THEY TIRE OF MARRIED LIFE

Esta A. Deadmond Wants a Divorce From John T. Deadmond.

Esta A. Deadmond has instituted suit in the circuit court against John T. Deadmond for divorce, the custody of their minor children, Charles, aged six years, and Thomas, aged three years, and the possession of 40 acres in section 23, township 17 north of range one west. In her complaint, Mrs. Deadmond alleges as follows: That they were married in Eugene on March 28, 1902; that about a year after their marriage her husband became cross, angry and crabbed and until March, 1904, was guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment as to render her life burdensome; that he cursed and abused her, called her vile and indecent names and often struck her; that unable to stand such treatment any longer, she left her husband in March, 1904. C. M. Kissing is attorney for the plaintiff.

TRACK TEAM LEAVES FRIDAY

For the First Meet of the Season With Pacific University at Forest Grove.

The U. O. track team has rounded in good form under the efficient direction of Trainer Hayward, and will leave for its first meet Friday afternoon at Forest Grove with Pacific University.

The members of the team have not been announced, but about fourteen men will be taken, including the trainer and the manager. The team is much stronger than is commonly supposed, and will give a good account of itself in the meet with Pacific Saturday afternoon. The absence of McKinney will lessen the chances in the weight events some, but Hug and Frizzell are both showing up well. In Swift the team has one of the strongest mile runners it has ever had. Many believe that he is as good or better than Poley, who holds the state record for the mile. Captain Perkins and Penland will lower their old records in the half and quarter, and Thayer will do the same with the hurdles. Morris, the freshman sprinter, is doing good work, and will make a strong bid for first place in the dashes. In the pole vault and jumps the university is weak.

Junction Notes.

(Guard Special Service.) Junction City, May 11.—The Junction City band gave another of its popular afternoon concerts on Sunday. These efforts are highly appreciated by our citizens. The boys of the band are arranging for a picnic here on the 21st inst.

An excelsior factory which will furnish work for quite a number of men, will be started here soon.

Personal—Captain Racket wishes to meet you at the Junction City opera house on Saturday evening, May 14. He will have the band out to greet you and will treat you royally. Permission will be granted you upon request, to bring a friend with you and if you have a stand-in with the captain he might possibly allow you to bring two or more friends. Try him and see.

IMPROVING THE CAMPUS

The university campus has been staked off for the new walks and driveways and the work of taking away the dirt from them was begun yesterday. The dirt is being used to improve the lawn in places where it is low and to fill in the old track. The walks in no way follow the old ones now in use, but wind around through the campus in curves all their own. A number of trees which stand in the way are being grubbed out.

FROM THE ST. LOUIS FAIR

E. L. Campbell Writes About the Big World's Show.

Says Oregon's Old Mossback Log Cabin State Building Will Not Be Seen by Anyone.

St. Louis, May 5, 1904.

Dear Guard:—The weather at St. Louis for the past week has been ideal, and great crowds through the grounds day and night. The buildings are exceedingly fine specimens of architecture and the night illuminations in conjunction with the illuminated cascades is a sight never to be forgotten. The fair is yet incomplete and it will be two or three months before the grounds and exhibits are in shape. Twenty thousand men are at work on the grounds and in placing exhibits in position. At the present time huge piles of debris, dirt and scaffolding are laying about the grounds. The "Pike," which was Chicago's Midway, is only about half finished. Trainloads of exhibits are arriving daily and being placed in position. The grounds cover 1200 acres, and hundreds of acres are under roof.

I have not seen the Oregon building yet, but learn it is away back in the country away from everything of importance, and will not be seen only by the few.

Rents have advanced here by the jump and bound. Many owners of property have rented and moved from town. This condition makes it ideal for the sightseer, and virtually every house in the city has rooms for rent, and prices are low. I am situated three blocks from the Union depot in the center of the city, have a fine large front room, bath connected, for 50 cents a night. Good meals may be had at many places at 25 cents a meal. Unless these conditions change St. Louis will be a fine place for the visitor, as far as expenses are concerned.

The city itself is dirty, even filthy, and smoke is so thick one can only see a few blocks. The drinking water comes from the Mississippi river, and is not fit for bath purposes, let alone drinking.

E. L. CAMPBELL.

ST. LOUIS FAIR ELECTRICAL STORM

A letter from E. L. Campbell dated at St. Louis May 7, says the World's Fair is a "big thing," so large and varied even now, with many exhibits yet to be arranged, that the sightseer gets confused, almost lost in making the rounds.

Mr. Campbell was treated to one exhibit that was not on the program, a welcomed one, though, as he had heard his parents tell of the electrical storms common to the upper Mississippi valley. For an Oregon-raised boy he writes that the lightning and its attendant thunder were simply grand, in fact, rather too prominent and jarring on the nerves.

Notice to Animal Owners.

Ordinance No. 250.—An ordinance to prohibit persons from tying or staking out animals in the streets and alleys in the City of Eugene. The City of Eugene does ordain as follows: Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to tie or stake out for the pasturing or grazing in any of the streets or alleys in the City of Eugene any horse, cow or other animal.

Section 2. That any person violating the provisions of Sec. 1 of this ordinance shall upon conviction before the City Recorder be fined not less than two dollars nor more than ten dollars and costs, and in default of payment of said fine and costs of prosecution, shall be imprisoned in the city jail one day for each two dollars of such fine and costs.

Passed June 10, 1895; approved June 13, 1895. J. D. MATLOCK, Mayor.

Attest: B. F. DORRIS, Recorder. As many of the citizens of the city are unaware of the existence of the foregoing ordinance, the same is published by order of the common council for the information of the owners of animals in the city. The owners of animals will take notice that the foregoing ordinance will be enforced. A. W. GILBERT, City Marshal.

Eugene Tribe of Indians

A preliminary meeting of the proposed new members of the Improved Order of Red Men was held last night at 8 o'clock in the office of the Eugene Business College. There was a good attendance and matters of general importance to the tribe-elect were discussed at length.

It was decided to postpone the election of officers pro tem till the next meeting, which will be held next Monday evening, at 8 o'clock sharp. The meeting closed with a resolution not to institute the new tribe with less than 50 palefaces. G. F. Street was the presiding officer.

The local Red Men are on the war-path and serious complications are expected at any time. However, we repose confidence in our city fathers, and hope that they will be able to cope with the situation. So far all is quiet and no arrests have been made.

MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM

Exercises to Be Held on Monday, May 30th.

Parade Will Be Formed at Seventh and Willamette Streets and March to the Cemetery.

The committee from the G. A. R. on Memorial Day exercises has prepared the following program:

Sunday, May 29, memorial services will be held in the Christian church at 8 p. m. The sermon will be preached by Rev. J. S. McCallum, who will be assisted in the service by other ministers of the city.

At 7 p. m. Ladies of the G. A. R., J. W. Geary Post No. 7, W. R. C., and Sons and Daughters of Veterans will meet at G. A. R. hall. The line will be formed with Ladies of the G. A. R. in front, J. W. Geary Post next, followed by W. R. C., and march to the Christian church.

MONDAY'S SERVICES.

Monday, May 30, at 9:30 a. m., the line of march will be formed in the following order, head of column to rest on Seventh and Willamette street, Major Moran and staff in front, with Companies A and C as escorts, W. R. C., J. W. Geary Post, No. 7, Rich Mountain Circle No. 7, Ladies G. A. R., Daughters and Sons of Veterans, school children, citizens on foot, mayor and council, school directors and citizens in carriages.

LINE OF MARCH.

At 10 o'clock a. m. sharp, the column will move south on Willamette street to Fourteenth, east on Fourteenth to A and south on A street to cemetery. The column will halt at the cemetery gate and march inside on foot, leaving all rigs and horses on the outside.

Ritualistic and other services will be held at the graves, at conclusion of which the line will reform and march to the lot where the Spanish-American war veterans will hold their services.

EVENING SERVICE.

At 7 p. m. the post and all kindred organizations will assemble in front of G. A. R. hall and promptly at 7:30 march to the M. E. church, where an address will be delivered by the Hon. R. A. Booth, together with a patriotic program. The line of march will be the same as that for Sunday evening. The program mentioned above for Monday evening will be announced later through the press.

LUNCH FOR VETERANS.

The W. R. C. will prepare a lunch at the hall for the veterans, to be served on their return from the cemetery at about 12:30.

All comrades are requested to participate in the memorial services. By order of the committee.

W. M. SHERMAN, Chairman. R. H. MILLER, DR. HENRY HOPKINS, Secretary.

COUNTY TEACHERS IN SESSION

Institute Convened at the High School Assembly Room.

A Large Number of Teachers in Attendance—Prominent State Educators are on the Program.

The Teachers' Annual County Institute for Lane county was called to order this morning in the high school assembly room by County School Superintendent W. M. Miller. The attendance is unusually large, about two hundred teachers being present today, and a great amount of interest is being taken in the work of the institute. This is probably caused by the prominence of the speakers and instructors before the institute.

On today's program were President E. D. Ressler, of the Monmouth Normal; Superintendent L. R. Traver, of the Salem schools; President B. F. Mulkey, of the Ashland Normal, and President P. L. Campbell, of the University of Oregon, who addressed the institute, imparting knowledge which was very beneficial to the many young teachers.

Tonight President Mulkey will lecture before the institute.

Following is the program for tomorrow:

- TUESDAY. (Primary Department.) 8:30, Music. 8:40, Reading, Ressler. 9:20, Spelling, Traver. 10:00, Reces. 10:10, United States History, Ackerman. 10:50, Language, Traver. 11:30, Nature Study, Professor Sweetser. DAILY GUARD ELECTION OFFER

Will Deliver to New Subscribers From Now Till Saturday, June 11 for 25 Cents.

We want to put the Daily Guard into the hands of every voter in Eugene and Lane county, if possible, till the day of election.

OUR OFFER.

To accomplish this we offer to deliver the Daily Guard by carrier in Eugene, or by mail to outside Lane county postoffices, to new subscribers, from now till the last day of the week of election, Saturday, June 11, for 25 cents. That will give those availing themselves of the offer the campaign news and election returns.

AN ELECTION OFFER.

Remember this offer extends only to the end of election week. Send in your name at once and get the benefit of the full time.

Journal Agent Here.

H. W. Brooks, solicitor for the Portland Daily Journal, is in this city in the interests of that up-to-date newspaper. He added quite a number of subscribers to the already large list here today, and will in here several days longer. Allen Eaton is the local agent, and will take subscriptions for the paper.

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

Comfortable Sick Bed. When sickness comes, as unfortunately it does, it may be made easier for the one who cares for the patient if the following is observed in making the bed:

Three sheets should be in use at a time—the upper, the lower and the draw, which is placed directly under the patient. Blankets of good quality make the best covering, with a light weight counterpane at the top.

There should be two large pillows and as many small pillows as the exigencies of the case require. If a rubber sheet is necessary, spread it smoothly on the mattress. Put on the lower sheet and pin it into place on the underside of the mattress, so that the patient may not work it up into wrinkles.

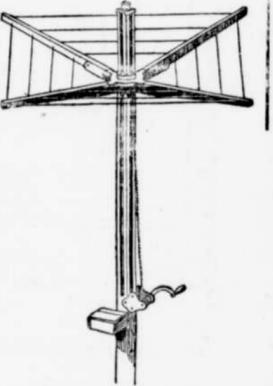

Fold the draw sheet and pin it across the middle of the bed so that it will extend from the patient's shoulders to well below the hips. Put on the upper sheet, leaving it a little loose for the feet and long enough to turn over the blanket at the top.

The blankets need not be so long as the sheet, but should be long enough to tuck around the patient's neck. The counterpane may be of the same length as the sheet and left long enough to fold over.

In changing the bed roll the patient to one side, putting one hand against the shoulder and the other against the hip. Roll the lower sheet up in lengthwise folds against the patient, put on the fresh sheet and the draw sheet and put in place. Protect the patient with the upper sheet and roll him over on to the spread out portion of the clean sheets. Pull the lower sheet smooth and pin. Put a clean upper sheet on over the soiled one, tuck in the clean one and remove the soiled one.

Improved Clothes Drier.

Whether it is a small washing hung on a short line in the back yard of a city house or a long string of garments stretched from pole to pole and braced at the center by props to keep the clothes from dragging in the dirt it is no pleasant task to reach up and attach the pieces one by one to the line. As no arrangement has heretofore been introduced to elevate the line the entire length after the washing has been hung up, the supports must be elevated until the line is barely within reach, and so the woman goes on week after week pulling the line down and pinning the clothes fast. Now, however, the inventor has come to her relief with the clothes drier here presented, which is capable of such adjustment as to bring the line within easy reach while the washing is being hung out. In fact, this line support could be lowered almost to the ground if so desired. The central post is firmly fixed in the ground and is surrounded by a sliding frame in which the branching line supports are secured. On one side of the central post is a shaft on which ropes are wound with the free ends leading over a pulley in the top of the post and down to the sliding frame. By the aid of a crank with which it revolves the shaft and wind up or unwind the ropes the frame can be lowered to a convenient position until the washing is hung up and then elevated to the highest point out of reach of the ground, there to remain until the clothes dry and are ready for lowering again to be placed in the basket for ironing.

Codfish With Cheese.

This may be made of the boiled fresh cods or from the desiccated salt fish. For the former take a pound of fresh fish, pick in small pieces, put in a saucepan, cover with cold water and bring slowly to a boil. Drain the fish and leave in the colander while you make a cream dressing, using two tablespoonfuls each of butter and flour, a cup and a half of milk and a little cayenne. Butter a casserole and place a layer of fish in the bottom. Cover with a layer of the sauce, and over this grate a covering of cheese, not too thick. Repeat until the dish is filled, having the cheese at the top. Grate a sprinkling of stale bread crumbs over this, dot with butter, place in a hot oven and bake half an hour.

To Take Out Wrinkles.

I have often, says a writer in Good Housekeeping, taken the wrinkles out of a cloth skirt or jacket and restored the fresh look by hanging them over a line in the bathroom, then closing all the doors and windows, turning on the hot water and letting it run till the room was full of steam. Let the clothes hang undisturbed in the vapor for two hours, then open the room and let the garments dry in the fresh air. You will be surprised and gratified to see how they will be renovated by this simple process. Soft silk can be treated the same way.
