

GRAND JURY'S FINAL REPORT

Circuit Court Adjourned at Noon Today.

Grand Jury Recommends Change of School Superintendents' Office and Heating of Jail by County Plant.

The June term of circuit court adjourned today at noon, after cleaning up the docket. The grand jury made its final report, as follows, and was discharged:

"To the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Lane County:
"Final report of grand jury.
"To the Hon. J. W. Hamilton, judge of said court:

"We, the grand jury at the June, 1904, term of the above entitled court, in our final report, say:

"We have made a most thorough investigation of all crimes coming to our knowledge committed and triable in said court, and have disposed of the same according to our best judgment.

"We recommend that hereafter the county school superintendent occupy the room in the courthouse now used by the district attorney and that the rooms now used by the school superintendent be used and assigned by and to the district attorney and grand jury, for the reason that such a change will be more convenient for the district attorney, grand jury and witnesses.

"We recommend that the county jail be heated by the system installed in the courthouse.

"We recommend that seats be placed in the hallway on the upper floor of the courthouse for convenience of witnesses attending the grand jury.

"Having completed our labors, we beg leave to be excused.

"Dated at Eugene, Lane county, Oregon, this 24th day of June, 1904.

"E. F. WILLIAMS,
"Foreman.
"A. S. JOHNSON,
"JACOB GATES,
"TOM SEAVEY,
"ROBT. GRIFFIN,
"Z. T. KINTZLEY,
"O. BENNETT."

The following cases were disposed of this forenoon:

Solomon R. Weiser vs Emily L. Weiser; report of referee. Decree of divorce.

J. R. Brown vs Theresa Feldowert and Nis Feldowert; to recover money. Motion for new trial overruled. Judgment on verdict.

I. Fleishman and O. J. Guggenheim, partners in business under the firm name of Guggenheim & Co., vs Michael Meyer and William Kyle, partners in business under the firm name of Meyer & Kyle; to recover money. Motion for new trial and set aside verdict overruled. Judgment on verdict.

Esta A. Deadmond vs John T. Deadmond; divorce. Continued for term. C. H. Grunning Jr. vs C. H. Grunning, Sr.; to quiet title. Continued. Amanda Learned vs George Learned; divorce. Default and decree.

SOME PERSONAL STATEMENTS

The Register after seeking to injure its competitor in business, the Guard, by the charge that our telegraphic service is unreliable, "hoping to make," is the courteous designation, could particularize nothing inaccurate except a headline, which every one with or without experience in newspaper work knows is no part of the telegraphic service, being arranged by the newspaper writer. Then when called to account for its very unkind statement it is forced to a sort of apology, yet shows its venom and evil intent to strike again by becoming evasive for a quasi falsehood. It says:

"It (the Guard) complains that we conveyed the impression that its telegraphic service was really 'made up' for us. We believe that at least a part of the Guard's telegraphic service really comes over the wires. We believe that at least a part of the Guard's telegraphic service really comes over the wires. What business of the Register editors is it if it comes over the wires, when they attend to their own business."

he same as other people? Then as in self justification:

We have in mind many little spiteful things covertly uttered by the Guard in the past through alleged correspondence, etc.

We have nothing of the kind "in mind." One thing is certain. No employee of the Guard of the past or present but will bear willing testimony that the responsible management of this paper has never failed to discourage any discourtesy to the Register proprietors or their publication. It is a poor excuse for their attempted pulling down of a competitor in business and more, not founded on fact. Since November 1879 the Guard has been substantially under its present management. During those many years our pleasant relations with the veteran editor of the State Journal, Harrison R. Kincaid, has not been marred by a single incident. And substantially the same may be said of the former proprietors of the Register, Yoran Bros., H. W. and Luther Rowland and T. J. Howard. With the present management of the Register came our first newspaper friction. It is not of our seeking, it is not pleasant, we do not believe we are at fault. We are willing that an impartial public after reading the quotation from the Register first made above, should judge as to our candor in making this statement.

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE ACTS WISELY

Nominate a Popular Candidate To Represent Eugene and Lane County at World's Fair.

At a special meeting of the Eugene Real Estate Exchange, held yesterday afternoon, Milo H. Coffman was selected to enter the contest for election by the business men of Eugene, to represent this city and Lane county at St. Louis.

The exchange could not have selected a better qualified person than Mr. Coffman, and it is to be hoped that in the contest he will be liberally supported and elected. If Mr. Coffman is elected, the Real Estate Exchange will furnish all literature necessary for distribution at their own expense, and they further propose to defray all necessary expenses of the representative, over and above the transportation and $100 offered in the business men's contest.

This is certainly a most liberal proposition on the part of the exchange and they have acted wisely in their selection of a live, energetic and well qualified representative.

McLean-Lemley.

Last evening the wedding of Mrs. Vina Lemley, of this city, to William D. McLean, of Camp Creek, took place at the home of the bride, on East Ninth street, before a large company of friends and relatives. The ceremony was performed promptly at nine o'clock by Dr. T. B. Ford, of the Methodist church, after which a sumptuous wedding supper was partaken of. The contracting parties are well known people of this city and Lane county. Mrs. Lemley has been a popular and successful teacher in the city schools for a number of years while Mr. McLean is one of the most prominent and prosperous citizens of Camp Creek.

This wedding is the outcome of quite a romance. Nearly twenty years ago the couple were engaged to be married, but were disappointed and drifted apart, only to have Cupid bring them together after so many years of waiting.

No Indictment.

The grand jury adjourned today without returning an indictment against Captain J. M. Williams for assault upon Ora Wilson. Considerable dissatisfaction is expressed by young Wilson's many friends that no action was taken on the matter. It is understood that District Attorney Brown, for some unknown reason, would not allow the case to even come up for consideration, although several of the grand jury were willing to take the matter up.

Mrs. P. H. Farrell.

Mrs. P. H. Farrell died at her home last Thursday afternoon, June 16, of apoplexy, after an illness of a little over one hour. At the time of her death her husband was at Yaquina Bay and her daughter, Miss Lizzie Farrell, summoned from Portland, arrived home five minutes after she breathed her last.—Woodburn Independent.

Mrs. Farrell was a native Eugene resident. She was 60 years old.

REUNION OF SOLDIERS AT AN END

Successful Three Days' Meeting Ended Today.

A. C. Jennings Elected President of the Association and Three Vice Presidents Chosen ---Resolutions.

The fifth annual reunion of the old soldiers of Lane county came to a close this forenoon with the election of officers for the ensuing year. The reunion has been the most successful here yet, the interest being greater and the registration of veterans larger than at any previous reunion. There were 108 names on Secretary Jennings' books when the association adjourned since die this forenoon.

The election resulted in the naming of A. C. Jennings as president and the following vice presidents: J. M. Shelley, of Eugene; T. J. Elliot of Camp Creek; and G. W. Reynolds, of Cottage Grove. The president appointed secretary, treasurer and executive committee later.

The next reunion will be held in Eugene in June, 1905, the exact date to be selected by the executive committee.

Before adjournment the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

Be it resolved; That the thanks of the Lane County Veterans' Association be hereby extended to the ladies for the magnificent banquet provided for the members of this association, their families and friends; be it further

Resolved, That the thanks of this association be extended to the press of Eugene for the many courtesies extended to the association in their annual reunion, and which contributed so much to the success and enjoyment of the occasion; and be it further

Resolved, That our thanks be also extended to those who by their assistance, did so much to make the occasion so successful and enjoyable, and our thanks are especially due to Master Harold Wells and Master Earl Matlock, who though of tender years so manfully assisted upon this joyous occasion; and be it further

Resolved, That our thanks be extended to the many patriotic citizens of Eugene who by their generous contributions made the success of this occasion possible; and be it further

Resolved, That our heartfelt thanks are due to all good citizens who by their presence and example did so much to make the reunion of this year one to be always happily remembered.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

Whereas, The Supreme Commander of the universe has seen fit to call from our ranks by death the following comrades: W. F. Martin, G. L. McGinnis, H. F. Hunnicutt, A. Yerrington, K. Madsen, S. Gettings and Comrade John Brown, who have responded to the last roll call during the years 1903-1904, and have passed beyond the golden gate of a true and honorable life among our comrades and all who knew them, and by their death this association has lost some of its best workers, their wives and families true and loving companions and the community at large true and upright citizens; therefore be it

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our association and a copy be sent to the press and a copy each be sent to the wives and families of our deceased comrades.

E. F. CHAPMAN,
T. J. ELLIOTT,
S. G. LOCKWOOD,
Committee.

In the Justice Court.

Albert Painter appeared before Justice of the Peace Wintermeyer this afternoon on the charge of stealing some silverware from The Palms restaurant some time ago, having been arrested last evening by Officer Croner. The case was postponed until Tuesday, the man wishing to send for his brother. He gave bail for his appearance.

WORLD'S FAIR RED COUPONS

Commencing next Monday some of Eugene's merchants will launch another World's Fair free contest. Coupons will be given with every 25-cent purchase. Read big ad in another column and be sure and ask for red coupons.

Commercial Club's Candidate

R. S. Bryson has been named as the candidate from the Commercial Club to be voted for in the merchants' contest for the World's Fair trip. If chosen, Mr. Bryson will be supplied with literature advertising the town and county. He would be an excellent person for this purpose.

That Library Committee

To the Editor:—The denizens of this city are wondering what has become of the "library committee." Six months ago, more or less, the offer was made to Eugene of $10,000 to build a library building. The city officials placed the matter before the people to vote upon, and the result was almost unanimous. A committee was appointed by the city fathers to select a location. They received offers, and after a long rest made a kind of report, when an addition to the committee was made by the council, but it is up to the old committee to call the whole committee together and make a selection of a location. There has been nothing done, and to judge by the past nothing will be done. It makes little difference to the writer where the building is located, but we, with a large majority of Eugene's citizens, would like to see this matter settled now. It is not business. This committee was supposed to do business, but they have been a failure from the start. Let them either settle the matter or inform Mr. Carnegie that Eugene is too slow to act, which is not the case outside of a few.

Get on your dignity and do something. Learn to do business for the people promptly. TAXPAYER.

To the Pen.

Johnson and Kelly, two of the men sentenced to three years each for burglary in Pope's saloon at Cottage Grove, were taken to the penitentiary at Salem today by Deputy Sheriff H. L. Bown.

Born.

In Portland, at 709 Glison street, June 17, to Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Stafford, a daughter. Mrs. Stafford, nee Miss Hattie Dunning, was well known in this city several years ago as a U. O. student, and is a cousin of Mrs. J. W. Johnson.

Insurance Money.

George Darling, of Marcola, has received a draft for $400 from the Oregon Fire Relief Association, the amount of insurance held in the association on the house which was burned on June 9. L. T. Neff, of Co-burg, has received from the same company $45, covering the loss on his house, which caught fire on June 11.

Last night near 12 o'clock fire was discovered in the roof of the Vincent restaurant on West Eighth street. The alarm was sounded and the department responded, but their services were not needed. The blaze, which started from a chimney fire, was extinguished with a few buckets of water. The damage was nominal.

Yesterday's Roseburg Review: Hon R. A. Booth was in town from Eugene this morning. He naturally feels very kindly toward this county for the large vote given him in the recent election.
