MRS HENDRICKS AND DAUGHTERS RECEIVE

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Had Joint Installation—Farewell for Miss Saltzman.

Mrs. T. G. Hendricks and daughters, Misses Ada and Ruby Hendricks, received a large number of their lady friends this afternoon between the hours of three and five o'clock, at their residence on the corner of West Ninth and Charnetton streets. The house was arranged very artistically, the decorations being pink and red carnations and potted ferns. Little Mary Chambers attended the front door. Mrs. Hendricks and daughters received their guests in the spacious drawing rooms. They were ably assisted by Meadames Geo. W. Smith, Richard Dearborn and J. S. Luckey. In the library Miss Norma Hendricks presided over the punch bowl. The Mandolin Club also held forth in this room dispensing pretty music throughout the afternoon. The dining room was beautiful in its decorations of smilax and red carnations. Here Meadames C. A. Burden and Emma Thompson poured coffee. They were assisted by the Misses Elma Hendricks, Rosalie Friendly, Dollie Ankeny, and Nina Wilkins.

The exercises at the joint installation of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in I. O. O. F. hall last night were attended by a great throng from every lodge in the county, and the affair was one of the most successful of its kind that ever occurred in lodge circles in Eugene. The ceremonies of installation of officers were very interesting and impressive. After the work came the social part of the evening followed by one of the finest banquets ever served in the hall. The event is all the talk among the fraternity today.

Miss Emma Saltzman was tendered a farewell party last evening at the home of her sister Mrs. M. King, on East Ninth street, the occasion being her departure for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will spend the winter. Only a few of her most intimate friends were present. The evening was pleasantly passed with cards and music. A delicious luncheon was served by Miss Maude Kays, assisted by Miss Leone Kays. Miss Saltzman was escorted to the train where they wished her a very pleasant journey.

Horses Killed.

A team being driven by Archie Potter and John Doyle on the McKenzie road above Gate Creek, was killed on January 11th by a falling snag. It came down unexpectedly and barely missed Mr. Potter who was riding one of the horses which was killed. They were driving eight horses to a big load of mining machinery for the Blue River mines.
