GOVERNOR'S QUICK WORK

Wolverton's Successor on Supreme Bench Appointed

Eastern Oregon Lawyer, Thos. G. Hailey, Picks the Plum From Governatorial Tree

Salem, Nov. 22.—Governor Chamberlain today appointed Thos. G. Hailey, of Pendleton, to the supreme bench to succeed Judge Wolverton, who has been appointed to the federal bench.

(Thos. G. Hailey was born in La Grande, Oregon, 40 years ago, and for the last 15 years he has been a resident of Pendleton. He has been one of the leaders of the bar in Eastern Oregon and has played a conspicuous part in public affairs. In 1896 he was the Democratic nominee for circuit judge, but was defeated by Stephen A. Lowell. Four years later Mr. Hailey was elected district attorney. In December, 1901, he was elected mayor of Pendleton, without opposition, and he is at the present time a member of the school board of that city.)

Work on New Railroad

Hillsboro, Or., Nov. 21.—About 30 Japanese arrived here yesterday and pitched their tents preparatory to beginning work on the Portland, Nehalem and Tillamook Railroad. A force of about 200 will be here in a few days.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

Townsend, Mont., Nov. 22.—May Stevens, a woman of the world, has confessed to the murder of John G. Black, who was stabbed to death in a saloon Monday night. The woman says she stabbed Black in the back because he attacked another woman, accusing the latter of robbing him of $50.

Washington, No. 22.—Senator Hepburn called on the president today and recommended T. H. Bartlett, register of the land office at Lewistown, Idaho, vice West, who was removed. Also A. T. Smith for district internal revenue collector for the district of Idaho and Montana.

New York, Nov. 22.—Ex-Postmaster General R. J. Wynne, now consul general at London, arrived today en route to Washington, where he testifies regarding postoffice scandals.

Paris, Nov. 22.—King Charles, of Portugal, arrived here today to visit President Loubet. He was accorded imposing military honors, and will remain three days.

London, Nov. 22.—Russian dispatches say the uprising of peasants is growing steadily. A million and a half persons, comprising 80 per cent. of the population of the Baltic provinces, are said to be starving. Half a million peasants are following the false czar. Agitators are urging the peasants to burn all estates.

Indianapolis, Nov. 22.—Fire broke out in the Barger Furniture Company at 10:40 today. At the same time the water main broke. Firemen fear for the destruction of a large business section on account of lack of water pressure. It is rumored that an elevator containing passengers got stuck between two burning floors.

THE INSURANCE INVESTIGATION

Tarbell Says He Paid Expenses From Private Funds

Gives His Views as to Why the Dividends of Policy Holders Was so Small at Maturity

New York, Nov. 22.—Hughes today asked Tarbell to account for the disappointment of the policyholders in the size of dividends at maturity. Tarbell said there were several reasons for the small dividends, that the rates of interest had gone from 6 to 4, that commissions and expenses had increased, the taxes on premiums were higher, and extravagance was partly responsible. He thinks the work of the committee will correct this. He always made an itemized account of all expenses and paid expenses of his own family from his personal funds when he took them with him on inspection trips.

FORMER ALDERMAN GUILTY

Milwaukee, Nov. 22.—A. T. McCormack, a former alderman, pleaded guilty to bribery this morning and was fined $350 and costs.

Why Put Off Your Christmas Shopping?

Why Not Learn Wisdom From the Past and Make Purchases Early This Year?

The holidays are coming. It is but a little more than five weeks to Christmas. If you are the one who makes the family Christmas purchases you will remember some unpleasant things that happened last year and the year before that. You tried to do all your shopping the week or ten days before Christmas. The result was we were busy (rushed to death), and still we had many extra sales people. In the rush and hurry you bought things different from what you expected, and omitted something for somebody.

All this is true, isn't it?

Plan your Christmas presents now! Begin to purchase them now! and thereby save both worry and money. We will be unable to serve you satisfactorily if everyone does their shopping the last two weeks before Christmas for this reason: We will offer you special inducements to do your trading NOW. Read this list of values—commence tomorrow to take advantage of them.
