OSWILL'S HOME RUN DID IT

Knocked the Ball Over the Fence When the Bases Were Full.

(Guard Special Service.)
Roseburg, May 14.—The game here yesterday was well played with the exception of one unfortunate error due to a man playing out of position, which allowed three runs for Roseburg, then a home run hit by C. Oswill with three men on bases clinched the game. A baseball rule with which the average "fan" is not familiar is explained as follows in the Portland Telegram:
In the score of yesterday's ball game Druhut is credited with a run but no time at bat. Many of the fans have wondered at this, arguing that a man could not secure a run without a time at bat. Those who do the wondering are not up on the rules of the game.
Rule 82 says: "A time at bat" is the term at bat of a batsman. It begins when he takes his position, and continues until he is put out or becomes a base runner. But a time at bat shall not be charged against a batsman who is awarded first base by the umpire for being hit by the ball, or for illegal delivery of the pitcher, or on called balls, or when he makes a sacrifice hit."

Twice Druhut was walked to first, and consequently has no time at bat. The reason for this is that the player is presumed not to have a chance for a hit when the pitcher delivers four balls, and it would be manifestly wrong to charge him with a time at bat, thus tending to lower his batting average, which is only a comparison of the times at bat with the hits.

Yesterday's Coast League scores: Portland, 3; Tacoma, 2. Oakland, 6; Los Angeles, 3. Seattle, 7; San Francisco, 6.

SLADDEN OUT ON BAIL

Col. Sladden of Eugene Gives Bonds for His Son.

Papers Show Past Career—Wife Who Died in San Diego Was Insured for $20,000 in His Name.

Louisville, Ky., May 14.—Sidney Sladden, held for trial on six charges of forgery, was admitted to cash bail in the sum of $3000 yesterday, furnished by his father, who arrived from Eugene, Ore.

Just before he was released from jail the authorities came into possession of private papers of Sladden, revealing more of his past career and dealing with his first, second and third wives. They show that when he was divorced from Nellie Eugene Gilbert in Los Angeles, in 1892, he paid her $1500 alimony. She is now Mrs. William B. Knapp, of East Orange, N. J.
Receipts were found for the burial expenses of Mary Roberts Price, who died at the Hotel Florence, San Diego, February 20, 1894. It is reported from Los Angeles that Sladden held $20,000 insurance on her life. Papers found today show she had four policies of the New York Life Insurance Company for $5000 each, payable to Sidney Sladden.

She had notes for $3320, some silverware, $1000 cash in the First National Bank of Chicago, and $3700 in a Los Angeles bank. She had also a claim for $1500 against the estate of her mother in Baltimore. Papers showed that she owned lot 12, recorded in deed book 33, page 332, in Eugene, Lane county, Oregon, and that she owned 116 acres of land in Baltimore county, Maryland.

A record was also found of wife No. 3, heretofore enshrouded in mystery. She was Mary Genevieve Mcweeney, a widow of Michael J. Casey, who was a well-to-do citizen of Chicago. The estate of Casey was left to his two daughters, and upon the death of one Mrs. Sladden No. 3 came into it all. It was held by the Equitable Trust Company, of Chicago.

There were letters of a sentimental character, written during his service in the army, signed Violet, which was not the name of any of his wives so far as can be learned. There are records also of two other women, not identified as any of the five wives, the names of which are withheld in the hope of obtaining further clues.

Sladden's father has retained attorneys to fight his case of forgery while agent of the Pacific Mutual Insurance Company. Sladden still refuses to discuss his case, and his father believes him guilty of no serious crime.
