PURCHASED DISTILLERY

Heitzman Brothers Bought I. M. Francis' Plant West of Eugene.

I. M. Francis who has operated a distillery for the manufacture of brandies for the past several years west of Eugene, has sold out to Heitzman Brothers, well known farmers, and they took possession of the plant last Monday.

Mr. Francis did not operate the plant this summer, but the new proprietors have already started operations and will work out the fall crop of fruit, mostly on apples. It is a little too late to work on prunes, but some of the late varieties will be made into brandy.

Francis' brandies are known far and wide for their excellent quality, and no doubt the Messrs. Heitzman will sustain the reputation established by Mr. Francis.

WILL INCREASE CAPACITY.

The Guard is informed that the capacity of the distillery will be increased considerably and a larger market will be entered.
