Three murderous assailants rushed upon his carriage, repeatedly stabbed and tried to drag the prince from his wife's side. The thickness of the prince's cap saved his life, but he received a number of slight wounds.

A Cossack guard killed one of the assailants and mortally wounded another, and seriously wounded the third.

John Barrett, of Oregon, was the best man, and Henry Whitt, secretary of the embassy, gave the bride away. The wedding was a very brilliant one. Over 500 Americans of prominence witnessed the ceremony.

Montana Judgeship.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Representative Dixon, of Montana, was a caller at the White House this morning. Afterwards they said President Roosevelt had practically promised to appoint Governor Wm. Hunt, of Porto Rico, to the district bench in Montana on the retirement of Judge Hiram Kowles at the end of the year.

An Archbishop in Danger.

Vienna, Oct. 28.—An unsuccessful attempt was made to assassinate Archbishop Serajevo this morning. Two men disguised as women entered the

The archbishop's anti-Turkish propaganda is believed to have provoked the attempted assassination.

CHICAGO SHAKING-UP

Indictments and Arrests Will Soon Follow--Wholesale Tribute Levied on Vice.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—The special aldermanic investigation which for three weeks has been probing city hall affairs, has finished its work and is prepared to publicly place hands on the leaders of the graft ring that has existed many years among police officials and powerful politicians.

The blow is expected to fall within the next few hours. Indictments will follow and arrests be made before the names of those implicated are announced.

Twelve thousand dollars were subscribed by prominent citizens to pay expenses of getting the evidence. It is alleged that the ring has levied tribute for permission and extension of vice to the amount of several hundred thousand dollars.

BANK CLOSE DOORS

Take Advantage of the 30-Day Notice Clause.

Long Line of Depositors Waiting to Withdraw Their Savings --Small Crowds Gather in Front of Other Bank.

St. Louis, Oct. 28.—When the doors of the Mississippi Valley and the Mercantile Trust Company's banks opened this morning there were long lines of anxious depositors waiting to withdraw their savings from the banks, but were doomed to disappointment.

The bank took advantage of the 30-day notice clause and did not attempt to open their doors.

Small crowds are gathering in front of the other banking institutions and it is feared a run will commence on them.

The run became so bad by noon, that the police were unable to handle the surging crowd. Men and women were trampled and bruised and clothing was torn. The banks finally closed their doors, permitting only a few to enter at a time. Wagons, heavily loaded with coin were guarded in a measure to try and restore the confidence, but the run continues.

The savings clause of thirty days notice is still being enforced. Open accounts are being paid as fast as the money can be counted out.

A run is now being made on the Lincoln Trust Bank. They have plenty of coin and are paying all except the savings accounts on which they demand the legal notice of 30 days.

New York, Oct. 28.—Two million dollars were shipped from the treasury to the St. Louis banks today.

St. Louis, Oct. 28.—When it became known about the banks that large resources were on the way from Washington for the assistance of the banks that are being run upon, the excitement among depositors largely subsided.

Police to keep the crowd in order were dispensed with at the St. Louis Union Bank, while the jam at the Mercantile Bank melted away. A short time afterwards all was quiet at the Lincoln and Mississippi Valley banks.

Heinze Will Not Arbitrate.

Butte, Oct. 27.—Heinze, the mining king, issued a statement this morning declining to consider Lawson's proposition that an arbitration board fix the price to be paid by Lawson for the Heinze holdings. Heinze denies that he offered to sell for $7,000,000, as the property is worth fully $14,000,000. He adds that he will not consider seriously any offer that Lawson might make.

ABERDEEN BURNS AGAIN

Gray's Harbor Town In Very Bad Luck.

Seven Stores and Postoffice Burned--Loss About $150,000 --Origin of Fire a Mystery.

Aberdeen, Wash., Oct. 28.—Another destructive conflagration visited this town this morning, breaking out in the Commercial block, to which it was confined by the fire department.

The block, containing seven stores and the postoffice, was entirely destroyed but the flames were confined thereto. None of the goods were saved.

Several families rendered homeless by the last fire occupied rooms in the second story and were again burned out, losing everything, and are again homeless. Rain is falling heavily this morning.

The loss is $150,000 with $30,000 insurance. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

Others For the Axe.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Secretary Hitchcock for the first time consented to be interviewed today on Oregon land frauds.

He said there are other land office officials besides Asa E. Thompson, who was dismissed from the receivership of the La Grande land office, who will be suspended or discharged. He did not look for wholesale decapitations. That the investigation by the general land office was nearly completed when the matter would be turned over to the department of justice for action.

Will make a short statement for public information shortly.

In the present frauds about a hundred thousand acres of land valued at $1.25 to $2.50 an acre are involved.

The statement that twenty million acres are involved is grossly inaccurate.
