FIRE IN CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Small Blaze in the Basement During the Sunday Services.

Early Sunday March 7, Sunday forenoon, about 11:30 o'clock, in the midst of the services at the Congregational church, fire broke out in the basement of the building, and much damage would have been done had it not been discovered in time.

Smoke in large quantities began to pour up through the floor into the auditorium, and Pastor R. T. Cross, realizing that there was a fire in the basement, dismissed his congregation and the church was soon emptied without any excitement.

An investigation proved that the heat from one of the furnace pipes had ignited the woodwork in the basement, and the flames were making good headway. An alarm was sounded in the department responding in quick order. One of the small chemical extinguishers was used to get out the fire, and the damage will amount to only a few dollars.

This blaze caught exactly the same as the one at the new Eugene theatre on the opening night, and which was near causing a panic.

James A. Stevens.

While little or no hope had been entertained for some weeks of the recovery of James A. Stevens from the mysterious physical decline that afflicted him, still the news of his death will come as a shock to his many friends. He died at 2 o'clock this morning, Monday, at his residence, three miles northeast of Eugene.

James Anderson Stevens was born in Polk county, Missouri, January 28, 1850. His father crossed the plains to Oregon in 1871, the son just then being but eight years of age. Since that year, the record of white settlement in Lane county, James Stevens made Lane county his home, and more, resided continuously on the donation claim, or a part thereof, taken up by his father, a resident of 34 years in practically the same home.

He married to Emily P. Greenwood Nov. 22, 1888. She survives him, together with their three children, Leon L. and Welby Stevens and Mrs. Elsie Somerville, all residents of the county.

The funeral will be held at the family residence at 11 o'clock Wednesday forenoon, March 9, intended to take place in the Eugene Masonic cemetery.

CHITTEM CLAIMS IN DEMAND

Good Many Homesteads Being Located in Western Lane for the Chittum Bark.

A correspondent at Greenleaf, Lane county, writes as follows:

"Chittum claims" are in demand, and a good many homesteads are being located where there are canyons containing the tree, the object being to peel the bark and abandon the claims, as there is no valuable timber on them, and they are of no value as homes under present conditions.

One man who has squatted on a claim in a canyon debouching into Chickahominy creek, is peeling the bark with a drawing knife and drying it in his cabin. He hired 1600 pounds hauled to Eugene a couple of weeks ago and sold it for 9 cents a pound, though by this process of peeling much of the inner bark is lost, so that the bark is not of the best quality.

SETTLED THE GORREL CASE

Frank Gorrell's Claim Against Douglas County.

For Damages Received by Collapse of a Bridge—Finally Accepted Sum of $2190.

Roseburg Review. A considerable portion of the day Friday was occupied by the county court and Frank Gorrell in reaching an agreement and making a settlement of the latter's claim against Douglas county for damages received by the collapse of a high bridge near Millwood early in July, 1902. It will be remembered that by the falling of that bridge Mr. Gorrell was precipitated a distance of about 35 feet among the rocks and debris, his fine team of horses being killed instantly. After weeks of suffering from the critical injuries sustained, Mr. Gorrell finally recovered sufficiently to be able to again get around and look after his affairs. He then filed a claim against the county for $10,000 damages for the injuries received. After postponing the matter from term to term the county court offered him $1,000. This was refused and he appealed the case to the circuit court. All Douglas county taxpayers being deemed interested parties, and therefore disqualified as jurors, the case was taken to Lane county for trial. There the jury returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Gorrell for $6000. This verdict was set aside by the court on the ground that under an act passed by the last Legislature no more than $2,000 damages can be paid by a county in such cases. The accident had occurred, however, before the enactment of that law, although this action in the circuit court was not begun until afterward. Recently negotiations were again taken up with Mr. Gorrell, and late Friday afternoon they were concluded by the county paying him $2,000 damages and $190 for his expenses in the trial of the case.

ALWAYS TIRED, NEVER RESTED

To be tired out from hard work or bodily exercise is natural and rest is the remedy, but there is an exhaustion without physical exertion and a tired, never-rested feeling—a weariness without work that is unnatural and shows some serious disorder is threatening the health. One of the chief causes of that "Always-tired, never-rested condition" is impure blood and bad circulation. Unless the body is nourished with rich, pure blood there is lack of nervous force, the muscles become weak, the digestion impaired, and general disorder occurs throughout the system. Debility, insomnia, nervousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, strength and energy, and the hundreds of little ailments we often have are due directly to a bad condition of the blood and circulation, and the quickest way to get rid of them is by purifying and building up the blood, and for this purpose no remedy equals S. S. S., which contains the best ingredients for cleansing the blood and toning up the system. It is a vegetable blood purifier and tonic combined, that enriches the blood, and through it the entire system is nourished and refreshing sleep comes to the tired, never-rested, body.

For over four years I suffered with general debility, causing a thorough breaking down of my system. My cousin, who had been benefited by S. S. S., told me about it. I tried it and it cured me. I heartily recommend S. S. S. to all who may feel the need of a thoroughly good blood tonic. Yours truly, MRS. JOSIE A. BRITAIN, 44 W. Ninth St., Columbia, Tenn.
