To Be Held in the City Hall, Monday Evening, May 30.

Committee Will Be Appointed to Arrange a Program for a Reusing Independence Day Celebration.

Several representative citizens today requested the Guard to announce a meeting in the city hall Monday night, May 30th, for the purpose of appointing committees and making other arrangements to celebrate the Fourth of July in Eugene.

There should be a large attendance at the meeting. Eugene should celebrate, and do it in proper style. People in all parts of the county would rather come to Eugene on the Fourth and it should be seen to that they are given proper entertainment.

One amusement feature is already assured for the celebration, and that is two baseball games between the

The Guard has received from the Missouri Pacific railway a folder containing the best map yet seen of the world's fair grounds, with an index so arranged that anything desired can be found instantly. It has been said no one can find the Oregon building, but with this map it can be picked out at once. It is close to the big Fine Art building, and is surrounded by McHoo, Grant's Log Cabin, Sweenburg, a restaurant, Disciples of Christ, South Dakota and Texas, while German is close and the intramural railway runs near it.

SUPPRESSION OF LAWLESSNESS

A reward of $2500 has been offered by Governor Chamberlain for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Creed Conn, of Lake county, who was killed near Silver Lake two months and a half ago.

A reward of $300 has been offered for the conviction of each of the men who participated in the killing of 2500 sheep in Lake county on April 28. This offer of reward is made without express authority of law, but the governor feels confident that if convictions should be secured, and the rewards earned, the legislature would not hesitate to appropriate money for the purpose. Secretary of State Dunbar and State Treasurer Moore joined with the governor in promising to lend their aid in securing the appropriations if the rewards should be earned.

With a view to suppressing lawlessness in Lake county Governor Chamberlain has had copies of the offer of reward printed and has sent them to be posted in different sections of that county. He has also written letters to the sheriff and district attorney, urging them to do all in their power to apprehend the outlaws and prevent a repetition of the crimes.

TRIBUTE TO THE GRAND ARMY

Read by Miss Alice Culverwell at the Catholic School Yesterday.

Kind friends and comrades:--This grand and solemn anniversary day has at length returned. The happy faces of these dear old warriors, who through years long past have fought with untiring zeal for the freedom of our great and glorious country are today welcomed to our present school.

Everything seems bright and happy. Mother Nature seems to have put on her brightest attire and Spring has studded the earth with fragrant flowers of every kind and hue.

The twittering birds on their errands of love are proclaiming peace and liberty to all nations. All cares and troubles have been laid aside to join in celebrating this solemn day.

While we cherish the remaining few let us not forget to honor those whose last drop of blood was shed on the battlefield to defend our glorious country.

Year after year for more than a generation the graves of those who fought in the Civil War have been decorated every spring. This year there will be soldiers' graves of a new and young generation to be covered with flowers and flags.

Let us gather around their sacred remains and garland the passionless mounds above them with the choicest flowers of springtime; let us raise above them the dear old flag they saved from dishonor; let us in their presence renew our pledges to honor those whom they have left among us, a sacred charge upon a nation's gratitude.

Trusting that we meet again in our heavenly home, where cares and troubles are indeed unknown, and where lies the only true reward. May your pathway be scattered with roses and may your lives be crowned with choicest blessings from on high, which you have so deserved for your earnest toil on this earth.

DOUBLE WEDDING AT DEXTER

Mable and Bertha Williams, J. Roy Hills and Sanford H. Jacobs the Contracting Parties.

Dexter, May 26.--The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Williams, of Dexter, was the scene of a most beautiful double wedding Wednesday, May 25th, when their daughters, Mable and Bertha, were led to the altar by J. Roy Hills and Sanford H. Jacobs.

Promptly at 9 o'clock a. m. the wedding march was started by Miss Jennie Parvin. Dean E. C. Sanderson, of the Eugene Divinity School, preceded the couples to the parlor, where the four happy young people took their places under an arch of ivy from which were suspended the wedding bells, when a most impressive ceremony was pronounced by Dr. Sanderson in the presence of only near relatives and a few most intimate friends.

After the ceremony and congratulations were over the guests were served to bride's cake and strawberry punch by Alta Williams and Susie Woodard. The brides were charmingly attired in cream crepe de paris, with allover lace. The gentlemen wore the conventional black.

They were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. The happy young people left, amid showers of rice and old shoes, full of good wishes, for Eugene, where they started on their wedding tour. Mr. and Mrs. Hills will go to Seaside, while Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs will go to Ashland.

Note and Comment.

The Register reports Mr. Shelley as saying of the Hermann Fulton political speaking at Salem Wednesday, that "words are inadequate to describe the enthusiasm that prevailed." Wonder if Eugene people, only seventy-five miles from Salem, will get so excited over the speaking of those gentlemen in the opera house the evening of June 1st that words will be "inadequate" to describe the enthusiasm? We rather think the English language comprehensive enough in expression to fully meet all demands for a report of the Eugene meeting. Wonders grow as you go away from home, you know.

Strange that any Republican in the first district should be expected to vote for Mr. Veatch!--Oregonian.

Strange that any Republican in the first district should vote for Mr. Hermann, turned out of an office only second to that of a cabinet position by the Republican president! Why was Mr. Hermann summarily turned out after his earnest plea for continuance in the place but a few months longer? The Oregonian editor is not ignorant as to the cause. He will not state it.

ALBANY DIVORCE SUIT

Mayor Davis Brings Sensational Charges Against His Wife.

Albany, Or., May 25.--A furor was created in social circles in Albany today when Dr. W. H. Davis, mayor of the city, filed a suit for divorce from his wife Dora B. Davis. The complaint is of a highly sensational order, reciting language that would not appear well in print.

Among other things the complaint alleges that plaintiff and defendant were married on April 24, 1886, in Harrisburg, Lion county. That since that time defendant has treated plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner; that she is an habitual user of intoxicants, and that, while intoxicated, she heaps abuse on plaintiff, and uses vile and profane language towards him. That on March 4, 1903, while plaintiff and defendant were traveling to Roseburg together, defendant became intoxicated and became engaged in a violent altercation with other passengers on the train, much to the chagrin and mortification of the plaintiff.

Plaintiff further alleges that when he invites friends or relatives to visit him defendant mistreats and insults them and him. Dr. Davis is one of Albany's most prominent citizens, socially, politically and professionally. He has served many years as mayor of Albany, and has been a leader in city and county enterprises.

A new cement sidewalk is being constructed in front of the Guard office by Contractor F. B. Bellman.

Roseburg is to have a street carnival for the week beginning June 13. The Dixie Carnival Company will furnish the amusements.
