THE BIG AUTOMOBILE

One Man Killed In the Hamburg Auto Race.

Thousands of Spectators, Including Many Royal Personages Witnessed the Start This Morning.

Hamburg, June 17 - Emperor William gaze the flag signal for the first start precisely at 7 o'clock this morning, and with a mighty cheer by thousands the great Bennett automobile race was on. In the imperial pavilion with the kaiser were the em press, the king of Wortemburg, German Crown P. ince Grand Duke Ernst, Louis of Hesse, Grand Dake Frederick Francisco, Numerous princes, who with their suit s made a striking group, in which the gorgeous military nu forms were a conspicuous feature. Near the starting line on the opposite sides of the course two grand stangs, each seating five thousand, were packed with eager spectators, while twenty thousand more sightseers assembled in the grand enclosure six miles in circumference. Drawing lots for the order of starting, Jenatzy, German, secured the first chance and led off on the Kaiser's sig pal. His car leaped forward and in wo seconds was lost to view in the crowded lines. At intervals of seven minutes the cars started, each en-1 ind), Werner (Austria,) Land Blau- rent. tria). > Yesterday's Salem Journal, speak ing of Thursday's baseball game in that city, compliments the Eugene team as follows:

> "Eugene has a fine lot of baseball boys, one that any city might well be proud of. In the face of a crushing shutout yesterday they never "beefed," but took their medicine like little men. They are what you can call true sports.

"Radford, who holds down first for the Blues, when they have the men in their positions, caught a good game yesterday. This was his first time behind the bat this year, but he was all right anyway.

"Downing, Eugene's third bareman, made a very pretty stop in the the merchants. monthly basis, instead of quarterly, latter part of the game. He fielded as has been the rule in the past. The the ball at a rapid gait and made a beautiful throw.
