

DU SHANE'S BLUES ARE HERE

All Except Schofield Who Will Arrive in Two Days.

The Short Practice Sunday Allowed the Fans to Judge the Work of the Members of the Team.

All the Eugene "Blues" have reported for duty except Pitcher Schofield, who has been detained at his home in California on account of illness, but will be here on the 20th.

In addition to the players who arrived Saturday, Ordway came in Sunday morning, Somers Sunday afternoon, and "Kid" Briseno arrived from Los Angeles on this morning's train.

Those who are on hand now are as follows: Manager DuShane, Reitz, Harper, Romer, Somers, McFarland, Radford, Downing, White, Ordway, O'Day and Briseno.

Sunday afternoon at the new South Side Park the men were put through light practice and the fans who went out to see the boys work were well pleased with their appearance.

One thing is certain, DuShane has gathered together a bunch of hard hitters, judging from the way they slugged the ball yesterday, and everyone knows how to handle the sphere. Although the grounds yesterday were wet and in a bad condition, the work of the team was snappy and full of ginger. It looks like Eugene certainly has a pennant-winning aggregation. DuShane, Reitz, Downing and Briseno are all big leaguers and with the other players picked from the minor leagues, we will have a bunch of players which will make them all go some, and which the fans are confident will land the pennant.

Work of spreading sand over the infield was begun this morning, several teams being engaged in hauling it to the park. The sand will be worked with the natural soil and then packed down with a heavy roller. If the weather man will only be good, Eugene will have excellent grounds by the time the season opens, but it is going to be difficult to work them if it keeps on raining.

Coast League scores: Saturday's games—Los Angeles, 3; Tacoma, 2. San Francisco, 1; Portland, 0. Seattle, 12; Oakland, 4. Sunday's games—Portland, 1; San Francisco, 0. Tacoma, 3; Los Angeles, 2. Oakland, 5; Seattle, 4. Second game—Seattle 8; Oakland, 1.

The percentage of the teams at present is as follows: Tacoma, 66; Oakland, 53; Los Angeles, 50; Seattle, 47; San Francisco, 45; Portland, 28.

Vancouver's State League team defeated a team styling themselves the Semi-Professionals, of Portland, Sunday by the score of 4 to 2.

Yesterday's Roseburg Review: "One day more and the complete Roseburg baseball team of the state league will assemble at Rose Park for collective practice. Shortstop Harry Newell, of Portland, and Pitcher Fred Gregory, of Whiteome, Wash., arrived here Tuesday, and Pitcher Chas. Blyden arrived from Albany this morning. With the arrival of Pitcher Ray Reed from Portland this evening and Chas. and William Oswald, catcher and outfielder respectively from San Francisco tonight, the aggregation that is going to land the pennant for Roseburg will have all reported for duty. The remainder of the team, consisting of Pitcher "Slats" Hunter, Second Baseman Nadler, Third Baseman Bradley and Outfielders Miller and Millington, have been indulging in light practice here for the past few days under the watchful eye of Captain Morrow. The league team will play two practice games before leaving for Salem. One will be with the high school team next Saturday and the other the following day with the S. O. U. W. nine."

Roseburg Plaindealer: And now the moans, groans and cries of "Dutch" Nadler are heard issuing from the cracks in the club room. "Dutch" is having a hard time getting his "son bone" (right arm) in just the turn he wants it, hence his bother. "Dutch" Nadler should be ashamed of himself in putting out a bundle of old stiffs together. Nad-ler is at least 30 years old, and his stiffness shows it. Then there is Mr. Bradley and "Splinters" Gregory, both carrying a crop of gray hair. Charley Blyden is not old but far enough to be taken for a breweryman. There is something wrong.

Died.

Mrs. Emma Larsb, wife of Alex Lamb died at Elmira, April 14 aged 45 years. She leaves six children, Mrs. Maggie Kayser, of Block House, Wash., and five at home. The burial took place at the Inman cemetery Friday afternoon, Rev. Richardson officiating. She had many friends.

A Register Convention.

The Republican, Socialist and Democratic county conventions have been held in the order named, and now, a friend suggests, it would be peculiarly appropriate that the Register hold a convention. It has been nominating candidates on other tickets, now let it hold a Register convention.

TAYLOR HAS THE CONTRACT

The contract for moving the old Central school building and putting up a new foundation and other improvements, as specified in the Guard some time ago, was let to the lowest bidder, G. W. Taylor, the house mover, whose bid was $1830.

The work of moving the building will begin as soon as school is out, and the work is to be finished and the building to be ready at the beginning of school in September.

FRESHMEN PAINT SKINNER'S BUTTE

The obstreperous freshmen of the university last night let off some of their surplus energy in decorating the side of Skinner's Butte with a big '07, done in white. The '06 painted on the old observatory a few nights ago was blotted out.

The freshmen, as a class, may be proud of the fact that in their efforts to become conspicuous they have not been guilty of using the sides of private buildings for decorative purposes.

VISITED THE BOOTH-KELLY MILLS

Railroad Officials go to Springfield and Wendling.

With a View of Making Investigations of Conditions Behind Demand for Lower Lumber Rates.

Saturday's Telegram says: Default announcements concerning various important traffic questions may be expected immediately, for three of the high traffic officials of the Harriman system have spent the day in Oregon, becoming acquainted with the situation on the Southern Pacific, and whose coming has long been anticipated as the forerunner of intended changes.

Late this afternoon a special train arrived in Portland, made up of two private cars, one occupied by Traffic Director J. C. Stubbs, Assistant Traffic Director E. O. McCormick, of the Harriman system, and Freight Traffic Manager William Sproule, of the Southern Pacific, and the other occupied by Manager Koehler and General Freight and Passenger Agent Coman, of the Southern Pacific Oregon lines.

The three officials first named left San Francisco Thursday night with their car attached to overland limited No. 16, the last of the five-section train arriving in Portland this morning. At Albany their private car was detached and made part of a special train by which the party was taken over the Mohawk branch to Wendling and Springfield, the points where large mills of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Co. are situated, to make investigations of the local conditions that are behind the demand for lower lumber rates to San Francisco.

This is one of the rate demands of greatest importance to Oregon. The lumbering interests are asking for a restoration of the rate of $5.10 per 100 pounds on lumber to San Francisco that was in effect for five years previous to last October. This rate is equivalent to $5.17 per 1000 feet, while the new rate of $5 per 1000 pounds is equivalent to $5.33 per 1000 feet. Restoration to the old rate, the lumbermen claim, will enable them to operate their mills, even with the unfavorable condition of the markets, but there has been nothing more definite received from traffic representatives in Oregon than the statement that it is being considered. Since Mr. Stubbs is the supreme power in rate questions and all other traffic matters, an answer is anticipated. It is understood that the representatives of the principal lumber companies expected to meet with the officials and confer with them relative to the demands made this forenoon, and it was believed that a personal visit to the region would demonstrate the hardship forced upon the interests and loss to the railroad.

ON THE CHARGE OF BURGLARY

During the fire early this morning two men were caught taking several pairs of trousers from F. L. Poindexter's dye and cleaning works on West Eighth street, near the scene of the conflagration. They were at once taken to jail and locked up.

The men, who give their names as William and Harry Wilgate, were taken before Justice of the Peace Wintermeier this afternoon, at one o'clock, on the charge of burglary, and time of arraignment was set for tomorrow at one o'clock.

The men, who are supposed to be hoboes, say they arrived in Eugene on the night train only a short time before the fire. One of them, while being taken to jail, declared to Chief of Police Stiles that if allowed his liberty he "would tell all about it." Some think that he meant the origin of the fire, but the officers are not inclined to think that way.

Several pairs of the trousers stolen by the men were found in their possession.

WOULD WIN FAME AT OXFORD

H. B. Denmore, of Eugene, was the only candidate for examination for the Cecil Rhodes scholarship who presented himself for the local examination yesterday. The examinations are being held at the Bishop Scott academy, and are being conducted by President W. M. Serian, of the Pacific University, Principal Newill, of the Bishop Scott Academy, and President P. L. Campbell, of the University of Oregon.

Mr. Denmore is a student at the University of Oregon at Eugene. The examinations provide for an entrance to Oxford University, England, and applicants must have completed the sophomore year of some reputable university. The scholarship carries with it a three-year course at the university with an annuity of $1500 a year.

A multitude of young men throughout the country, representing the flower of the student bodies of leading colleges and universities, racked their brains yesterday in an endeavor to pass successfully the examination. The examinations were held simultaneously in every state and territory. Of the vast number about four score will be awarded the coveted honors.

Yesterday's examinations form the first steps toward carrying out the colossal educational plan of the late Cecil Rhodes. By the terms of the will of Mr. Rhodes two scholarships in Oxford university were appropriated to each of the states and territories of the United States for the purpose of promoting a proper understanding of England, her laws, customs and institutions. Each of the scholarships is worth $1500 annually, the money being provided by interest from a permanent endowment set aside for that specific purpose by the terms of the will.—Yesterday's Portland Journal.

McKINLEY--WARE TRIAL IN MAY

The First Week of Next Month Will Witness Beginning of Land Fraud Trials.

The trials of Horace G. McKinley, S. A. D. Pater, Marie Wren and Mrs. Emma L. Watson, under indictment for conspiracy to defraud the government out of timber lands, will likely begin in the federal court during the first week of May, according to the district attorney. The arraignment of Mrs. Watson, who is under $4000 bonds, will occur some time before that date.

In the federal court tomorrow the district attorney will request that the date of the trials be set for the first week in May. In case the request is granted he will have the opportunity of making good the charges he has made through the grand jury. The conspiracy charges will likely be the first to go to trial.

"Oh, I don't know when the trials will begin, the first week in May probably," said the district attorney today. "I don't know anything about Mrs. Watson's arraignment; it will take place when her attorneys and myself agree on a date."—Portland Journal.

Political Notes.

The independent Springfield News of today has the following pertinent political paragraphs:
In nominating Hermann the Republican party of this district has taken upon itself an ordeal that that will not only prove an embarrassment to the President of the United States, but very distasteful to themselves.
Now the Democrats are looking for the weak spots in the Republican ticket. There are some there, too.
The Register is now furnishing candidates for the Democrats. Well, there's nothing like being accommodating.
Eugene got eight out of the eleven offices on the Republican ticket at the convention Saturday; Cottage Grove one; Junction one; Goshen one; Springfield 0.
