

DEGREE OF HONOR
CONVENTION

Interesting Meeting Being Held at Albany--Eugene Delegates There in Force.

(Guard Special Service.) Albany, Or., April 21.—The district convention of the Degree of Honor was convened in the A. O. U. W. hall yesterday forenoon, with Miss Maggie Barker, district president, in the chair. Interesting sessions were held yesterday and last evening, and will continue today.

Tonight will be the big time of the convention, when special delegations will come from Corvallis and other places. New officers will be elected at that time.

Outside of Albany, Eugene is the best represented, there being from that city Mesdames C. H. Downs, A. F. Julian, J. Goldsmith, W. Kuykendall, Chas. Starr, L. Lombard, W. O. Zeigler, M. Apperson and Miss Dana Brabham.

Harrisburg is next with Kittie Barber, Ethel Sabin, Nida Bennett, Ethel Hendee, Mrs. C. E. Maxon, Mrs. W. L. Wright and Mrs. J. R. Cartwright.

Mrs. I. B. Sprenger and Mrs. Wm. Roberts are present from Lebanon, and Mrs. M. A. Moore from Corvallis.

Mrs. William Colvig, grand chief of honor of the grand lodge, is here, also Mrs. Mary Randall, of Portland, and Mrs. J. A. Fiedelband, of Astoria, members of the grand lodge.

LEGISLATIVE TICKET
PATCHWORK

There is a rumor abroad that seems to be more than mere talk that the Republican dissatisfaction over the defeat of Hon. J. M. Shelley for the legislature is to be allayed by the withdrawal of Walter Griffin and the substitution of Mr. Shelley in his place. It is asserted that the change will be made before the end of next week.

A. H. GIBSON.

A. H. Gibson, a well known resident of Fall Creek, died April 19, at 1 a. m., aged 64 years. He has been a resident of Lane county for the past fifteen years. He leaves three sons, W. F., Ed and George Gibson, and four daughters, Mrs. Isabel Carpenter, Mrs. Lillie Randall, Mrs. Fred Butcher, all of Lane county, and Mrs. R. Bland, of Hay Creek. The funeral was held this afternoon, and the remains interred in Fall Creek cemetery. Rev. E. G. Callison conducted the services.

Note and Comment.

It is rather amusing to a man with a relative memory to observe the inconsistency of the Register editor and the Republican party in their frantic struggle to land a sheriff in office. Four years ago, when Dr. Kuykendall placed James L. Page before the Republican convention for sheriff, he stated that it was absolutely necessary to place in the office a man who was an expert bookkeeper, one who should be able to look after the county records himself and not treat so important a matter to a deputy. This year in nominating Joe Stiles he stated that it was quite unnecessary for the sheriff to be at all conversant with the art of bookkeeping; that a good bookkeeper could be hired at a salary ranging from $50 to $75 per month. What the county needed was a man who would be able to detect criminals, and, in fact, become a very Nick Carter terror to them. The Register, like an obedient poodle, falls into line, and this morning prints a long article dealing with Stiles' record as a man-hunter and his wonderful detective talent, then intimates that Sheriff Fisk does nothing but lie around the office and cool his heels for amusement, and that he leaves the dangerous work for his deputies. Every one knows this intimation is false. Although Fred has been at the head of the office but a little over a year, he has on several occasions proven his courage in dangerous problems.

Such ridiculous insinuations will not receive the intelligent voters, the Republican party in Lane county and its machine boss will find this to be an absolute fact in 1920.

Banded for $50,000.

The Albany Democrat came from the Albany source that the group of four or five claims of the Poorman Mining Co., in the Blue River district, on the Linn County side, have been bonded for $50,000. This company is composed mostly of Brownsville men, N. B. Standish being a leading stockholder. The Poorman Mines adjoin those of the Oriental Co., of this city. The transaction will mean a good deal for the mines.

McElroy's Band.

W. E. McElroy, formerly director of the Fourth Regiment Band of this city, has again received the contract for furnishing the music for the state fair next fall. His Salem band will be reinforced by such well-known musicians as Alf Dillard, J. J. Hughes and A. Svarverud, of Eugene. Mr. McElroy has an excellent band and will no doubt give satisfaction.

STRICKEN HEPPNER IS RISING BRAVELY

J. D. Waite, of Heppner, was in the city yesterday and recalled the cloudburst of last summer, of which appalling catastrophe he was an eye-witness, says the Portland Journal. He says that Heppner has grown up again and has survived the disaster in a creditable manner, but that the bottom of the Willow Creek valley is not covered with dwellings now as it was before the cloudburst. People building new residences have placed them further back upon the hills, where there will be no danger of their being swept away, should a repetition of the terrible disaster of last summer occur.

Although it is not believed possible that another cloudburst will again come the residents of that section have not forgotten the disaster of last year, and building operations are being planned with the memory of the disaster of last summer ever before those who are erecting their future homes.
