SHOOTING AT CORVALLIS

SHERIFF KILLS A BOY

Who Had Shot a Police Officer and a Deputy Sheriff.

The Boy Who Was Drunk Was Resisting Arrest--Great Excitement Prevails in Corvallis.

Corvallis, Or., April 25.—Chester Keady is dead, James Dunn, ex-chief of police of Corvallis, is perhaps fatally shot, David A. Osburn, ex-sheriff.

There was some parleying, and in the process of the attempt to arrest Keady the pursuer and pursued passed from Chipman's restaurant to the postoffice, a distance of a block.

Sheriff Burnett was sent for, and in due time arrived. James Dunn accompanied him, and the Sheriff, approaching Keady near James Taylor's residence, took Keady by the arm and ordered him under arrest.

There Burnett fired, and Keady fell with a shot in his head. Dunn fell into the arms of a companion, firing two shots from his pistol at Keady as he did so.

Burt Torney aged 22, is in custody as an accessory with Keady.

Corvallis, Or., April 25, 3 p. m.—Ex-Sheriff Osburn is much better and unless complications ensue he will recover. The condition of Dunn is not so good. The symptoms are not wholly unfavorable, though he suffers much.

THE DEADLY TORPEDO AND HOW IT IS SENT ON ITS DESTRUCTIVE ERRAND.

The upper picture shows a Whitehead torpedo in a submerged tube on a battleship. The stern of the torpedo alone is visible. Behind the lateral and horizontal rudders are the propellers, which are run by compressed air contained in a chamber of the torpedo and which send the engine of death on its mission.

iff of Benton county, is dangerously shot, as the result of a pistol duel that took place shortly after midnight Sunday morning.

Keady is aged about eighteen years, and is the son of George B. Keady, head of the printing department at the college. He was shot in the head and instantly killed by Sheriff Burnett while resisting arrest.

Osburn's wound is in the neck, the ball having entered the left side of the neck, and is probably lodged under the right shoulder blade.

Dunn's wound is in the abdomen, two inches to the left and below the navel. The surgeons are now in the midst of an operation to determine the character of his injuries.

Keady was DRUNK.

The trouble began shortly after midnight, when Keady, after leaving a restaurant fired off his pistol, and ex-Sheriff Osburn, who is night officer of Corvallis, undertook to arrest him. Keady was under the influence of liquor, and when Osburn approached him he drew a gun and ordered Osburn to halt.

CHICAGO BANDITS' FUNERAL

Funeral and Burial Today in a Downpour of Rain.

The Mothers Bade Pathetic Farewell to Their Offspring Killed by the Law.

Chicago, April 25.—In a downpour of rain the funerals of the late "automatic trio" of carbarbers were held this morning from the undertaking rooms where the bodies had lain since the execution. Three thousand morbid people stood about. Religious services were held over all three, Catholic in the cases of Marx and Van Dine, and Protestant for Neidermeier. The latter was buried at Oak Side, the former two at Mount Carmel. The mothers bade pathetic farewells to their offsprings, each kissing a pallid face.

Viceroy Alexieff Recalled.

Berlin, April 25.—Die Post announces an imperial decree signed by the czar this morning, officially recalling Viceroy Alexieff.

Japanese Steamer Sunk.

London, April 25.—The Japanese minister, Hayashi, reports that two Russian torpedo boats entered the harbor of Wonsan, on the east coast of Korea, today, and sank a small Japanese steamer, the Geyo Maru, six hundred tons.

Hasty With the Sword.

Vienna, April 25.—The Hungarian parliament was prorogued by royal decree this morning in order to obtain a free hand for Count Tisza, the premier, in dealing with striking railway men. During the rioting a Eled Sunday a peasant knocked the sword from the hand of a captain of hussars, when a corporal promptly clove the peasant's head.

And What About the President?

Berlin, April 25.—Roosevelt has offended the German chauvinists by an interview with him by Eugene Zabel, of the National Zeitung, who enables that the president devoted a quarter of an hour extolling Ambassador Steinburg, the German ambassador. "Although flattering," says the Breslau Zeitung, "Roosevelt's testimonial offends the dignity of the German empire, and creates the impression that Steinburg is striving to gain the American government's approbation instead of resolutely protecting the interests of the fatherland."

EFFORT TO ASSASSINATE

Italian Anarchists Would Kill President Loubet.

The French Executive in Danger of His Life While Visiting Rome.

Berlin, April 25.—The Tageblatt has received a code dispatch from Rome, reporting an attempt to assassinate President Loubet, of France, who is now in Rome. The plot was discovered and frustrated. Similar code messages have reached prominent financiers on the bourse. The Paris correspondent of the Tageblatt also wires that reports of the attempted assassination reached there. The Italian censorship has suppressed the direct news.

BRIGANDS MAKE IT WARM FOR FOREIGNERS

St. Petersburg, April 25.—The Vreyma today quotes the Shantung Shihao, of Peking, as stating that the anti-foreign agitation in northern China is growing and is being carried on actively by the brigands. Seven persons have been killed near Tien Tsin. Trouble has also occurred at Louanfu, Shansi province, Shunde, Pechili province, and several other places. A French merchant and Signor Poma, an Italian road engineer, have been killed. A desperate fight is reported in the disturbed district in which twenty Europeans are said to have been massacred. The authorities have telegraphed to Peking for reinforcements to suppress the brigands.

Bright Invention.

Clarence Morse is not only a bright young musical genius but he has recently demonstrated the fact that he has somewhat of a mechanical head on his shoulders. Feeling the need of a more rapid means of copying and writing music than by the use of a pen he secured an old typewriter, remodeled it and fitted the bars up with notes and musical characters, and is now able to produce or write music with accuracy and considerable rapidity with this slight altered and remodeled typewriter. This young man will no doubt be heard from in the future.—Cottage Grove Nugget.
