Cash Given Away to Users of LION COFFEE

We are going to be more liberal than ever in 1904 to users of Lion Coffee. Not only will the Lion-Heads, cut from the packages, be good, as heretofore, for the valuable premiums we have always given our customers, but

In Addition to the Regular Free Premiums

the same Lion-Heads will entitle you to estimates in our $50,000.00 Grand Prize Contests, which will make some of our patrons rich men and women. You can send in as many estimates as desired. There will be

TWO GREAT CONTESTS

The first contest will be on the July 4th attendance at the St. Louis World's Fair; the second relates to Total Vote For President to be cast Nov. 8, 1904. $20,000.00 will be distributed in each of these contests, making $40,000.00 on the two, and, to make it still more interesting, in addition to this amount, we will give a Grand First Prize of $5,000.00 to the one who is nearest correct on both contests, and thus your estimates have two opportunities of winning a big cash prize.

Five Lion-Heads cut from Lion Coffee Packages and a 2 cent stamp entitle you (in addition to the regular free premiums) to one vote in either contest:

Printed blanks to vote on found in every Lion Coffee Package. The 2 cent stamp covers the expense of our acknowledgment to you that your estimate is recorded.

WORLD'S FAIR CONTEST

What will be the total July 4th attendance at the St. Louis World's Fair? At Chicago, July 4, 1893, the attendance was 231,273. For nearest correct estimates received in Woolson Spice Company's office, Toledo, Ohio, on or before June 30th, 1904, we will give first prize for the nearest correct estimate, second prize to the next nearest, etc., etc., as follows:

1 First Prize	$2,500.00

AN AUTO LINE FOR EUGENE

A Strong Possibility of the Immediate Future.

Professor J. M. Hyde of the University of Oregon Now Working on the Project.

The Guard is able to announce today that an automobile line, of the omnibus type, for Eugene is a strong possibility of the near future. Professor J. M. Hyde, of the University of Oregon, is working on the project, and if the streets of Eugene are put in such a shape that the cars can be run on them profitably, it is very likely that such a line will be installed. The practical effect would be to do away with the need of a street car line for some time to come. Willamette street is now in good condition and it is very likely that a test of good road building will be made on Eleventh street. The ease with which a line of automobiles of the omnibus type can be put in is obvious. The cars would be electrically propelled and would carry their own motors. The total expense of starting operations would be the erection of a central generating station and the purchase of the cars, an inconsiderable sum compared with that required for building and equipping a street railway system. There would be no need of rails or of the overhead trolley wire. No city franchise would have to be secured, requiring the steady running of the cars. If the system did not pay, it could be changed elsewhere or discontinued. There is no reason why such an enterprise would not pay. It would go far toward solving the local transportation problem. The need of some sort of public transportation system is very great, and it seems this will meet the need.

TO PUT IN CEMENT CROSSWALKS

The street committee of the city council is advertising for bids for the building of cement crosswalks on the business streets of the city, the number of walks to be built being not less than nine. It is the desire of the council to build cement crossings across the streets which have cement walks. This would limit the cement crossings to Willamette street from Seventh to Ninth, and to Ninth street, from Willamette to Olive streets. The building of cement walks is very expensive, but the council considers it cheaper in the long run as cement will last for years to come, while wooden crossings have to be rebuilt every year or so.

THE COUNTY JUDGESHIP

A Country Correspondent Asks for a Statement of Mr. Chrisman's Wealth.

Elmira, May 1.

Editor Guard:—We "Country Jakes" don't have much opportunity to find out all about the candidates, so I refer to my constant visitor, the Guard, for some information about which there is dispute here.

It concerns the Republican candidate for county judge, Mr. Chrisman. How much is he worth, anyway? What does he give in to the assessor? At the store the other day one man said Mr. Chrisman was worth $40,000; another $80,000, while another set the mark at $100,000. But while they disagreed as to the amount Mr. Chrisman was worth, all agreed upon it being very singular that a man worth so much money as even the lowest figure guessed should want an office which pays but $600 a year, at the rate of $50 a month.

Country people are naturally suspicious of town people, and in discussing Mr. Chrisman's nomination the opinion finally simmered down to something like this: Mr. Chrisman is a very wealthy man, as men are rated wealthy in a county like this where there are comparatively few rich men.

Why should he want to take the worryment of the county judgeship with its comparatively small salary of $50 a month without there was a "nigger in the woodpile," in other words a job of some kind by which Mr. Chrisman could "fester his nest?"

Just think of a man with that amount of money "festered out at eight or ten per cent, interest being tied down to the courthouse and county seat day in and day out without a chance to get away without neglect of his official duties for $50 a month! Let us figure: Eight per cent on $40,000 is $3200 a year, $9 a day for every day in the year, Sundays included; on $80,000 it is $6400 a year, $17 a day; on $100,000 it is $8200 a day for every day in the year. If you had that much money and income would you bother with an office that pays but $50 a month? I wouldn't. Give us Mr. Chrisman's figures! ELMIRAITE.

(The county assessment roll for 1903 shows that G. R. Chrisman is assessed for $20,721. Our correspondent neglected the salary of the Lane county judge. It is $800 a year, at the rate of $66 2/3 a month instead of $50 a month.—Editor.)

APRIL MARRIAGE LICENSES

County Clerk Lee says the matrimonial market was dull during April, only eleven licenses being granted, as compared with nineteen in April last year. Those who placed the yoke of matrimony around their necks were:

April 4—Charles W. Letson and Emma Leabo; J. B. Sloan and Pearl McDowell.

April 8—Henry Rauch and Ett Seiwel.

April 11—William H. Jennings and Ida May Amis.

April 12—Joe Olinger and Viola Cook.

April 16—Martin Shea and Lola Beckley.

April 18—L. W. Hebert and Laura Bell Dillen.

April 19—J. B. Winstanley and Celia M. Loomis; Fred W. Larison and Jessie M. Steward.

April 20—Charles K. Campbell and Amanda R. Thompson.

April 28—Alfred F. Wright and Mary B. Royce.

An Exciting Runaway.

Just before noon today a horse belonging to George Brentner, of Coburg, became frightened while standing in front of the Bonbonier bakery on Willamette street and ran away. Running down Willamette to Ninth street, then down Ninth to Olive, on Olive to Eighth and down Eighth to Goselett's grocery store, the horse landed up against a telegraph post, breaking the shafts of the buggy to which it was attached. The horse seems to be addicted to the practice of running away. Almost six months ago it ran away, starting from the Bonbonier bakery, and ran down Willamette to Eighth, where it tried to turn the corner and ran into D. R. Wood's stand, doing considerable damage.

Married.

In the Hoffman House parlors this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, occurred the marriage of J. F. Mitchell and Miss Myrtle Slavens, Judge Wintermeier officiating. The groom is a well known resident of Blue River and the bride a charming young lady of Leaburg. The wedding was attended by a few of the friends of the couple and was a happy affair.

Portland Market.

Yesterday's Journal: Cracker war is on. Fight in candles expected. Provisions are lower. Eggs lower and weaker. Wheat and flour dull. Butter still very weak. Onions are higher. No improvement in salmon. Mill feed shows stronger tone.

Died.

Mrs. Laura Thom, the wife of F. W. Thom, died at her home at Junction City today. Mrs. Thom leaves a husband and three sons to mourn her departure, besides a large number of friends. She was president of W. R. C. and an active worker in the Sunday school. Funeral service Wednesday at 10 o'clock at the cemetery.

A CONSCIENCE STRICKEN MAN

Committed a Crime and Gave Himself Up to the Sheriff.

Yesterday afternoon an old gray-haired man, bent with age and a little the worse for whiskey, came hobbling into the sheriff's office, and when approached by the clerk asked to see the sheriff, and Sheriff Fred Fisk gave the old man an audience. The old fellow appeared deeply troubled and confessed that he had done a wrong and that his conscience hurt him so greatly that he wanted to give himself up to the law.

Sheriff Fisk became interested at once and prepared himself to hear of some ghastly deed. The old man hesitated, but was urged to proceed. He said that his name was Lane, that he was sixty years of age and was a tramp. He came to Eugene several days ago and had been on a horrible drunk since his arrival. Yesterday afternoon he strolled up East Ninth street, armed with a revolver and not knowing what he was doing. When he reached Quackenbush's hardware store a sudden impulse struck him and he jabbed his revolver through a plate glass window, breaking it into many pieces. No one saw him do it and he could have gotten away but his conscience condemned the act and as he could not pay for the window he wanted to be punished.

Sheriff Fisk turned him over to the city authorities, who placed him in jail to sober up, when he will be given a hearing.

SENT TO THE ASYLUM.

The old fellow was taken before Judge Kincaid this morning and examined as to his sanity, and ordered sent to the insane asylum at Salem. Deputy Sheriff Down took him down on the afternoon train.
