NEWS FOR PORTLAND AND OREGON

Portland, March 21.—The Swift Packing Company purchased today three tracts, making a total of 1700 acres on the Columbia river side of the Peninsula. They will spend $150,000 in building a ship canal a half mile long, connecting the packing house site at Maegly Junction with the Columbia river.

OFFICER AND STUDENT GAME TO BLOWS

Corvallis, Or., March 20.—The relief Lieutenant Dennis P. Quinlan, United States Army, as professor of military science and tactics at the Agricultural College, is the outgrowth of an incident in which he and Roy McCully, a cadet, came to blows in the commandant's office about January 5. Lieutenant Quinlan has always maintained that the student assaulted him without provocation, while the latter alleged that the attack was provoked by insulting language. Accounts as to the facts do not agree, and the question of who is deserving of all the blame has been a mooted one.

MINERS AND OPERATORS WORKING ON SCALE

Indianapolis, March 21.—The miners and operators' joint scale committee is in session behind closed doors.

Vice President Lewis' influence in the joint committee may result in his becoming a leader equal in strength to Mitchell, and may rival Mitchell in the future. The personal policies of the men are inimical. What Lewis will do with the scale committee is unknown. Speculative observers say that Mitchell's conferences with Robbins, which resulted in the latter's downfall from the leadership of the operators, is also likely to result eventually in Mitchell's fall.

STANDARD OIL INVESTIGATION

St. Louis, March 21.—Pierre was too ill to testify in the Standard Oil inquiry this morning. The hearing was adjourned to April 5 to permit Hadley to go to New York to resume the taking of depositions there. Andrew M. Findley, vice president and general manager of the Waters-Pierce Company, was on the stand this morning and proved so stubborn that Judge Anthony threatened punishment. When asked why a list of employees was sent to the office of the Standard the witness on being pressed said he didn't know.

Married

Albert W. Schwering, of Creswell, and Miss Lillian Hager, of Eugene, were married this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Christian church, Rev. J. S. McCullum officiating. They will reside on a farm at Creswell.

IMMENSE REAL ESTATE DEAL MADE

Thirty Thousand Acres Between Philomath and Yaquina Bay Sold

Junction City Real Estate Agents Make the Deal—Eastern Syndicate Purchases the Land For $80,000

Junction City, Or., March 20.—One of the largest real estate deals ever consummated in the Willamette valley was closed here yesterday, when W. D. Mixtur & Co., real estate dealers, sold 30,000 acres to an Eastern syndicate for $80,000. The land is the Military Wagon Road grant, between Philomath and Yaquina City.

The representatives of the syndicate, who closed up all details, were J. M. Tallman, of Cedar Rapids, and S. E. Wightman, of Watertown, S. D. The purchasers expect to sell off the land in small parcels to Eastern settlers. The heavily timbered sections will be held for investment.

Mr. Tallman left Portland for the East yesterday. It is learned he is backed by representative business men of Cedar Rapids. The officials of the Harriman railroad system have been made acquainted with the proposition and, it is understood, the newcomers will be routed over the Union Pacific system from Omaha. The land lies along the line of the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad, part of it skirting Yaquina Bay. Portions are heavily timbered and not thickly settled. Talk has been rife for some time that the Corvallis & Eastern would be extended from its present terminus across the bay to follow the shore to Yaquina. It is thought the big land deal with its promise of adding hundreds of settlers to Lincoln and Benton counties, will cause this extension to be made shortly. Toledo, near the head of of the bay, is the largest settlement in the vicinity, and much benefit is anticipated by the citizens there, while all the business will be directly tributary to Corvallis and Albany.

CONTRACT LET FOR NEW RAILROAD

O. R. & N. Co. Will Build Into the Willowa Country at Once

Cost of New Line Approximately $1,900,000—Will Tap One of the Richest Sections of Oregon

Portland, March 21.—The O. R. & N. today let the contract for the construction of a railroad from the mouth of the Walla Walla river to Joseph, a distance of 47 miles, to Erickson & Peterson, who are building the Riparia-Lewiston line. The cost approximately will be $1,900,000, and work will begin immediately. The line will be completed this year, tapping one of the richest sections of Oregon.

NEWS FROM NATIONAL CAPITAL

Washington, March 21.—The senate considered the rate bill from the start today. Culberson introduced an amendment prohibiting any concern engaged in interstate or foreign commerce from contributing to political parties, as the penalties are fixed.

Senator Bailey attacked Dolliver, charging him with violation of confidence.

The senate public lands committee today reported favorably Fulton's bill granting the lands on Morton Island to Oregon for a fish hatchery. The committee will hold a special meeting Saturday to discuss the timber and stone repeal bill. Expected to be reported soon.

DEER DRIVEN TO THE PLAINS

Bend, Or., March 17.—The recent heavy storms have driven the deer down onto the desert for food, and droves of 15 to 20 have been seen by different range riders at one time. This is a great temptation for hunters, and some have disregarded the law so far as to shoot deer at the very edge of town. A band of Indians, camped within six miles of Bend, is accused of creating much havoc among the deer, and many vigorous complaints have been made. White men think the law should be enforced with the Indians as well as the settlers.

ROCKEFELLER'S OLD STOMACH TROUBLE

New York, March 21.—John D. Rockefeller's old stomach trouble is causing great uneasiness. His diet is confined to very thin slices of unbuttered toast, softened in warm milk, with weak tea as the only beverage, being compelled to rely upon tonics. Physicians attribute Rockefeller's exaggerated desire of seclusion and self-immurement to nervous digestive disorders.

SENATOR BAILEY'S FATHER IS DEAD

New York, March 21.—N. W. K. Bailey, father of Senator Bailey, of Texas, died during an operation. He was a native of New York and a resident of Mississippi.

REPRESENTATIVE PATTERSON DEAD

BISHOP'S DAUGHTER CAUGHT IN OPIUM DEN

Spokane, March 20.—Mrs. Amelia Krebs, aged 20 years, a daughter of Bishop Taylor, of the diocese of the Omaha People's United church, was arrested last night by the police, who raided a hop joint kept by a Chinaman. Another woman and a Chinaman were the only other inmates.

The police battered down the door and found a complete opium smoking outfit. All were arrested. Mrs. Krebs was here four years ago and was arrested for being intoxicated and sent to the reform school.

MOODY ON

Chicago, March 21.—Deputy Attorney General William C. Moody said: "In the light of the evidence I don't see how the court can be any wiser than to dismiss the immunity pleas and order the packers to trial." Attorney Miller, for the packers, answered Moody today.

SPECIAL MEETING OF SUPREME COURT

Secret Session Held at the Residence of Chief Justice

Such an Incident Is Almost Without Precedent and Only Matter of Greatest Importance Would Cause Such a Course

Washington, March 21.—A special meeting of the supreme court of the United States was held this morning at the home of the chief justice. The utmost secrecy was observed. It is presumed the session was in connection with the lynching of Ed Johnson, a negro, at Chattanooga. Such a session is almost unprecedented. Only a matter of the gravest importance could have called the members together.
