"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui as I am very grateful for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with some Wine of Cardui and indicated that I take it for a week and see what it would do for me. As he seemed to have so much faith in it I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

MOTHERHOOD is the noblest duty and highest privilege women can achieve or aspire to. Without this privilege women do not get all there is in life—too often they go through the world discontented, wrapped up in their own selfish cares and troubles. How different is the happy mother, watching her children grow into manhood and womanhood. A mother lives as many lives as she has children—their joys and sorrows are hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats. Healthy women do not suffer miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.
Wine of Cardui, in re-inforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering? Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.

WINE of CARDUI A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

HOW JOHN VAN DUYN DIED

Was in Great Agony for Several Hours Before Death Occurred.

Daily Guard March 9

A telephone message was received in Eugene from Gate Creek late this afternoon that John Vanduy, of Coburg, died suddenly at the Blue River mines yesterday morning, and that the remains were then at Gate Creek on their way to Eugene for burial. No particulars of the death are obtainable.

Mr. Vanduy was a well known Coburg pioneer, and leaves a family. He has been interested in Blue River mining properties for several years, and spends a great deal of his time at the mines.

The remains will arrive in Eugene some time tomorrow, and burial arrangements will at once be made. Parties who came down from the mines a couple of days ago say that when they left there Mr. Vanduy seemed to be in perfect health. Heart disease was no doubt the cause of death.

The deceased was a prominent citizen of the county, and was aged 60 years.

Daily Guard March 10

The remains of John Van Duyn, the Coburg pioneer, who died suddenly at Blue River Tuesday night, arrived here late this afternoon and the body is being prepared for burial by Undertaker R M Day. Considerable delay in reaching Eugene was experienced, as it was necessary, on leaving Walthersville, to take the Camp Creek road and come by way of the Hayden bridge, as the McKen river was in such a swollen condition that it was impossible to operate the ferry at Hendricks'.

The funeral will not take place until Owen Van Duyn, son of the deceased, can arrive from California. He is expected tomorrow if the trains are not delayed.

HOW HE DIED.

Wm Calkins, who arrived down from Blue River this forenoon, tells of the manner in which Mr Van Duyn died. He says that death occurred about 1 o'clock Wednesday morning. The day before he was as well as he ever was and in excellent spirits. About 10 o'clock he became violently ill and suffered intense agony until death came. Mr. Calkins stated that it was thought by many that death was caused by ptomaine poisoning, as he frothed at the mouth and convulsions followed each other in rapid succession.

William Van Duyn, brother of the deceased, who lives in Eugene, this afternoon told a Guard reporter that he had just received a long letter from his brother, written a short time before his death, in which he stated that he was in the best of health. He often suffered from asthma in the valley, but since going to the mountains he had been entirely free from it. Mr. Van Duyn lived alone in a cottage near the hotel, and attended to affairs about his mining properties daily.

WORK ON BASEBALL GROUNDS

Will Commence at Once -- Tickets to Be Sent to Players April 10.

The long looked for break in the extended stretch of steady downpour is now about due, and may be expected at any time. The baseball management has been eagerly consulting the almanacs for the past month, and it has been discovered that we are promised five days of good weather, beginning today.

Work on the new baseball grounds at the south end of Willamette street will begin at once. The fence and grandstand will be erected first and when the ground gets dryer grading and leveling will begin. It is intended to make the grounds as good or better than the Stewart grounds were last season, and Eugene will no doubt have as good grounds as any city in the league circuit.

SEND TICKETS APRIL 10.

Manager DuShane will send transportation to his players on April 10, and they are all expected here by the 14th or 15th, when practice will at once begin. Mr. DuShane hears from his players quite often and they are all anxious to get here early and go to work.

TERRIBLE CALIFORNIA STORM

Buildings Blown Down In San Francisco Last Night.

Storm Extends Over Central and Northern Parts of State--Marine Disasters Feared.

San Francisco, Mar. 10.—The worst wind and rain storm in thirteen years swept over central and northern California and southern Oregon last night and this morning, causing heavy property loss and perhaps loss of life. Many places are flooded, and the business quarter of Sausalito, Calif., is under water.

No vessels arrived here this morning. It is feared a number of disasters have occurred along the coast. A number of ships in the bay are badly damaged.

In the city barns, fences, signs and roofs were wrecked. In the downtown districts water has backed up, flooding the cellars. The upper part of a six-story building in course of construction at Bush and Polk streets was badly twisted by the wind. The whole building is damaged and is in danger of falling over. The fire department is considering the advisability of tearing it down. A three-story building in course of construction on Lake street, near Sixth avenue, was blown over completely and demolished.

The U S schooner Ernest went ashore on Goat Island. All the crew escaped, but it is feared the vessel cannot be saved.

All telephone and telegraph wires have been down the entire morning. For several hours San Francisco was practically cut off from communication with the outside world.

At San Jose the streets resemble a miniature lake.

A veritable cloudburst struck Santa Rosa and vicinity. All streams are out of their banks and traffic on the California Northwestern Railroad has been abandoned. The railroad tracks are under two feet of water and a number of washouts are reported.

Guerneville reports a big landslide, completely blocking traffic. Petaluma was hit hard. In an incredibly short time a portion of the business district was under four and five feet of water, rushing through the streets and warehouses with the fury of a mill race. Several narrow escapes from drowning are reported from Petaluma.

WILL MOVE TO ABERDEEN

The Haines Tannery Practically Decided Upon Point of New Location.

Despite all efforts to retain the establishment here, Eugene will for a certainty lose the big Haines tannery. The Guard has previously announced that Haines & Son have been looking around for a new location, W. W. Haines, the senior partner, having made several trips to points in Washington for that purpose.

John Haines, the junior member of the firm, yesterday informed a reporter that they had practically decided upon Aberdeen as their new location, although they have received flattering offers from various other points, one from a place very near to the British Columbia line.

In the vicinity of Aberdeen there is an abundance of tan bark, the lack of which in this vicinity being the cause of the removal of the plant.

The removal of the tannery will be a big loss to Eugene and Lane county. From ten to twenty men are constantly employed in the establishment, and it means the removal of almost that any families from the place.

ENGLAND AND RUSSIA MAY FIGHT

Feeling in Russian Government Circles to that Effect.

Preparations for Defense of Russian Baltic Coast Being Rushed--An Attack on India.

Berlin, Mar. 10.—The Tageblatt today asserts that the conviction prevails in government circles in Russia that war with England will be the inevitable outcome of the war with Japan. Active preparations are proceeding on an elaborate scale, including measures for the defense of the Baltic coast. Prince Uchtomskii, the Czar's confident, is quoted as stating that a Russian attack on India is imminent.

STATE LABOR COMMISSIONER HERE

O. P. Hoff Looking Into Labor Conditions in the Upper Valley.

O P Hoff, state labor commissioner, is in the city from Salem. He is making a tour of the upper valley, looking into labor conditions and compelling the enforcement of the child labor law.

In conversation with a Guard reporter this afternoon Mr. Hoff stated that yesterday he visited Brownville and examined into the conditions at the woolen mill there. He found one boy employed in the mill who is under the age limit required by the law, and the managers of the mill immediately sent him home. The limit is fourteen years if able to read and write, and sixteen years if not. Commissioner Hoff came over from Springfield last night and has been visiting the various factories here. So far he has found everything satisfactory. He stated that the new labor law is being pretty generally complied with all over the state, and that he has had very little trouble to enforce the law.

Coburg Items.
