

ODESSA FACES ANARCHY

Odessa, Nov. 3.—This city is still an inferno, the sacking of the Jewish quarters, pillage and murder continuing unchecked. For over 48 hours now the town has been a seething cauldron of tumult. The troops this morning are contenting themselves with preventing the pillaging of the homes of Christians. General Kaulbars has earned the detestation of every decent person by allowing the mob full sway.

Students are throwing their lives away uselessly in attempts to subdue the mob. Efforts in this direction caused the Cossacks to attack them as rioters. About noon the situation became somewhat improved. No attempts have been made to resume business operations.

Koxlov, Nov. 3.—The vice governor has fled from the city and citizens are preserving order. The crowds demand the release of all political prisoners.

Stockholm, Nov. 3.—George E. Perkins, J. P. Morgan, Jr., and other financiers arrived here today from St. Petersburg on a steamer. Perkins says that strikers tried to prevent the ship sailing, but the captain eluded them.

Helsingfors, Nov. 3.—The situation is critical here because of the attitude of the Socialists who, not satisfied with the calling of the diet, desire violent action toward Russia. They demand a national assembly. There is a report that the emperor has granted all the reform asked by the Finns except a national assembly.

Moscow, Nov. 3.—A procession of students returning with comrades who had been released from prison, were attacked by a mob of workmen at the Triumphal arch, and ten students were killed.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 3.—The czar has signed the general amnesty bill, releasing all political prisoners. About 15,000 will be freed immediately.

Nicolaev, Nov. 3.—The whole town is in the hands of bandits, who are devastating the Jewish quarter, pillaging shops and killing Jews without the slightest hindrance. Other Southern Russia towns report similar conditions.

Kishinev, Nov. 3.—A horrible massacre has occurred here, hundreds being killed. All the hospitals, pharmacies and hotels are full of wounded and mutilated persons.

COLLEGE PRANK FATALITY

Mount Vernon, Ohio, Nov. 2.—Burdette, beneath a convict two hundred feet from the spot where Stewart Flerson, a Kenyon College student, was killed by a train, the authorities found three pieces of blood stained rope and absorbent cotton saturated with blood. Prosecutor Stillwell says several persons are under surveillance and may be arrested.

Stillwell expressed the belief that Flerson was chloroformed, cotton saturated therewith being bound over his face, and the boy then tied to the rails as a part of his initiation into a college fraternity. The case will be carried to the grand jury November 13.

CHILD BRANDED ON CHEEK

New Westminster, B. C., Nov. 1.—A cruel trick was perpetrated in this city last evening, when some unknown person with a red hot iron branded the letter "S" on the cheek of Eunice Archibald, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Archibald, of this city. The little one had been out playing for nearly an hour, when she returned to her mother with the brand on her face.

No question of the mother can bring from the reluctant child where the mark was obtained.

New York Life Affairs

Berlin, Nov. 3.—The Koelnische Zeitung today advises the German policy holders of the New York Life to seek to recover the money paid by them to the company. It declares that the company violated the law, and that all policyholders are entitled to recover all the money paid in since December 31, 1901.

FINLAND HAS WON LIBERTY

London, Nov. 4.—The second edition of the Times has a St. Petersburg dispatch saying that Finland has won its freedom and that the czar has surrendered. A manifesto embodying all the demands of the Helsingfors populace was submitted to the czar for his signature. The secretary of state becomes responsible to the diet instead of to the czar.

Odessa, Nov. 4.—The terrorists are making every effort to drive the Jews from their houses. They are ransacking the dwellings of Christians on suspicion that they are harboring Jews. A mob appeared in front of the house of the Scripps News correspondent, suspecting that Jews were secreted there, and threatened to wreck the building and kill all the occupants. They were at the height of frenzy and just as they were about to enter they discovered that it was not the house sought.

Helsingfors, Nov. 4.—Three Russian battleships and cruisers and ten thousand troops have arrived here from Reval and are anchored in the harbor. The strike continues. There is no light and no wire communication with the interior except one wire working intermittently to St. Petersburg. The artillery which had advanced toward Helsingfors was forced to retreat without a struggle.

London, Nov. 4.—The correspondent of the Central News at Helsingfors wires that the Russian squadron has just arrived and is landing troops. The people are thoroughly determined not to submit to suppressive measures and are much excited. A conflict seems inevitable.

Odessa, Nov. 4.—At midnight a mob made an attempt to storm the penitentiary to release a thousand prisoners, when the troops opened fire on the crowd with Maxim guns with awful effect. Turned from the prison the mob returned to the Jewish quarter, where for three hours a revel in blood continued. The Maxim were used by the troops intermittently. Casualties number 800. Many women and children were wounded in their homes by the artillery fire. It is certain 25,000 soldiers could restore order. Apparently there is some hidden motive in allowing the riots to continue.

CZAR'S UKASE TO PUBLIC

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—The ukase of the czar granting amnesty was made public today, and proclaims a free pardon to all political prisoners, all participants in strikes and persons responsible for breaking contracts. It also extends to those not yet tried or sentenced. Those convicted of crimes committed over ten years ago will be released and transferred as colonists to Siberia. Those now serving as colonists will be allowed after four years to choose a residence, but must now live in St. Petersburg or Moscow for three years. Sentences of convicts of other classes will be reduced half, and life sentences to fifteen years.

Big Mining Investment

San Bernardino, Cal. Nov. 4.—The Guggenheims have bought a group of 20 miles in Ord mountain, fourteen miles from Daggett, for $300,000, from the Drew estate. B. Obrine will build a railroad thereto, and with extensive developments a great mining camp is promised.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—It is stated that the Young court martial recommends a severe censure of the commander of the Bennington.

New York, Nov. 4.—The municipal campaign will close tonight. All candidates are making claims of large pluralities. The betting today favors McCellan, with odds of 3 to 1.

Iowa Bank Scandal

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 4.—The board of directors of the State Bank of Iowa is trying to learn the status of affairs of its vice president, C. H. Dye, on whose account the bank closed. It is alleged he confessed to forgeries of $12,000. Other alleged shortages amount to $50,000. He has agreed to turn over property worth about $20,000, and his father will give bond for $10,000 more.
