

CONFESSED TO THEFT OF GOLD

Charles Corlier, who was arrested a few days ago on a charge of stealing gold from the Oregon Securities Company at Hobemia, waived examination and confessed to the crime as charged. In his confession he implicated two other men—Frank Haley, a bookkeeper, and Charles Lynch, the day foreman who had been previously arrested. They had a preliminary hearing before Justice Vaughn at Cottage Grove who bound them to appear before the next session of the circuit court under bonds of $500 each.

Corlier in his confession swore that the three had gone into a conspiracy to steal ore from that company in which they were to co-operate, one to work in the mine, one to be at Cottage Grove, who would refine the gold, and the other to be located at Elsieburg or some other point. The case, however, was brought to an abrupt ending.

Obituary

Abner Collins Wharton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Washington Wharton, was born in Mahaska county, Iowa, November 16, 1865, and died at his home in Lane county, Oregon, December 8, 1905, at 7 a. m., aged 40 years and 22 days. In 1883 he removed with his parents to Hand county, South Dakota, where he lived until 1901, when he came to Eugene. October 28, 1900, he was married to Mattie M. Smith, and of this union were born three little boys. He leaves besides his wife and little ones his aged mother, one brother, Albert, of Burdette, South Dakota, and a sister, Mrs. W. R. Hardie, of Eugene, Or., who was with him during his last sickness. Abner was always a good son and brother, a kind and loving husband and father, a good neighbor and respected by all who knew him. He was never a member of any church, but during his last illness gave his heart to the Saviour and died a Christian in the full hope of a glorious resurrection.

Home will be lonely without him, but he has gone to a better one. His remains will be sent to Miller, South Dakota, for interment in the Sunbeam cemetery. The bereft family expresses gratitude to all who by their kindness made the sorrow easier to bear. M.

HENRY H. GILFRY FOR SENATOR

The following special dispatch to the Oregonian from Washington is to the point and should be acted upon by Governor Chamberlain by appointing a man who is virtually in the harness and can do good work for Oregon:

"There is considerable desire among the senators to know whom Governor Chamberlain will appoint to fill the unexpired term of Mitchell. It is generally believed that he will choose a Democrat, and in view of this conclusion there has been some wonderment whether the governor will appoint H. H. Gilfry, now legislative clerk of the senate. Gilfry has been an official of the senate for many years, he is personally known to every senator, and his appointment would be popular among senators here in Washington. Moreover, he is a close personal friend of Governor Chamberlain, and his friends here believe he stands as good a chance of succeeding Mitchell as any Democrat in Oregon. W. B. Turner, of Portland, printing clerk of the senate, today telegraphed Governor Chamberlain as follows:

"No other Democrat of Oregon can render such valuable and effective service to the state in the senate as Henry Gilfry."

"Mr. Gilfry considers it untimely to make any statement whatever, but his friends are intensely interested to learn what decision Governor Chamberlain will make."
