ROBBERS RUN TO EARTH

Riverton, Ky., Nov. 1.—The bank robbers who for weeks have terrorized Ohio Valley cities by blowing up many safes and stealing thousands of dollars, came to grief in an exciting fight, after a raid on the bank of Willard, Carter county, yesterday. Four of the robbers are in jail, two of them unhurt and one mortally wounded. The robbers entered Willard yesterday and found on the outskirts of the town a locomotive under steam and in charge of a watchman. They bound and gagged the watchman, went into town and blew the safe to smithereens, attracting the citizens, who hastily gathered. There was a running fight and the band escaped to the engine and left at full speed. Bloodhounds took the trail where they left the engine and located the robbers racing in a field. A fierce battle ensued, resulting in the capture of the robbers.

JEALOUS MAN SHOT TWO

Sacramento, Nov. 1.—Cope Neeley, a railroad man, after drinking with several acquaintances at the house of Engineer McCue, left at 2 o'clock this morning to take a woman companion home. Fred Sachs, also a railroad man, was left alone in the house with the McCue woman. Neeley returned, shot the woman in the neck and Sachs

TERRIBLE BLUNDER MADE

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—While the people were joyously celebrating the achievement of liberty this afternoon a misunderstanding caused the troops to fire three volleys into the crowds, causing fifty casualties. Immediately a great procession started for the Novsky Prospect, headed by a woman carrying in her arms her baby, killed by the volley. A mob madly infuriated by the onslaught followed. At that moment a crowd of police came out of the palace and fired on a body of students. The latter returned the fire and a panic ensued. Many were wounded in these clashes. The ardor with which the people greeted the constitution has dampened. The women demand revenge for the loss of their husbands and friends. The League of Leagues issued a hundred thousand copies of the czar's manifesto with instructions to the people: "Arm yourselves; we are deceived Russians." The situation is grave.

MISSIONARIES MURDERED

Hongkong, Nov. 1.—It is reported that five American missionaries have been murdered at Lien Chow, a town of 12,000, in the province of Kuang Tung.

NEW YORK, NOV. 1.—THE OFFICE OF THE FOREIGN BOARD OF PRESBYTERIAN MISSIONS TODAY RECEIVED CONFIRMATION OF THE KILLING OF MISSIONARIES AT LIEN CHOW.

Cleveland, Nov. 1.—The Presbyterian church is the only denomination maintaining a mission at Lienchow. The missionaries stationed there are Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Machle, Rev. and Mrs. Rees F. Edwards, Misses Eleanor Chestnut, E. Patterson.

ASSISTANT NAVY SECRETARY

Washington, Nov. 1.—Truman R. Newberry, of Detroit, was sworn in as assistant secretary of the navy today.

FIGHTING OCCURS IN ODESSA

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—It was reported in this city all morning, though reports are current that preparations are being made in the southern part of the empire for the massacre of the Jews. It has already commenced at Odessa, where part of the Jewish quarter was plundered and ten Jews killed in the attack. However, a large part of the Russian workmen have espoused the cause of the Jews, and are determined to be avenged. At Warsaw mobs forced the banks to close and stopped most of the traffic, overturning many street cars. The Polish provinces are revolting, destroying government property.

Manchester, England, Oct. 30.—It is reported that the czar has shipped all the royal plate and jewelry to Copenhagen. The valuables were insured for $3,750,000.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—Strikers to the number of 120,000 are receiving strike contributions amounting to thousands of rubles daily.

Odessa, Oct. 30.—There is a persistent rumor that the sailors of the Black Sea fleet have mutinied at Balaclava, killing Admirals Birleff and Chakvine, then set sail for Sebastopol, flying the revolutionary flag.

Odessa, Oct. 30.—A German cruiser, with a complete torpedo boat division, has sailed for the Russian coast. It is reported the Kaiser has ordered the fleet to hold itself in readiness to protect the czar and family in case of necessity.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—Fifty students and the instructors of the school of technology have set up a provisional government. Troops have surrounded the building in which the school is established.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—The Daily News correspondent at St. Petersburg cables that there is open talk of a change of dynasty. It is persistently rumored that Prince Paul Dolmouckoff will be elected to the throne. It is claimed his right is greater than the descendants of Romanoff. J. P. Morgan, Jr., George W. Perkins and other foreign financiers caught there are trying to charter a steamer to London, it being impossible to leave by rail.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Spencer Eddy, charge d'affaires for this country at St. Petersburg, cables the official announcement of the establishment of a constitutional government with the following cabinet: Minister of the interior, Obolensky; minister of finance, Romanoff; minister of justice, Noni; minister of education, Krohovsky; minister of communications, Shafflaosen.

Warsaw, Oct. 31.—The strike continues here. The revolutionists demand political amnesty for all offenders. The newspapers reappeared today, and soldiers patrol the streets. The officials are at a loss to know what attitude to assume. Two men, believed to be working under orders of the revolutionary committee, today broke into the Vulcan iron factory, killed the cashier, stole $27,000 and escaped. The social democrats have issued a proclamation calling on the people to rise, declaring that Russia is not free.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—Forty thousand men gathered at Kazan cathedral square this morning while services were being held inside. For the first time in the history of the church of Russia the word "autocrat" was omitted from the prayer for the czar.

Odessa, Nov. 1.—Fighting occurred on the outskirts of the town last night. The mob, incited by the police, attacked the Jews. A semi-official report says that 37 were killed and 81 wounded. The situation is the most serious since the beginning of the strike.

Warsaw, Nov. 1.—The employees of the Vienna Railway tried to organize at a meeting this morning, but the soldiers dispersed them. The crowd gathered around the station and the soldiers formed a cordon and ordered them to disperse. They fired several volleys, killing and wounding many.

Odessa, Nov. 1.—Conflicts between the police and troops here have been of constant occurrence all day, revolutionists attacking students causing the most trouble. It is estimated that fully a hundred were killed. The students have formed a civil guard and are trying to hold in check the working men who attacked them. Dead bodies are lying everywhere in the streets. The authorities are doing little to prevent conflicts between students and workmen.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 1.—Strike leaders are issuing proclamations calling upon the people to be firm until amnesty and universal suffrage are secured. They place not the least faith in the government's promises. A driving sleet storm began this afternoon, and is doing more to keep order than all the soldiers.

Helsingfors, Nov. 1.—Cossacks fired upon the people today, wounding 31.

Odessa, Nov. 1.—The fighting today occurred chiefly in the cathedral square and Derbusser gardens, in the heart of the city. The wounded were taken to the municipal hospital. The crowds participating were composed of the very roughest element of the city. People are blaming the authorities for disbanding and dispersing the police.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 1.—Officials say today that pessimism is growing in official circles. It is believed the present rioting will strengthen the position of reactionaries. If things do not soon quiet down there will be a turn to the old order of things under thinly disguised quasi constitutionalism. It will probably be years before Russia has a free, stable government.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—The Daily News St. Petersburg correspondent says the soldiers are shooting down the mobs who are attempting to free prisoners in jail. Many people believe the situation is still remediable, but all agree that Russia never before has faced such a peril. The strength displayed by the revolutionists is a source of general astonishment.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 1.—The naval authorities today deny reports of the battleships being destroyed in the Black Sea and the admirals killed.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The revolutionists are determined to free all
