

Facts That Mean Money To You at The CUSTOMERS' BENEFIT SALE!

THIS sale is a Genuine Bargain Event. Our reasons for having it is that we must have the money that we have invested in our goods, and in order to reduce stock and raise money with which to buy Spring stock, we are giving this sale for the benefit of our customers. Prices have been cut to the lowest possible notch. The people will get the profits and we the money, which is better than carrying the goods over.

True, we will not make any money during these three weeks, but we will have capital to work this Spring that would otherwise be tied up. Don't get this sale confused with others, and don't allow our competitors to keep you away. The goods we offer (our entire stock) are new and seasonable, and every article in our store is greatly reduced in price for these three weeks.

DEATH OF ROBERT CALLISON

Robert Callison, one of the early Lane county pioneers, died at his home at Pleasant Hill last night at 11 o'clock after an illness of several weeks' duration, at the age of over 87 years. The infirmities of old age was the direct cause of death. The funeral will be held Thursday at 11 a. m. with interment in the Pleasant Hill cemetery.
 "Uncle" Robert Callison, as he was familiarly known, was born in Adair county, Ky., June 5, 1818. His parents died while he was quite young and in company with his uncle and family drove overland with an ox team to Illinois in 1833. He was married on December 5, 1839, to Miss Polly Heston, who survives him.
 They located on a farm in McDonough county, Ill., and resided there nine years. In 1848 they joined a party coming to the Pacific coast, driving an ox team the entire distance. They came directly to Lane county, settling at Pleasant Hill, taking up a donation claim. Several years later they bought a splendid farm of 640 acres, comprising the W. W. Bristow donation claim, and made extensive improvements, all of which have increased in value from year to year, and which now forms one of the most modern and productive properties in Lane county. As early settlers on their farm, Mr. and Mrs. Callison had but two neighbors.

Several years ago they deeded their large farm to their only son, Josiah T., and their daughter, Lucretia, widow of W. H. Baughman, their respective portions. They had since been living on 125 acres which they reserved for their home.
 Mr. Callison was a member of the Christian church. He and his wife and her father were the chief promoters of the Christian church at Pleasant Hill, and they were two of the three charter members of the church. A Republican in politics, Mr. Callison cast his first vote for William Henry Harrison. Broad minded, generous, practical and well abreast of the times, Mr. Callison commanded the best thought of his neighbors and friends, his life work placing him among the foremost of the noble band whose courage and nobility have accomplished the redemption of Oregon.

Besides his wife and two children, Mr. Callison leaves a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren and numerous other relatives. His friends were legion.

Greenleaf Items

Greenleaf, Jan. 17.—Stormy weather and bad roads. The stage does not run below Blachley postoffice now, but mail is carried to Deadwood on horseback.

J. A. Burnett is visiting at Deadwood. He may not return to California until March.

Andy Almasi is home again. Work on the telephone line is delayed on account of rain.

Frank Parker was called to Junction City last Saturday on account of the illness of his mother, Mrs. White, who is not expected to live.

TWO WANDERING OREGONIANS

Los Angeles, Jan. 14, 1906.

Editor Guard:—Having arrived in Los Angeles I thought it would be a good plan to tell you that Oregon is not the only place it rains, for we are having a real old Oregon drizzle here now. Guess we brought it along with us, for I never blew into a burg in my life that it failed to make me feel at home in that respect. We have been here several days and there were a few delightfully balmy days, just like summer; but some hoodoo seems to be on my track; can't get away from these "Oregon mists" after coming down here for that purpose.

This place is the winter rendezvous for hobos, and after the disagreeable winter is over and the birds return to their haunts along the mill race, there may be a couple of "Wandering Oregonians" blow into the burg on one of those occasional migratory wanderings.

We feel so contented, since this familiar pattering soothes the nerves and the obnoxious skies relieve the optical strain.

The weather had been very dry for quite a spell, prior to our arrival, but now they have a superabundance of moisture and the streets are worse looking than in Eugene.

We are "tenderfeet" here and have been expecting all the time to be arrested for ignorance, but if they only knew that we brought this much needed rain along with us I am sure they would give us a good job picking oranges.

'Tis such a large place that they don't know we are here yet, though. Very respectfully,
 TWO WANDERING OREGONIANS.

ADMINISTRATRIX APPOINTED
