DOWIE'S RELIGIOUS ENTHUSIASTS

Remarkable Scene at Zionist City Preceding the Exodus.

Accommodations Refused to Sight-Seers Who Use Tobacco or Alcoholic Drinks.
Zion City, Ill. Oct. 14.—Although the advance trains of the Zion host restorers, who under command of Dowie are to redeem New York from the thrall of Satan, departed from that city yesterday carrying baggage and advance agents, the real exodus began today.
This morning witnessed the most remarkable scenes since the Mormon advance on Utah. Thirty-one hundred religious enthusiasts under command of Dowie boarded the trains while seven thousand gathered at early dawn to listen to the exhortations of Dowie, who spoke in the character of a prophet.
The great crowd sang and prayed together or wept as the eloquence of the leader moved them. Skeptics declared it a marvelous exhibition.
Dowie, short of stature, dignified by long, flowing white hair and beard, and clad in robes of the richest texture was a striking figure. When he called for expressions of faith, the great crowd responded as with the religious fervor of ascetics.
Thousands marched to the railroad depot headed by the Zion band of forty pieces, escorting the self-styled Elijah the Second.
Dowie travels in luxurious state with several personal attendants, the car "Acania" being one of the finest ever built.
Five hundred guards guarded the departing trains. The city presents the appearance of army headquarters with troops departing for service. The Zion hosts held a continual prayer meeting in Shiloh Square, while a small army of sightseers, photographers and newspaper men thronged about them. Scores of guests who used tobacco and liquor were refused accommodations.
Dowie issued strict orders to arrest anyone chewing or smoking tobacco, drinking, swearing or jeering within the city limits, the penalty for each offense being a five dollar fine.
THE DEPARTURE.
As the first lot boarded the train enthrasms ran high.
The band, choir of six hundred, fifty drum and five corps and a choir of five hundred children gathered about the departing host and joined in anthems.
The first train pulled out at nine o'clock. Dowie in his special car left at one o'clock this afternoon.
Dowie gave his check for $50,000 to the railroads for eight trains.
The first two trains were solid pilgrims. As they pulled out Dowie assumed an attitude of prayer.

Hamilton, Mont. Oct. 14.—Seventy-five masked and armed men stormed the jail here last night, overpowered the jailer and hanged Walter Johnson to an electric light pole for murder of six-year-old Fannie Buck. ## TRESTLE SINKING IN MUD

Section of Salt Lake Cut-off Settled Seven Feet Today.
Track Was to Have Been Inspected by Southern Pacific Officials Next Month.
Ogden, Oct. 14.—Just as the Southern Pacific people thought they had solved the question of saving fifty miles of railroad trackage by the construction of the road across the upper arm of the Great Salt Lake, about seven miles, at the expense of a million dollars, serious doubt is thrown on the permanence of the improvement.
After the passing of a heavy rock train this morning one thousand feet of the finished track sank seven feet, throwing it so irregular on the surface as to preclude the passage of trains till raised and leveled.
This work which has been hailed as one of the greatest feats of modern engineering, was to be inspected by the Board of Directors for acceptance next month.
