

GRAND JURY INDICTS

Thursday's Daily Guard
The damage suit of W. H. Ireland vs. A. J. Ward has dragged through the court sessions today. Scores of witnesses have been examined, cross-examined, then recalled and the story of the domestic troubles of the Irelands has been pretty thoroughly gone over. The attorneys have been unable to cross-examine Mrs. Ireland, wife of the plaintiff in the case. Yesterday afternoon when the questions were put to her she became seized with a hysterical fit, and this morning while on the witness stand she became almost unconscious. She was carried out of the courtroom and later taken to her lodgings down town.

At a late hour this afternoon the attorneys were making their arguments before the jury.

The grand jury this afternoon found a true bill against Tony Bryant, charged with statutory rape, and N. A. Fisher, charged with assault and battery upon F. A. Rankin one night last August. Each of these was arraigned and time for entering plea set for tomorrow at 9 a. m.

IT WAS A GREAT VICTORY

Saturday's Daily Guard.

Today is the day of the big football match between O. A. C. and Oregon, and beginning last night crowds of strangers arrived in the city and early this morning signs of something unusual were noticeable on the streets. All morning football enthusiasts arrived from neighboring towns on bicycles, horseback and in carriages. Even from Corvallis a few cyclists arrived to see the game.

Last evening a monstrous rally was held on Kincaid Field, and with speeches by the Mayor, Regent F. J. Friend, Pat McArthur, Coach Sherts and others the students were enthused as never before. Along with the speeches there was a big bonfire and a few fireworks, and the rally ended with the serpentine parade, participated in by over 300 students and men.

The game began promptly at three o'clock this afternoon before the largest crowd that ever assembled for an athletic contest in Eugene. The officials of the contest are W. L. Thompson, referee, and C. H. Abercrombie, of Wisconsin, umpire.

The O. A. C. team arrived about noon today in a special train of ten coaches. The players were accompanied by about 600 people from Corvallis, Albany, Independence and other towns. The O. A. C. band came along and played a few airs on the streets.

The crowds began to assemble on Kincaid Field before 2 o'clock, and by 3 the grandstand and side lines were packed.

Before the game about 200 men students did the serpentine march stunt on Willamette street and gave several yells.

The two teams lined up as follows:

OREGON O. A. C.
Hug, Spencer.....Walker
McKinney.....Dunlap
Earl.....Lawrence
Chandler.....Emily, Griffith
Moullen.....Bundy
Arnsperger.....Dolan
Moore.....Cooper
Latourette, capt.....Rinehart
Friesel, Hurd.....Williams
Templeton.....Root
Kerron.....Abraham
U. O. SCORES.

The first half resulted in a score of 6 to 0 in favor of U. O. Honors seemed to be even until the last few minutes of the half, when with the ball on O. A. C.'s 35-yard line U. O. resorted to a quarterback kick and Moore securing the ball ran 30 yards without interference for a touchdown. Friesel kicked the goal.
U. O., 6; O. A. C., 0.
Second half—U. O., 0; O. A. C., 0.

Monday's Daily Guard

Oregon's victory over O. A. C. is still the topic of conversation on the streets of Eugene. The citizens are proud of the team and are confident that it will defeat Multnomah and Washington.

Perhaps two or three thousand dollars were left in Eugene by Corvallis people, the betting being heavy. O. A. C. supporters were so confident that their team would win that many bet all the money they had and all that they could borrow.

WHAT THE COACHES SAY.

After the game Coach Steekie, of O. A. C., said:

"We are perfectly satisfied with the result. It was a hard fought game and the honors were even, but the university team had a golden chance to win and grasped it successfully. Both elevens played hard, clean football. Shorts has a good team and his men played hard, clean ball. Dolan played a fine game for Agricultural College, as did Williams and Rinehart. We are naturally disappointed, but have no complaint to make."

Coach Shorts, of Oregon, said:
"The teams were very evenly matched. Corvallis made more yardage than Oregon did on straight plunges, but Oregon would have made more had not our runners fumbled repeatedly. It was not luck that won the game—it was football. Moore, who is always alert, saw a chance to win the game, grasped it and the result was a victory for the university. Latourette displayed great generalship in running his team and George Hug put up a fine game at center. I never saw such a display of college enthusiasm as the university rooters furnished during the game and afterward. It was a fine spirit for a small university. The Corvallis people are game losers, the university is a sportsman-like winner."

RECORD OF THE TEAMS.

The record of the U. O. team for the season of 1905 is as follows:
October 7, at Eugene: U. O., 13; Alumnus, 5.
October 21, at Berkeley: U. O., 0;

California, 0.
October 17, at Stanford: U. O., 4; Stanford, 10.
October 28, at Eugene: U. O., 17; Chemawa, 0.
November 4, at Salem: U. O., 11; Willamette, 6.
November 11, at Eugene: U. O., 6; O. A. C., 0.
O. A. C.'s record is as follows:
October 1, at Corvallis: O. A. C., 10; Alumnus, 6.
October 7, at Corvallis: O. A. C., 18; Chemawa, 0.
October 14, at Corvallis: O. A. C., 58; Whitworth, 0.
October 21, at Corvallis: O. A. C., 29; Pullman, 0.
October 28, at Berkeley: O. A. C., 0; California, 10.
November 11, at Eugene: O. A. C., 0; Oregon, 6.

The Portland Journal's sporting editor, before Saturday's games, predicted that O. A. C. would win by two touchdowns, that Multnomah would win from Willamette, that the Sherman Indians would win from Washington, and that California would defeat Stanford. The Albany Democrat made the very same predictions. They were wrong on every one of them.

Saturday's scores:
U. O., 6; O. A. C., 0.
Willamette, 4; Multnomah, 0.
Stanford, 12; California, 6.
Washington, 29; Sherman Indians, 0.
Spokane High, 29; Lewiston High, 6.
Silverton High, 6; Woodburn High, 0.

FILE ARTICLES IN FEW DAYS

Salem, Or., Nov. 8.—A. Welch, manager of the Willamette Valley Railway Company, said this morning that the articles of incorporation of the new interurban electric line between Portland and this city would be filed within a few days, and that it was expected the line would be in operation within a year.

In behalf of the company Mr. Welch applied last night to the city council for a franchise through this city. He said that, while the same people that owned the street railway of this city were back of the new company, it was his intention to operate them as entirely separate systems. The franchise asked for includes steam as a motive power.

THE CASE OF GRACE SMITH

Thursday's Daily Guard
The Astoria News-Herald of Wednesday has the following concerning the case of Miss Grace Smith, a former Eugene teacher:

"That statement is absolutely false. I was not in the Elite millinery store on Wednesday."

Briefly, this is the defense made by Miss Grace Smith, the Alderbrook school teacher, accused of shoplifting. With wonderful outward serenity, the young woman faced her accusers at the investigation held last evening, and when placed on the stand in her own behalf denied that she had stolen the bolt of ribbon alleged to have been taken by her from a counter at the store.

On the other hand, Mrs. A. Le'nenweber, Mrs. Fre, Miss Deuck, Miss Montgomery and Miss Sackett positively identified Miss Smith as the woman who took the ribbon, insisting that there was no possibility of mistake. The matter sifted itself down to a question of veracity, Miss Smith denying nearly everything sworn to by the other five women.

The investigation was held at the office of School Clerk Ferguson. Sitting behind Miss Smith were many of the school teachers, and others in the audience were her friends. She was defended by G. U. Fulton, while Chairman Eakin, of the school board, appeared for the prosecution; Mrs. Lettenweber and Mrs. Fre, who conduct the store, and the three clerks, two of them employed at the Elite and the third, Miss Sackett, at a store adjoining, all testified that Miss Smith had been detected in the act of taking the ribbon, Miss Deuck having observed the theft.

Miss Sackett gave the information to the Elite clerks that Miss Smith had been suspected of shoplifting. She stated that Miss Smith had been suspected of having taken a paper of hairpins from the store adjoining, and she had related the circumstance to the Elite clerks. For this reason watch was kept when the school teacher came into the store last Wednesday afternoon. Miss Deuck stated that she secreted herself behind the curtain and that she saw Miss Smith take the ribbon and slip it beneath her skirt. When Miss Smith was accused of the theft she denied it, but, according to the witnesses for the prosecution, finally confessed, returned the ribbon and asked that nothing be said of the matter.

The board decided to take the matter under advisement, and no decision as to the outcome was announced last evening. The standing of the proprietors of the millinery establishment and their positiveness in identifying Miss Smith, on the one hand, and the accused woman's persistent and dispassionate denial, on the other combine to make the case the most

The J. R. Campbell lot of 247 bales of 1905 hops has been sold to Horst & Co., of San Francisco, full delivery having been made this afternoon. They graded high, but went for a little under 9 1/2 cents. Two small crops, but the record-breaking crop of England this year has flattened out hop values.
