

We've Got a "Corner" on Bargains!

You know that a "corner" in wheat or corn means higher prices, but our "corner" means just the contrary. It means that you will be able to buy staple goods at "bargain" prices during this great

JANUARY BARGAIN SALE!

Our "corner" means simply that we've gathered together a lot of good things—goods that you need right now and will need for a long while after this—and that we'll offer them during this sale at prices so extraordinarily low that some of them seem out of reason to you. When for instance we quote prices as below 25c, the articles in hundreds of instances will be 15c and even 10c, you will not wonder these bargains of ours are genuine and give you an opportunity to save a good bit of money. But as some of the lots aren't large, don't be disappointed if you wait till the last day. Some of the lots will be gone before the first day is past. The lucky days are from Tuesday, January 2d to Wednesday, January 31st.

SMALLPOX STAMPED OUT

The University of Oregon will resume its work on Thursday of next week, this being the time settled upon by the faculty when school was dismissed on account of the smallpox three weeks ago.

While there is yet one case of smallpox at the dormitory and one other case at a students' boarding house, no apprehension is felt on the part of the faculty and instructors that the university will not be well attended on the opening day. Circulars were sent out about ten days ago, telling of the disease and informing those interested in the welfare of the university that little danger was feared of the cases developing seriously.

Of the one case now in the dormitory the students just out of quarantine say that the patient will be confined for a week yet, and to make it perfectly safe for those having rooms in the building to occupy them on their return it has been decided to move Kamp to the home of John Penland on University avenue. Then the dormitory will be fumigated again and everything will be perfectly safe on the opening day.

DEATH OF MRS. W. E. BROWN

She was born in Richmondville, Schoharie county, New York, September 25th, 1845, and moved to Hopkinton, Iowa, in April, 1856.

After her marriage on May 16th, 1866, she lived in Hopkinton until 1868, when the family made their home in Manchester, Iowa. She has been a resident of Eugene since October, 1888, when her family moved to Oregon to make their new home.

Besides her husband there survives a son, Willis Warner Brown, a brother, M. O. Warner, and her father, P. H. Warner. The services will be held at the family residence on Washington street at 2 p. m. Saturday, December 30, and will be in charge of Rev. E. C. Oakley. Interment at Masonic cemetery.

WOODMEN HOLD BIG MEETING

The "hot tangle" time held by the Woodmen of the World last night was a splendid success, the meeting being attended by a large number of members of the order, Women of Woodcraft and invited guests.

The principal event of the evening's program was an excellent address by Hon. Walter L. Toozie, of Woodburn, who is a candidate for the nomination for congressman on the Republican ticket. The address was full of excellent thoughts and was highly appreciated. Other speakers of local note, including Head Banker P. E. Snodgrass, made short addresses.

Not the least enjoyable feature of the evening was the tangle supper, served in the banquet room after the meeting was over.

DIED FROM BURNS RECEIVED

Birdie, the two-year-old son of Herbert Hodge, died at his home in Fairmount at 8 o'clock last night as the result of burns received last Saturday. The little fellow's clothing caught fire while standing in front of a fireplace and his back and head were badly burned before the flames could be extinguished.

GUN ACCIDENT YESTERDAY

STAMPED OUT

John Russell, a son of L. C. Russell, residing on West Tenth street, was the victim of a gun accident yesterday afternoon at Springfield, which, while it did not terminate badly, caused a painful wound.

In company with another boy, Russell went out toward Springfield to hunt, and after going over a little ground in search of something to kill, the two boys became cold and decided to wrestle to get warm. They left the shotgun leaning up against a fence nearby and in their little encounter they brushed up against the fence, causing the gun to fall and to discharge its load of bird shot. Young Russell received a good portion of the load in his right leg between the knee and hip. He was brought to town, where Dr. Kayken attended him.

HOGS HAD THE SWINE PLAGUE

Stock Inspector A. G. Mathews' attention having been called to the mysterious death of a number of Joseph Davies' hogs at his place across the river recently, he went to the place this forenoon in company with Dr. J. Christie, veterinary surgeon, to make an investigation. The mystery was cleared up by the doctor, who found that the hogs had not been poisoned, as supposed, but had died of swine plague. Mr. Davies' hogs have been placed under quarantine for 30 days.

The stock inspector warns all persons to keep off the place, as the germs of the disease are easily carried on one's shoes.

NEW BUILDING ON EAST NINTH

J. W. Quackenbush has begun the erection of a one-story frame building, 28x36 feet in dimensions, east of his brick building on East Ninth street. It will be used for business purposes, but the name of the tenant is not given out.

Died

Aron Kelsey died at his residence, eight miles west of Cottage Grove, Oregon, at 5 p. m. on December 21, 1905.

He had been sick for some time with cancer of the stomach, which resulted in his death. He was born in Indiana 69 years ago and moved to Iowa with his people when seven years old. In 1879 he came to California, and in 1892 to Oregon. He leaves a wife and four children, two of the sons being in California and the two daughters, Mrs. Lea Dame-wood and Mrs. L. Richardson, being in this state. The funeral services were held at Lorane at 1 p. m. Saturday, December 23d.

Loretta Irene, the three-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Ham, of Harrisburg, died in Eugene Wednesday morning, December 27, 1905. The child was apparently well at bedtime the night before, but when the parents awoke next morning they were shocked and grieved to find her dead.

The funeral was held this forenoon at the home of J. S. Ham.

Bond B. Wheeler, aged 75 years, died at the home of his brother, J. Wheeler, at Pleasant Hill Wednesday, December 27, 1905, from consumption. Besides his brother he leaves several relatives in Illinois, from which state he came to Oregon last May. The funeral will be held Friday at 10 a. m.

BAPTISTS' ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting and roll call of the Baptist church yesterday afternoon and evening were very successful and were both largely attended.

At the business meeting in the afternoon officers were elected as follows: Trustee, C. S. Frank; deacons, Professor E. E. DeCou and C. H. Marsh; treasurer, Professor W. F. Boynton; clerk, Philip H. Credits; Sunday school superintendent, F. H. Needham; assistant Sunday school superintendent, C. W. Converse.

Reports from the various branches of church work indicated a splendid growth during the past year. The church clerk reported a net gain of 81 in membership and the total number belonging to the church at present is 300. Since the pastor, Rev. O. C. Wright, began his work here a year and a half ago, there has been a net gain of 180 in membership. In that time the congregations have increased from a mere handful of people to an average of 300 at the Sunday morning service and from 400 to 1000 at the evening service.

The church has expended the sum of $5500 during the past year, of which $3650 was used in enlarging and remodeling the house of worship. The seating capacity has been more than doubled and Sunday school rooms, pastor's study, lecture rooms, etc., have been added.

EVENING MEETING.

In the evening James Edmunds, Sunday school missionary of the Baptist Publication Society, delivered an interesting address on "The Living Child and the Dying Churen." It was listened to attentively and enjoyed by the large audience present.

The annual roll call was then held and a large percentage of members answered to their names.

Mrs. Young, organist of the church, was presented with a purse of money as a token of appreciation of her work, Rev. Mr. Wright making the presentation speech.

FOUR NEW CITIZENS IN 1905

During the past year County Clerk Lee has granted United States citizenship papers to four men of foreign birth and the first papers, or declaration of intention to become citizens, to seventeen.

Of the newly made citizens three are from Denmark and one from Germany. Of those who have made application to become citizens seven are subjects of the king of England, four are from Sweden, three from Denmark, and one each from Germany, Austria and Norway.

SPRINGFIELD'S BANK OPEN

The First Bank of Springfield commenced business at Springfield this morning. Henry W. Stewart and E. B. Kepner are the proprietors and the capital stock is $20,000. The new bank has a 13-inch concrete vault, a $1450 safe and occupies a good building built expressly for the business by Mr. Kepner.

Messrs. Stewart and Kepner are two of Springfield's most prominent citizens. They are thorough business men and will no doubt succeed in their undertaking.

NEW MARRIAGE LICENSE LAW

According to the new law applicants for marriage licenses will hereafter be compelled to give the county clerk the following information: Place and date of marriage, full name and residence, color, age, birthplace, occupation, number of marriages, father's and mother's birthplace. The clerk has to make a report of these answers to the state board of health on the fifth day of each month.

Notice

My wife, Euphany Gersbach, has left my bed and board. Hereafter I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her.
CHARLES GERSBACH.

A Fearful Fate

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best cure made." A's best for cuts, sores and injuries 25c at W. L. Deano, druggist.
