

FORMAL TRANSFER MADE

The formal transfer of the Lane county Electric Company's plant at Springfield to the representatives of Rhoades, Sinkler & Butcher, the Philadelphia syndicate, was made today. The directors of the old company met at 10 a. m., at which time signed and complete control was given A. Welch and E. W. Hall, representatives of the syndicate.

Mr. Hall will reside in Eugene and will be manager of the local system. H. G. Fleischauer will be head electrician of the plant. He and his wife are now here.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE IN SESSION

The annual Lane county teachers' institute convened at the high school at 9 o'clock this morning, with a large attendance of teachers from all parts of the county.

County Superintendent W. P. Dilgard was fortunate in securing able instructors to assist him in his work.

The first paper this morning was read by V. A. Pinkley, of Cincinnati, on "Reading as an Art." "School Management," by W. G. Hartnuff, of Seattle, and an address by Dr. H. D. Shaldon, of the University of Oregon, completed the morning program.

This afternoon "How to Secure School Libraries" was read by W. G. Hartnuff. "Primary Language," by Professor M. H. Arnold, superintendent of Eugene's schools, was an interesting number on the program. "Primary Language," by W. W. Dixon, of Oregon City, and an address by President P. L. Campbell, of the University of Oregon, completed the program.

INSTRUCTOR ATTEMPTED SUICIDED

P. C. Langemo, one of the new instructors at the University of Oregon, attempted suicide late yesterday afternoon by cutting his throat with a razor. The act was committed at the home of Attorney and Mrs. S. P. Nery on West Tenth street, where Mr. Langemo was rooming. Two deep gashes were inflicted in the neck, narrowly missing the jugular vein. Dr. Geo. O'B. DeBar and W. Kuyken were called to attend the wounds. They state that the man will recover, no vital spot having been reached by the razor blade.

Mr. Langemo had been engaged as assistant to Professor F. G. Young in the department of economics. He arrived on Friday of last week from Berkeley, Cal. He took up rooms at the home of Attorney and Mrs. Nery, being acquainted with Mr. Nery before he came here, they having attended college together at the University of Minnesota. Yesterday Mr. Langemo sent word to the university that he was not well and could not attend his class that day. Late in the afternoon Mrs. Nery heard struggles in Langemo's room and was horrified upon entering to find him in almost an unconscious condition, with two ugly gashes across his throat. The bloody razor lying near told the story.
