Cold Price Facts

We stick to price facts in Wash Goods because they are cold figures--hard facts that cannot be avoided. The richest things in Wash Goods we have, as well as the ordinary, at stubborn, common-sense prices that mean a saving of money.

We have the prettiest things in Wash Goods, minus the usual pretty price--that is little and plain. Style is money's worth, usually, as much as the cloth. We make no charge for style, we charge only for the cloth--and little for that.

Cleaning Them Out

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Will be one of the greatest Wash Goods Sales ever recorded. Prices cut in two--this means goods at half price. Our Wash Goods department is running over with real bargains just when the hot weather makes them indispensable.

We slash a slice off the price and put the finest at your service at the usual cost of common kinds.

We want to clear this department of Summer Goods and will pay you to take them away.

Building up a Shirt Business cannot be done on cheap shirts. We are just as anxious to get the price low as you are to have it, and when we ask a fair price for a perfect shirt that is cut to fit a man and is made of fine imported madras and pongee, such as swell haberdashers use for shirts at twice the price, we are building up Shirt Business.

HAMPTON BROS.

NOT GUILTY PLEA IN THAW CASE ADHERED TO

New York, July 3.--Attorney O'Shea decided this morning not to arraign Thaw, to make no motions and not to withdraw his plea of not guilty. This move was decided on at the eleventh hour to hide from the prosecution his contemplated plans. The counsel made a strong plea for an early trial, as Thaw, he declared, was suffering from the confinement in the Tombs. Thaw, said his counsel, if forced to remain in the Tombs three months would die. District Attorney Jerome reiterated the statement that Thaw must take his turn with the other prisoners. The defense is still making every effort to find proof that White endeavored to force his attentions upon Mrs. Thaw, but so far no legal proof has been found.

MOTHER DOES NOT KNOW

London, July 3.--The steamer Minneapolis, in which Harry Kendall Thaw's mother, Mrs. Mary Thaw, was a passenger, arrived at Titbury dock this morning. The mother had not heard of her son's difficulty. Captain Gates was informed of it by wireless telegraph before landing, but was asked not to inform Mrs. Thaw, and the Earl of Yarmouth, her son-in-law, made a special request of the reporters not to tell Mrs. Thaw, who looked ill. Her daughter will probably break the news to her.

UMATILLA FARMERS

WANT CHEAPER BAGS

Pendleton, O., July 3.--At a meeting in this city Saturday afternoon the Inland Empire Wheatgrowers' Association adopted a resolution calling on the next legislature to use every possible means to secure a jute mill for the state of Oregon for the manufacture of grain and wool bags, and also asked the legislature to memorialize congress to remove the tariff from jute and manufactured products of jute. Following is the substance of the resolution which was adopted late in the afternoon:

"Resolved, That this association urge the members of the legislature to use every proper means to secure a jute mill for the state of Oregon at the session of 1907, for the manufacture of grain bags and other products of jute. Also, that the legislature be requested to memorialize congress to remove the duty from raw jute and manufactured products."

About 50 farmers were present at the meeting. A number of new members were secured and the subject of grain sacks was thoroughly discussed.

ARTESIAN WATER

FOUND AT MEDFORD

Medford, Or., July 3.--The artesian well which Mart Pellett has been drilling several miles south of Medford is now down nearly 700 feet and during the last few days the flow of water has been increasing rapidly until now it is 25,000 gallons per day, already sufficient to irrigate all of Pellett's orchard.

He will drill 800 feet. The water is free from alkali and of excellent quality. The elevation of land being nearly 1,800 feet, Medford can doubtless get artesian water at less than 500 feet. Much interest is taken here in the experiment.

PEASANTS DEMAND

ALL CROWN LANDS

St. Petersburg, July 3.--The peasants' demands for lands was discussed in the douma today. The peasants demand that the government grant them all the crown lands and all lands belonging to the nobility, the total being worth $2,500,000,000, declaring that they belong to the people.

MORE ASSASSINATIONS

Warsaw, July 3.--The terrorists assassinated two more police sergeants this morning. Both were killed in the streets and their assassins escaped.

THIRTY MILLIONS NEW CANAL BONDS WILL BE ISSUED

Washington, July 2.--Secretary of the treasury Shaw today issued a circular asking for bids on $30,000,000 of canal bonds. Bids are to be received up to July 20 and the bonds will bear the date of August first and bear interest at the rate of two per cent. They will be issued in denominations of $20, $100 and $1000 for both the coupon and registered series. This makes it a popular loan, redeemable in gold at the pleasure of the government after ten years from date of issue. They are free from tax and available to national banks as security for circulation on the same terms as the existing two per cent consols, and as security for deposits in national banks.

COMMISSION REAPPOINTED

On account of the failure of the senate to confirm the appointment of the canal commission, the president has appointed a new commission as follows: President, Shonts, of Chicago; Jno. S. Stevens, Chas. S. Magoon, Peter C. Haines, of the army, retired; Mordecai Endicott, of the navy, retired; Benjamin Harrod of the army.

PRESIDENT'S ADVICE

The president in telling a delegation of Michigan congressmen that he would not "swing around the circle" next year, said:

"I will go only to Lansing, Mich., where I want to tell the young men of the State Agricultural College to stick to the soil, to agriculture, and remain away from the cities. Too many young men are flocking to the cities."

GARFIELD NOT CONCERNED IN TRUST BUSTING

Cleveland, July 3.--Garfield says he has nothing officially to do with the investigation of the Standard Oil trust by the various grand juries. He has conferred only incidentally with District Attorney Sullivan who here and said that the trust and Standard Oil trust reports will be sent to the grand jury for the grand jury, but that in no way will be completed.

The government's right to investigate has been clearly established by the courts, and the corporations are now furnishing information upon demand.

The actions against the railroads and Standard Oil here will be followed by actions at Chicago, Kansas City and Buffalo.

WEYERHAUSER

IS A REFORMER

Klamath Lake Railroad Company, operating 30 miles of road from Thrall, Cal., to Pokegama, Or., and owned by the Weyerhaeuser Lumber Company, has given notice to the public here that on and after Sunday, July 15, no trains will be operated on that road on Sundays.

This action of the railroad company will inconvenience the traveling public and delay the incoming and outgoing mails from this point 24 hours. Weyerhaeuser, the lumber king, visited Pokegama last Sunday and ordered the change, saying that no employe of his should work on Sunday.

Mr. Weyerhaeuser was surprised to find that there were no public schools at Pokegama and Thrall and issued orders to have a good schoolhouse built at both these places at his expense.

A CATTLE BUYER

DROWNED AT KLAMATH

Klamath Falls, Or., July 3.--Charles Edward McClure, a cattle buyer, aged 21, living in Poe valley, left for the Charles Horton ranch June 24 to cross Lost river to his home.

As he was not seen anywhere for a week a searching party started out and found his horse's tracks leading to the river 40 feet below the ford. His body was found 200 feet below the horse, with bridle and saddle on, was found in a pasture near by.

EX-POSTMASTER

IS SENTENCED

Portland, July 3.--W. A. Frater, former postmaster of Roseburg, was today sentenced by Judge Wolgamott to pay a fine of $432.50, without costs the amount of the embezzlement, which was paid. The court stated that he regretted the necessity of sentencing an aged man and ex-soldier.

JEROME PROBES

VILE DEPTHS OF LATE TRAGEDY

New York, June 2.--District Attorney Jerome is vigorously prosecuting his search through the vile depths uncovered by the Thaw-White tragedy. Assistant District Attorney Garcia this morning examined E. P. Heroboff and a number of other persons who were in contact with the Thaw family at the time of the shooting. Heroboff thinks he can verify charges of immorality against White.

May McKenzie denies that Mrs. Thaw expects a child. Mrs. Thaw visited her husband this morning. She was searched and greeted the warden brightly, saying she was in much better health than at any time since the tragedy.

HEAT CAUSED MADS

ANDERSON'S DEATH

Junction City, Or., July 3.--Mads Anderson died at his farm near town Saturday. His death was caused by the breaking of a blood vessel in his head, caused by overheating himself while moving hay back in the barn. He was born in Denmark February 21, 1837, coming to America in 1884, and settled in Looking Glass, Nebraska, and moving to this place in 1903. His wife having died several years ago he was living with his son at the time of his death.
