

MRS. NATION FORCIBLY EJECTED

Called at White House to See The President.

Was Turbulent--It Took Two Officers to Eject Her--Accuses Roosevelt of Smoking Nasty Cigarettes.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Carrie Nation was forcibly ejected from the White House this morning after endeavoring to force her way into the presence of the President. She entered at 10 o'clock and Secretary Loeb explained that the President was very busy. She sat down for about half an hour, keeping up a running comment on all other visitors who entered. Finally she walked into Loeb's office and said she demanded to see the President immediately, that she wanted to ask him why he brought a diva into Kansas when he took his Western tour. Loeb after a vain attempt to pacify her, called on two officers, who were compelled to drag the smasher out, as she resisted to her utmost. She created a scene in the street afterwards by praying for the election of a Prohibition president who would represent the people and not the brewers.

She came here from Baltimore last night where her troupe is playing "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." She accuses Roosevelt of smoking nasty cigarettes on the capital steps at Topeka.

CARRIE ARRESTED.

Washington, Nov. 19, 3 p. m.—Mrs. Nation has been arrested for disorderly conduct in selling souvenirs in the Senate gallery. She was taken to the police station in a patrol wagon.

President Won't Send Troops.

Washington, Nov. 19.—President Roosevelt, after a long conference with Secretary of War Root, today decided not to grant Governor Peabody's request for federal troops in Colorado mining districts.

Under the law the President can only act when violence is beyond control of state troops and police, then can act only on the request of the legislature or upon the governor's request if impossible to get the legislature together. The President and Secretary Root hold there is no insurrection in Colorado.

Southern Pacific Bridge Repaired.

Albany, Or., Nov. 18.—The damage to the Southern Pacific Railroad bridge across the South Santiam river on the Woodburn-Natron branch has been repaired so that trains will cross it after today. Ever since last Tuesday the Woodburn-Natron trains have made their trips by coming through Albany, via the Lebanon branch from Tallman and via the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad from Shelburn. The trains will resume their regular runs tomorrow.

Dr. Leeper's Narratives.

Albany Herald: Dr. M. V. Leeper, of Spring Hill is just back from his Lane county estate and reports as the results of the chase seven deer and a cougar, the latter measuring over six feet from tip to tip. Dr.

Leeper divided the honors with his sons Ralph and Oscar. They had hardly reached home when the storm that has been raging for a few days set in. The new cottage recently erected by O. M. Leeper was blown several feet from its foundations, but strange to say with the breakage of only a pane of glass. The last chapter in the Leeper story is that tomorrow Ralph Leeper appears in Eugene to defend his Lane county homestead claim in a contest brought by N. E. Dean, a timber locator, in commissioners' court. From this it would appear that the Leepers are carrying their part in the strenuous life.

EASY WAY TO BEAT GAMBLERS

Highwayman Lined Gamblers Against a Wall and Took Their Money.

Minneapolis, Nov. 19.—A lone masked highwayman entered the Metropolitan Club rooms where eight men were gambling at an early hour this morning. With drawn revolver he compelled the gamblers to line up with faces to the wall, then swept the money left on the table by the players into his pocket, backed out and down the stairs and escaped.

Coaching Football.

Fred D. Herbold, of Butte, Montana, and formerly a member of the U. O. football team, well known through athletic circles in Oregon, is engaged in coaching the Montana School of Mines football team. The team has played the leading football teams of Montana without being scored against, and they have an aggregate of 92 points in their favor. Certainly a good record.

It will be remembered that Herbold coached the Corvallis Agricultural team last year and developed them into a first class team and was engaged for this year, but on account of financial matters, the deal was called off.

CHICAGO'S STRIKING TEAMSTERS

Refuse to Handle Goods Shipped Over Street Railways.

500 Policemen Guard a Carload of Strike Breakers Shipped From St. Louis.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—Union teamsters this morning joined hands with the strikers, sixty walking out of the Chicago City Railway car barns. Every member of the organization will refuse to handle supplies for the company. This action was sanctioned by the council of the teamsters' union last night.

Mayor Harrison this morning renewed his efforts to end the trouble. Aldermanic mediation committee and the railway officials are arranging for another conference. The strikers announce that the wage scale will not stand in the way of a settlement, nor do they demand complete unionization of the roads. They do insist, however, that routing cars shall be changed so men will not have to put in from ten to twenty hours each day waiting about the barns in an effort to make ten hours actual running time.

Sunday's union mass meeting is expected to be the greatest demonstration of organized labor ever held in Chicago. Every union in the city will participate. They will march from headquarters headed by bands, to Tattersalls. The object of this monster meeting is to obtain the voice of the entire labor element on the strike question and municipal ownership of the city's street railways.

Late this forenoon it was announced that freight handlers for wholesale grocers would probably agree to handle goods destined over street railways. A carload of strike breakers arrived today from St. Louis. Cars started from Halsted street this morning, 500 policemen guarding them. There was some disorder about the barns. The police feared trouble as the line runs through a particularly tough district.

SNOW STOPS WORK IN BOHEMIA

Miners are Coming out From the District to Cottage Grove.

Cottage Grove, Or., Nov. 18.—Miners have been pouring into this place for the past three or four days from Bohemia at a lively rate, an account of the storms. There is reported to be about five feet of snow there at the present time, and it was still snowing at last reports. Should it quit soon, and mild weather follow for a few days, the snow will in all probability disappear so that outside work may be resumed for a limited time only. Little further headway can be made this season further than underground work and milling which can be carried on all winter by a number of companies.

More supplies and material for winter work have been shipped into the mines during the season just closing than at any past time during the same period. This means that greater activity may be looked for in that vicinity than ever before. Much valuable work has been done during the past summer in the camp, both in the construction of new roads and in the placing of new machinery.

Rich lodes that have previously been reported to the mining world have been further developed and found to be even greater than was first reported. Among these may be mentioned the famous Music mine, now owned and controlled by the Oregon Securities Company.

CHEYENNE EXCITED TODAY

Soldiers With Cannon Surround Jail and Courthouse

Horn Confident that Friends Will Rescue Him Before Hanging To morrow.

Cheyenne, Wyo. Nov. 19.—There is intense excitement here today over the prospective hanging of Tom Horn, the notorious scout and stock detective, tomorrow forenoon.

Soldiers and cannon surround the courthouse and jail where Horn is confined, with orders to shoot anyone who fails to halt when commanded.

Special deputies and militia companies from nearby towns are coming in to prevent rescue as threatened by Horn's friends. Serious trouble is expected tonight as the town is filled with strangers, all greatly excited over the expected execution.

Horn is so confident of release that he refuses to accept the services of a priest.

Cheyenne, Nov. 19, 2 p. m.—The county jail where Horn is confined was given extra guards at noon. Full companies of cavalry and infantry are now held at the courthouse.

The cowboys are gathering in the city and express themselves to the effect that the hanging shall not take place. If an attack comes the battle will be bloody as the fight will take place at close quarters.

Guards are stationed in the jail with instructions to shoot Horn should the attacking party successfully storm the jail.

The hanging is set for seven o'clock tomorrow morning.

Cheyenne, Nov. 19.—Governor Chatterton received a letter today, the writer threatening to kill him within twenty-four hours after Horn is hanged.

Madam Zola Robbed.
Paris, Nov. 19.—On opening her residence at McDan this morning, which had been closed for several months, Madam Zola found the place practically empty.

The thieves had carted away furniture, trunks, and curios, which her deceased husband, the novelist, had spent a lifetime in collection. There is no clue to the thieves.

Actor Arrested at Cottage Grove.

Cottage Grove, Or., Nov. 18.—Frank Montrose, in the employ of the Fischer Dramatic Company, was arrested here on a charge of larceny, claimed to have been perpetrated at Independence, Or. He gave $100 bonds to appear before the justice at this place for preliminary hearing.

Kidnaping Scheme.
Rome, Nov. 19.—The police have discovered the existence of a plot to kidnap Princess Matgner, daughter of King Victor Emmanuel. A constant guard has since been kept over the princess, day and night.

Resumes Work.

Pittsburg, Nov. 19.—The entire plant of the Pittsburg Steel Company resumes work Monday, after three weeks of idleness, in which 2000 men were without employment.

Klondike Gold.

Dawson, Nov. 19.—The total output of Klondike gold for the season of 1903 is $10,137,308 against $11,845,263 last year. The shrinkage is due to extreme shortage of water supply caused by tying up water rights in litigation.

Italian Revenge.

Minneapolis, Nov. 19.—The body of Salvatore Battalia, an Italian, was found in the Franklin Avenue bridge early this morning. Twenty-one stiletto wounds were counted on his person. The police believe it was a case of revenge for some injury as sixty dollars in the pockets were not taken. The wounds were inflicted from behind.

Indignant at Governor.

Denver, Nov. 18.—Labor leaders are indignant at Governor Peabody's action in calling for Federal troops at Telluride, where a strike has been on since last July.

They assert that not one act of violence has taken place at Telluride and but one assault at Cripple Creek, growing out of the strike.

The labor representatives assert that it is Governor Peabody's scheme to involve President Roosevelt in a labor dispute for political purposes.

MALCOM MOODY EXONERATED

Today's Oregonian: Ex-Representative Malcom A. Moody is acquitted and exonerated. Before the hearing of the case was completed, Judge Belling ordered that a verdict of acquittal be returned. After listening to a brief argument on the essential points in the action, the judge expressed the conviction that there was no evidence to show that Mr. Moody was guilty of any illegal act in the transaction through which he was alleged to have embezzled and opened a letter belonging to Mrs. Margaret L. Conroy. Without permitting the case to proceed any further, he took the matter in his own hands, commanded the verdict to be prepared immediately, and ordered a juror to sign it for the jury.

DOUBLE KILLING OVER CARDS
Denver, Nov. 19.—Father Lepore and Joe Sorici are both dying today the result of the double shooting over a game of cards in the priests' apartments in his church Wednesday night.

The priest says Sorici, they are both Italians, came here for the purpose of killing him, having once lost $300 in a New York bank failure conducted by Lepore. Their enmity may date back further as they were boys together in Italy.

BLIND COUPLE GET MARRIED
Miss Sadie Bristow and H. C. Smith Unite Their Fortunes.

Love is proverbially blind, but people usually take up matrimony with both eyes open. Miss Sadie Bristow and H. C. Smith, who were married at Keno, Klamath county, last Wednesday, are exceptions to the rule, for each is totally blind. Both bride and groom were at one time able to see and enjoy the beauties of nature. Miss Bristow, who is now 20 years of age, has been without her sight for fully 20 of those years, and it was while attending the Salem school for the blind that she became acquainted with her present husband, through the medium of correspondence for the blind. Mr. Smith is 40 years of age, and he had perfect sight until he was 21, but hard study, after a severe case of measles, at that time caused his blindness. He is a man of considerable means, owning a country story and some fine property in Klamath county. That he has not allowed his loss of sight to impair his usefulness in the world is proved by the fact that he conducts his own business, and almost entirely constructed the house in which he lives now. He goes into the timber and cuts his own wood, felling a tree as ably as a man with two good eyes. Miss Bristow is not far behind him in accomplishments, for she is able to do about the city alone, and does housework with perfect ease.—Ashland Tidings.
