JAPANESE CRUISER SUNK

MIYAKO STRUCK A MINE

Japanese War Vessel Met With Bad Luck in Kerr Bay.

While Removing Mines Laid by the Russians One Ex- ploded Beneath the Cruiser.

New Chwang, May 16.—The Russian authorities here admit that the railway to Port Arthur has practically ceased working and no telegrams have been received for the past three days. Word was received today that the Japanese dispatch boat Miyako struck a mine and was destroyed in Kerr Bay Sunday, with eight casualties. The natives here have a rumor of heavy fighting Sunday between Japanese and Russian forces at Lia Yang. The Russo-Chinese bank was removed today to a building occupied by the French consulate.

Washington, D. C. May 16.—According to a Tokio dispatch to the Japanese legation here it was the cruiser Miyako which was sunk by a mine in Kerr Bay. The dispatch reads: "Admiral Katsuka reports that on the fourteenth, four torpedo boat flotilla continued its sea sweeping operations under cover of the fleet. The enemy constructed temporary batteries on a promontory between Kerr Bay and Tallenwan and placed six field guns, besides hastily constructing a fort. With one company of soldiers they stubbornly resisted our attack. The flotilla defying the enemy's fire carried out its operations and destroyed five mines laid by the enemy. Unfortunately one of the mines exploded and sunk our cruiser Miyako. In this accident six men were wounded besides two killed during the fight."

Rumor That Kuropatkin Will Retreat to Harbin.

Wants a Hundred Thousand More Men, Also Telegraphic and Field Equipment are Greatly Lacking

St. Petersburg, May 16.—Rumors today credited to a reliable source have it that General Kuropatkin will retreat from Liao Yang to Harbin with his hundred and twenty thousand men, and there await a hundred thousand reinforcements from Kharkef and Moscow before engaging the enemy. General Kuropatkin has asked for telegraphic and field equipment necessary for the operations of the army.

ATTACKS BINGER'S RECORD

R. M. Veatch Making a Warm Campaign in Southern Oregon.

Makes Open Charges of Partici- pation in Conspiracy--- Addresses Large Meetings.

Ashland, May 14.—Blieger Hermann's notorious record in public office is being made the object of merciless attack by his Democratic competitor for congress, Colonel Robert M. Veatch. He addressed two large meetings yesterday, speaking in the afternoon at Medford and in the evening at Ashland, and at both places he was received with marked enthusiasm.

Colonel Veatch wasted no time in the discussion of questions of national policy, but went straight to the issue of Hermann's complicity in the land frauds and his unfitness to represent the first district in congress. He boldly charged that Hermann was hand and glove with the ring of land grabbers and timber thieves, and that he had shared in the profits of the conspiracy.

Colonel Veatch also attacked Hermann for his part in the establishment of the forest reserves, showing that Hermann himself was the author of the suggestion that such reserves be established in Southern Oregon, and that for years he had members of his family employed as special agents of the land department in gathering data for the establishment of the Rogue River reserve. Hermann's opposition to forest reserves did not develop until he found that popular sentiment was clearly against them, and then his views underwent a sudden change.

Hon. A. E. Reames, who was the Democratic candidate for congressman last year, and who is now the nominee for district attorney in this judicial district, was one of the speakers at last night's meeting. He made a short but stirring speech, urging the election of Colonel Veatch and pointing out the advantages that would result to the state from having a Democrat on its delegation at Washington.

Jackson county has been regarded as one of Hermann's strongholds, but his strength has been greatly shaken by the disclosures concerning his administration of the land office. Colonel Veatch has made a strong impression by his arraignment of Hermann and has undoubtedly gained many votes.

DEADLOCK IS STILL ON

No Nomination for Governor by the Illinois Republicans Today.

Springfield, Ill., May 16.—On the surface of the Republican situation here this morning it did not look any more probable that a nomination for Governor would be made in the state convention this afternoon than at any time during last week. Several dark horses are mentioned, including Federal Judge Grosscup and Grames Stewart, late candidate for Mayor of Chicago. A great many of the delegates are weary of the deadlock and are liable to vote anyway to settle affairs. Senator Hopkins is of the opinion that the convention will not last much longer. The twenty-fifth ballot was taken shortly after two o'clock this afternoon.

Governor Yates today created a sensation by confirming the story printed in the local papers that he had been "approached" in the interest of a "congressional declaration," meaning Cannon, Hopkins and Cullom, with an offer of the Mexican minister ship with a salary of $18,000, if he would throw the nomination to Lowden.

SARAH SCHAFER MURDER TRIAL

Bedford, Ind., May 16.—James McDonald was placed on trial this morning for the alleged murder of Miss Sarah Schaffer, a teacher in the high school, last January. Two days will be occupied in securing the jury. The murder was most mysterious. The woman's body was found in a carriage shed in the residence section, her head crushed by a stone. Whatever evidence may be adduced against McDonald is purely circumstantial.

TO REVEAL FORTIFICATIONS

Alleged Plot to Sell Plans of French Forts Dis- covered.

Paris, May 16.—The Matin today prints the first of a series of articles from London correspondence dealing with an alleged plot to reveal the plans of the French fortifications which the paper says may approach the proportions of the Dreyfus affair. It is said three men went to London with the papers to be sold. Two deserted and the third, who was out of funds, wrote to the Matin. An examination of the papers held by him, it is said, has revealed their genuineness.

BLOODY ELECTION LOOKED FOR

Denver, May 16.—Intense interest is manifested in the city election tomorrow, the first under the new charter. There are predictions of bloodshed, especially in the lower wards. The election is for a full set of county and city officers for a term of four years. During that period many valuable franchises will come up for renewal. The Republican leaders are accusing Governor Peabody of treachery to the party in his refusal to call out the militia to prevent trouble. The Democrats control the police and the machine.
