By winning Sunday's game by the score of 8 to 3, the Blues captured the whole series from the Soldiers of Vancouver, and the local fans are simply wild with delight. They believe that DuShane has a team that is going to win the pennant and are willing to stake their money on that proposition.

Yesterday's game, though marred in the first two or three innings by a shower of rain, which rendered the diamond rather muddy, was a good exhibition, both teams playing good ball.

Schofield made his first appearance in the box, and although he was a little wild at times, held the visitors down to seven hits. He was given fine support. "Slata" Taylor did the twirling for the visitors. He pitched a good ball, but was handicapped by the slippery ball in the first part of the game.

A feature of the game was DuShane's work at centre. He had six put-outs to his credit, some of them being very difficult chances. Downing, on third, did some pretty work, he and Radford pulling off a corking double play in the fifth inning.

The attendance was large, the grandstand and bleachers being full to overflowing.

Roseburg Lost Again.

The Salem Raglans defeated the Roseburg Shamrocks Sunday afternoon by the score of 4 to 1. This is the third straight victory for Salem. Thursday's postponed game will be played at some future date.

HARPER AND O'DAY COINED OUT

Manager Preble of Vancouver Will Use Two Eugene Players for Awhile.

Manager DuShane, of the Blues, has loaned to the Vancouver team O'Day and Harper until they are needed here or until Vancouver can secure a full team up to the standard of the Oregon State League. O'Day and Harper are both excellent players and will be valuable additions to the Vancouver aggregation. "Slata" Taylor, the pitcher, has been released and Vancouver has signed him. He pitched two games for the Soldiers during the series of games just closed and while both games were lost, he did splendid work, and if proper support had been given him he would have had at least one victory to his credit.

Manager Preble is busy at work securing better players for his team and expects to win his share of the games to be played with Salem this week at Vancouver.

Roseburg plays here this week and the Blues go to Roseburg next week. The Roseburg team arrived here from Salem last night.

SHERIFF FISK RECEIVES PRAISE

The Springfield News, independent, after a short biographical sketch of Sheriff Fisk, adds:

"Sheriff Fisk as sheriff and tax collector has given general satisfaction. He is conscientious in the discharge of his duties, honest and upright treating every one, regardless of politics, with a fairness and equality that merits their esteem. He is free from that bragadocia that sometimes characterizes officials and possesses a quiet unassuming temperament that from day to day is the same and under trying circumstances cool and deliberate."

"Personally and officially Sheriff Fisk is held in high regard by all that know him. His honesty and integrity are marked attributes and his character and honor are untarnished. Fraternally Sheriff Fisk belongs to Eugene Camp, W. O. W., Knights of Pythias and Masons, and is master of Eugene Lodge Number 11, A. F. & A. M."

McKINLEY-WARE LAND CASE

Will Come Up in United States Court at Portland May 15.

Because F. J. Heney, special prosecutor for the government in the land fraud cases which have been tried in the West the past few years and which are still to be tried, will not be able to arrive here sooner, says the Portland Telegram of Saturday, the cases wherein Horace G. McKinley, S. A. D. Pater, Mrs. Emma L. Watson, Marie Ware and others are charged with conspiracy to defraud the government and forgery will not come up for trial until May 15.

The first case to be tried will be that of Horace G. McKinley and S. A. D. Pater, who are charged with conspiracy to defraud the government of lands. The next case will be that of Mrs. Emma L. Watson and Miss Marie Ware, who will be charged with the same crime. Mrs. Watson is still in the city and Miss Ware was at Eugene when last heard from. Their trial will be separated from the others. Both women, young and pretty, on trial with Horace G. McKinley and S. A. D. Pater, it is thought, would tend to influence the jury to bring in a milder verdict than the prosecution hopes for.

The next case tried will be that of Horace G. McKinley, S. A. D. Pater and Miss Marie Ware on a charge of forgery. This trial is also in connection with the alleged land frauds, the indictment charging them with forging the names of entrymen on homestead and timber claims.

Note and Comment.

The Register has made the discovery that the Guard wants Sheriff Fisk elected, and more, it does not fail to keep its readers advised of the fact. But why should it sould at the Guard like an old termagant for wanting Sheriff Fisk elected, when it is doing all in its power to accomplish the election of Mr. Stiles. So very inconsistent, don't you know.

That was a regrettable affair on the street last evening in which two prominent educators were concerned—not the least regrettable part of the incident being the rumors for which it is responsible. While the Guard has been approached to suppress mention of the matter from its news columns, we do not consider that the better course for the public, or the schools nor for the people engaged, for that matter. There are all kinds of stories afloat. We think it best to give the facts so far as we have been able to obtain them. It is a public matter, the people concerned are public men, the public should be given the facts so it will not be misled by irresponsible rumor.

The English language is a great medium by which to express thought—lack of thought. Here is the Register asserting that it "prides itself on the fact that no living man can dictate or attempt to dictate the policy of the paper." That excludes dead men, at the same time not even permitting an "attempt" at dictation. Maybe the rest of the sentence is accurate.

The lilac is a shrub, but one at least in Eugene has attained something of the proportions of a tree. It stands by the front of the long house adjoining the Methodist church on the south, and the body of several feet has a diameter of at least six inches. It is a pioneer.

With W. P. Cheshire as county judge and H. R. Hill re-elected county commissioner, there will be no discrimination among the taxpayers—not as it has been, the small property owners paying on a good proportion of the valuation, while railroad and big corporation property escape at a small per cent of what it is worth.

SPRINGFIELD WATER WORKS

City Will Vote on Issuance of Bonds on May 9.

Proposition of Booth-Kelly Company to Furnish Water Was Turned Down by the Council.

Springfield News: The much talked of water system proposition has so far advanced that the city fathers have decided to call a special election, which is to be held on Monday, May 9, for the purpose of voting on the question of issuing bonds in a sum not to exceed $7000 for the establishment and maintenance of a system of waterworks within the town of Springfield. This has been on the tapis ever since the new council took its seat last January but no definite steps were taken until this last meeting.

The plan which the council has in mind now is to establish a water system independent of any other concern. Figures on a 12-horse power gasoline engine and water pump combined have been received, which figures are said to be about $750. It is then the intention to erect a tower and tank which will hold about 20,000 gallons of water, somewhere in the east part of town where good water is to be had. This will necessitate digging a well to a depth below the hard pan, and thoroughly cementing it to keep out all of the surface water.

The tower and tank, which will be to a height of about 80 feet, will give about thirty-five or forty pounds pressure to the square inch, and in case of a serious conflagration it can be increased to three times that pressure by pumping direct into the mains. It will be the duty of the city marshal to keep the tank pumped full of water, which will require about two hours each day during the summer months.

A proposition from the Booth-Kelly Lumber Co., which owns a reservoir and is to be used for its own fire protection at this place, was received by the council this week, but was turned down for the reason that the city believes it can construct and maintain its own plant at a much less figure. Their proposition, as near as we can learn, is that the town of Springfield pay the Booth-Kelly Co. a yearly rental of $250 for the use of their reservoir, which in this case the town would be obliged to furnish its own pumping plant, or rent that service from the Lane County Electric Co.

YOUNG LADY AND A REVOLVER

Frighten a Tramp Away From His Burglarious Intentions.

That Eugene has young ladies of unquestionable bravery, was demonstrated last evening in the east part of the city. A certain young lady was at home alone with her little niece, who was ill. The young lady stepped out to a neighbor's for a few minutes and upon returning home was told by the little girl that some one had entered the house during her absence. The young lady armed herself with a revolver and walked into an adjoining room, where she met a man with the appearance of a tramp. She calmly asked him: "What are you doing here?" and received the reply, "None of your d— business." The girl covered him with the gun and made him leave the house. She could give no definite description of the tramp.

Florence Notes.

The schooner Del Norte came in from San Francisco Wednesday. She will take out a cargo of lumber from O. W. Hurd's mill.

Several cases of what is pronounced typhoid pneumonia have lately occurred near Mapleton, but so far as we can learn all the victims are now improving.

The Florence Lumber Company is getting its mill ready for operation and will commence sawing again in a few days. This will be a welcome news for our people who have been complaining of dull times since the mills closed down last fall.

Messrs. Davis and Finch, two newcomers from Indiana, were in Florence Wednesday, on their way to Minnie to visit Ira Bray, who is an old friend of theirs. While coming in from Eugene the gentlemen saw a large bear on a log near the road. Both having guns, they fired at the animal, which fell to the ground out of sight. After waiting awhile they proceeded to investigate, but brum had made his escape.—The West.
