DEAF TWENTY-NINE UP MOHAWK AFTER YEARS, CURED

UP MOHAWK AFTER A CRAZY MAN

To the Public:—For 29 years I have been gradually growing deaf until it was with difficulty that I could hear without great embarrassment, and then I would often miss the meaning of those talking. Dr. Darrin has cured me and I most emphatically commend him to all. I will add that I am cured of dyspepsia. My address is 157 West Fifth street, Eugene.

J. M. HOWELL.

Geo. Hill, of Fort Klamath, Or., was in Eugene not long ago for treatment by Dr. Darrin. He reports his nephew was cured by Dr. Darrin four years ago of epileptic fits and general nervous debility.

Mrs. C. A. Cornell, five miles north of Eugene, reports her cure of deafness as perfect.

Mrs. E. J. Coburn, four miles north of Eugene, is very much pleased with the cure of her boy of stomach trouble and general weakness.

L. M. Hartwig, of Vida, Or., is so well pleased with his cure of eczema, piles, dyspepsia, constipation, liver and kidney trouble that he has placed other members of his family under Dr. Darrin's care.

V. J. Bentzen, of Eugene, and W. J. Deadwood, of Leaburg, Or., are both cured of granulated eyes.

Chas. Mayhew's daughter, 79 East Sixth street, Eugene, is happy over the cure of cataract and deafness of 15 years' standing.

Mrs. M. McCully, 75 West Fifth street, Eugene, has had no return of the affliction, having been cured of inflammation of neck of the bladder. Her husband was also cured of liver and kidney complaint. Scores of others might be mentioned.

The afflicted should call upon Dr. Darrin. If the case is hopeless he will so inform the patient. If he takes the case it is large odds that the patient will be permanently cured. Remember, Dr. Darrin will be at the Smeede Hotel, Eugene, until November 12 only. Examination is free and charges $10 a month for the time required. The poor free, except medicines.

Ward, a young man who was recently arrested and bound over to the circuit court for shooting a neighbor's cattle in the Sinslaw valley, was taken from his room in the Matlock lodging house this afternoon to the hospital, suffering from tuberculosis. He is very ill and may not live to be tried for his offense.

Wednesday's Daily Guard.

In the circuit court today the case of Wm. H. Ireland, against Albert J. Ward, to recover $15,000 for the alienation of his wife's affections, is being tried. A jury was selected as follows: David Markley, H. J. Dickey, John F. Brewer, M. Svarverud, W. S. St. John, W. L. Campbell, E. R. Mumme, E. J. Crow, W. J. Wernock, W. E. Wilcox, W. H. Kay and Dave Allison.

John M. Williams is counsel for Ireland and Woodcock & Potter and L. Blyden for Ward.

Ireland is a well-known young farmer residing in the vicinity of Vida, on the upper McKenzie river, and Ward is a timber cruiser and locater, known by all who have had anything to do with McKenzie timber lands. It appears that Ward boarded with Ireland and his wife for some time, during which Ireland claims that Ward won the affections of the wife and finally induced her to leave.

A large number of witnesses, mostly neighbors and relatives of the Irelands, have been examined today. The case will probably last all of tomorrow, and probably longer.

MISS ROOSEVELT HAD A CHAPERON

Editor Guard—"The average American girl desires to know whether the girl that the large party of which Miss Roosevelt was a member was mostly middle-age, a few past, and while all felt a care and responsibility her special chaperon was Mrs. Senator Dubois, whose children in official circles in Washington are considered the model children. In the Congress of Mothers last summer Mrs. Dubois was superintendent of the children's room.

There was, from the start of the party at San Francisco until they arrived at Oakland on return, the greatest harmony and good feeling. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure except the painful injury Mrs. Dubois received in the carriage wreck.

Had Miss Roosevelt traveled with president's daughter had a chaperon on the long trip from Washington to China and return."—Society, Register, Oct. 23.

Permit me to explain to "the girl" out a chaperon, it is not supposable "she belongs to the set who drink from the finger bowl and are ignorant of good society usage," as her mother, from whom she inherited her fortune, was a Boston woman of culture and refinement, whose long line of ancestors were accustomed to the forms of "good society" before Eugene was on the map.

A MATRON OF EUGENE.

GAS PLANT WILL BE ERECTED

It will be remembered that the city council recently gave a franchise to F. W. Waters, of Salem, to erect and maintain a gas plant and system in Eugene. Many are of the opinion that the project has been abandoned, but upon inquiry the Guard has received reliable information that the plant will be built and will be in operation early next spring, before the time of the franchise expires.

It would seem that with a gas plant and electric plant in operation, both giving reasonable rates and good service, the city would hardly be justified in expending money to erect and maintain another plant. It would lead to an expensive fight, which would be unwise for all interests concerned.
