

CORONER'S JURY RENDERS VERDICT IN THAW CASE

New York, June 28.—Harry Kendall Thaw arose this morning at 10 o'clock. He slept soundly all night and after a sponge bath, light breakfast and a cigar was in fit condition to withstand the ordeals of the coming day.

The coroner's jury which considered the tragedy retired shortly after 10 o'clock to deliberate upon their verdict. They found that White died as the result of cerebral hemorrhage caused by a pistol shot wound in the skull inflicted by Harry Thaw.

The prisoner appeared before the coroner calm, occasionally smiling as he conversed with his lawyer. He wore a handkerchief in place of a collar, his supply of linen being exhausted, and his hair was a trifle rumpled. The only evidence he gave of any agitation was a nervous shifting of the eyes.

Nicholas Stokes, a wealthy coal dealer, was foreman of the coroner's jury.

Lionel Lawrence, manager of the show at Madison Square roof garden, was the most important witness. He testified that immediately after the shooting of Thaw turned to the crowd and remarked:

"That man ruined my wife, and I freed him for it."

Other witnesses told of scenes immediately following the shooting.

Witness Paxton said that Thaw was exceedingly white, but calm and apparently rational. Other witnesses told of the excited condition of Thaw and how his eyes bulged.

Judge Olcott, Thaw's counsel, illuminated the nature of the defense by asking the witnesses if they noticed Thaw's eyes and complexion.

The jury took three minutes to reach a verdict. The coroner called Thaw to his desk and announced:

"In conformity with the jury's verdict I hold you to the grand jury."

Thaw walked out without a word. Evelyn Thaw was not present. She wanted to attend and sit beside her husband, but the attorneys advised her not to do so.

INDICTED FOR MURDER.

The grand jury this afternoon filed with Judge Cowan, of the court of general sessions, an indictment charging Thaw with murder in the first degree for killing White. The indictment was purely formal and contains but one count. The witnesses at the coroner's inquest were named at witnesses against Thaw, who will be arraigned tomorrow to plead to the indictment.

Mrs. Thaw was before the grand jury fifteen minutes, but refused to answer questions and was excused. All the witnesses before the coroner will be examined, but six were examined today.

Evelyn went to the Tombs and saw her husband for half an hour and left him smiling.

The examination of White's body by the coroner's physician shows that the lungs and kidneys were in such a bad condition that he could not have lived more than a year longer.

THAW'S DEFENSE WORKED WELL IN RECENT CASE

New York, June 29.—Harry Kendall Thaw's defense of emotional insanity was a precedent in the recent acquittal of Josephine Terranova, who was freed upon her relation of the abuses which were inflicted by an uncle and aunt, which she avenged by slaying both. The defendant's friends believe in this case the jury cannot fail to follow their natural trend of sympathy which will result in his freedom.

Evelyn Thaw has decided to tell the whole story and lay bare her life before marriage in a desperate effort to save her husband. The defense will also show that Thaw knew all his wife's affairs and attempt to prove that they were enough to overthrow the reason of any man who brooded upon them.

Thaw was arraigned today and pleaded not guilty to the indictment for the murder of White. His attorney, former Judge Olcott, formally requested permission to withdraw the plea by next Tuesday in order that any motions might be made or a different plea entered. This was granted and the prisoner remanded to the Tombs. Thaw is in better physical condition this morning than at any time since his incarceration. His wife did not appear in court. The prisoner rested well last night and awoke in fine spirits.

NO OATH OF VENGEANCE.

New York, June 29.—Lawrence, the brother-in-law of Stanford White, Center making the reported vow of vengeance. He says he did not see the representative of the paper saying that he did.

HARVARD WINS ANNUAL BOAT RACE

New London, June 29.—Harvard's varsity crew of eight triumphed over Yale yesterday afternoon before the greatest crowd ever gathered here on a race day. Coming after years of defeat the victory was particularly sweet to the Crimson. The race will live long in the annals of college sports. Not only from the start, but until the last sixteenth of a mile did the shells lap each other. Harvard really got the lead when the killing pace proved too much for the Yale men. In the final spurt Boulton and Noyes were done, their oars literally slipping away from them. Here Harvard began to open up clear water and in the last ten or fifteen strokes she pulled away. Harvard won by less than two lengths and a half. Time—23:02; Yale, 23:11.

CHILD BORN ON A SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN

Woodburn, June 28.—As the north-bound overland arrived at Grants Pass Tuesday evening a passenger, Mrs. Frank Blaska, gave birth on the train to a boy. Dr. Jones, also a passenger, was the physician in attendance. The passengers on the train took a deep interest in the mother and young traveler, and when the train arrived at Woodburn yesterday most of them sought to see that mother and baby were taken off safely. After deliberation it was decided among the passengers that the baby be named "Grant," in honor of Grants Pass.

HARRY THAW'S REST BROKEN IN TOMBS CELL

New York, June 29.—Harry Kendall Thaw was restless last night on account of the heat and was awake early this morning, being one of the first prisoners up. He read the morning papers, following his usual routine.

It is stated this morning among the intimates of White that the district attorney has summoned prominent business men, financiers and publishers to testify as to White's character.

Mrs. Thaw visited her husband in prison today. The streets were deserted and her presence created no particular interest.

The announcement that the July grand jury is to consider the case is responsible for the rumor that the prosecution has unearthed evidence likely to lead to the indictment of at least one other person as accessory before the fact. It is hinted also that a criminal conspiracy charge is likely to be brought against a number of persons of stronger minds than Thaw is generally supposed to possess.

GAUTAMALA IS ATTACKED FROM ALL SIDES

San Francisco, June 29.—War is to be declared by Salvador against Guatemala, according to a statement of passengers arriving on the steamer City of Panama from Central America, acting upon instructions from ex-President Regalado. Salvadoran troops have left to aid Guatemalan insurgents. At the time of the departure of the Panama General Barillas was entering Guatemala from the Mexican border, with General Toledo and another regiment of insurgents preparing to advance from Salvador.

OREGON MEN PAID TO ENTER LAND

Oskosh, Wis., June 30.—H. J. Cole, Jefferson Howard and Culter Holman, all of Oregon, today testified that they and their wives each got $200 to enter government timber lands with the intention of selling to the Oskosh Land & Timber Company.

Summer Parker, of Oregon, also indicted, was brought here this afternoon. It is said he will turn state's evidence.

SOCIETY EVENTS

The past week has been an extremely busy one in society circles. The thirtieth annual commencement of the graduating class at the university has given occasion for many little parties, teas and receptions, and in many cases family reunions have occurred on the return of former graduates who are still loyal to their college. The exercises at Villard hall were in themselves a great social feature, for it brought to our city many noted guests. In connection with the commencement just passed, probably that part of the exercises which will be remembered longest will be the musical program, which, under the able direction of Professor I. M. Glen, rendered such numbers as have seldom been equalled at the university. The alumni banquet on Wednesday afternoon united the various classes and was a very successful affair. Then the alumni ball in the evening brought the college year to a close. The act of the business men in decorating their windows was appreciated by those intimately connected with the university and the pride which was taken showed that the city is coming into closer and closer touch with the university.

One of the most pleasant social affairs of the commencement week was the senior breakfast given by the members of the Beta Epsilon sorority on Wednesday morning to their senior members. The place of the occasion was at the chapter house, 322 East Eleventh street, and the time was eight o'clock. The dining room was tastefully arranged in the sorority colors, red and white, and on the table a large centerpiece of the swastika, the good luck pin, formed of red sweet peas. The members of the sorority found their places at the large table by the aid of tiny place cards done in water color, adorned with the sorority pin and the class numerals. At the head of the table sat Mrs. R. H. Dearborn, the honorary alumni member, and opposite her sat Miss Ella Dobie. The other senior members present at this enjoyable little affair were the Misses Mary Warfield, Camille Carroll, Norma Hendricks, Alice Bretherton. Toward the close of the breakfast each Beta member of the class was presented with an engraved souvenir tea spoon as a present from the sorority's under class members.

The reception given by Mayor and Mrs. F. M. Wilkins on Thursday evening at their elegant home on West Ninth and Charnelton streets was one of the social events of the summer season. The affair was given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. John Nelson Goltra, of Saint Ste Marie, Mich., who are visiting at the Wilkins home. Mr. Goltra is a brother of Mrs. Wilkins. As the guests entered the door they were met by Mrs. Herbert T. Condon. In the reception rooms Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins greeted their guests and introduced them to Dr. and Mrs. Goltra. During the evening light punch was served in the dining room by Miss Lucia Wilkins. The home presented a very pretty appearance, the porch being gaily decorated in lanterns and flowers, the west reception room in white and green, the east room in pink flowers and the dining room in red and green. The hours for the reception were from eight to eleven and during this time a large number of invited guests came to pay their respects to the hostess and the honored guests.

The "At Home" given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Frederic S. Dunn at their pleasant home, corner Fourteenth and Alder streets, for the purpose of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Matthews, of Newton, Mass., was very largely attended by Eugene's best society. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Dunn was decorated for the occasion in very elaborate detail, the porch being decorated with lanterns and flowers, while the rooms were supplied with cut flowers. At the door the guests were welcomed by Miss Mary Rothrock, and in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Matthews. The dining room was presided over by Mrs. I. M. Glenn and Mrs. O. P. Stafford, assisted by the Misses Winnie Cockedline, Maude Miller, Lila Prosser and Mary Critser. On the porch during the evening fruit punch was served by Miss Cora Shaver, of Portland, and Miss Margaret Stewart.

At the home of G. W. Lill on Oak street Thursday evening their daughter, Miss Marie, celebrated her thirtieth birthday. Miss Gladys Hampton welcomed the guests at the door and Miss Lucille Dunn and Miss Margaret Heltich served them with dainty refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, pickles, cake, sherbet, candy and punch. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and social evidences.

Miss Marie received a number of pretty and useful presents. At 10 o'clock the guests departed for their homes, wishing the young hostess many happy returns. Those present were: Margaret and Mildred Heltich, Lucile Dunn, Gladys Roland, Winde Mahon, Georgie Kinsey, Elizabeth Hales, Bertha and Virgil Wood, Flora Patterson, Meta Goldsmith, Gladys Hampton, Marjory and Milla Williams, Grace Farrington, Emma Zimmerman, Lucille Branatetter, Orilla and Esie J. Zimmer, Katherine Watson, Phik Mauer, Mary Chambers, Lyndal Marquam, Mabel Manrude, Ada Yoran, Lucille Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Lill, Mrs. Goodpasture, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Morse, Miss Nellie Hampton and Miss Mabel Williams.

The alumni dance on Wednesday evening, given in the armory, brought to a close one of the most successful commencements of the state university. At nine o'clock the grand march was formed, and to the sweet strains of a seven-piece orchestra the sixty couples in attendance joined in for the few simple figures.

On Thursday afternoon the children of Mrs. I. L. Campbell and Mrs. E. B. Ingham gave a farewell party in honor of Robert McMurphey, his brother and sisters. Part of the afternoon was spent on the lawn at the Ingham home on North Pearl street and later the guests went to Mrs. Campbell's home, where a dainty luncheon was served. In all there were about sixty-five guests present. Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Ingham were assisted by Mrs. Robert McMurphey, Misses Emma and Nettie Chase and Miss Veda Quackenbush.

The Eugene Golf Club met last evening at the home of Mrs. Pack. The meeting was called to order by President Griffin. After the business was transacted the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: W. M. Renshaw, president; Mrs. C. H. Park, vice president; W. C. Jackson, secretary; E. L. Chambers, treasurer. Grounds committee, C. Hardy, W. H. Thompson and W. Kincaid. The club decided to reduce the annual dues from $2.50 to $2 a year.

The evening program of dances consisted of eighteen numbers and the last one was finished shortly after midnight. During the evening orange punch was served in the hall. The patronesses for the occasion were the Mesdames Irving M. Glen, '95; Herbert T. Condon, '96; Lawrence T. Harris, '96, and Professor Luella Clay Carson.

The lawn social given on last Saturday evening by the ladies of the Congregational church was a success in every particular. The McMurphey lawn, where the social was held, presented a pretty appearance with the many lanterns that were strung over the yard and among the trees. During the evening ice cream and cake was served, also light fruit punch. On one west lawn a fortune teller held forth and gave some wise statements in foretelling the future of those who patronized her. Throughout the evening music was an additional feature which was enjoyed.

Miss Juanita Miller, who has been visiting friends in the city and surrounding country for the past few weeks, left for her home in Lebanon on Wednesday. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Allen, who will visit in Lebanon for a short time.

SOCIETY AT COTTAGE GROVE.

One of the prominent social events of the June season in Cottage Grove was the wedding of two of the highly esteemed and popular young people of that city last Sunday evening, June 24, 1906, at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Jones. It was on this occasion Rev. S. E. Meninger, pastor of the M. E. church, pronounced the solemn words that united in the holy bonds of wedlock Chas. S. Cochran and Miss Lizzie E. Orpurd. The parlor decorations were exquisite, ivy, ferns and roses predominating. The bride looked charming in a beautiful wedding gown of India silk, trimmed in Oriental lace and accented with pearls. Her maid, Miss Gertrude Palmir, was attired in white silk organdy, while the groom and his best man, M. H. Anderson, wore black. Little Marie Jones and Nettie Compton served as flower girls and marched to the pretty altar in advance of the bridal party straggling rows along the way. The wedding march was very charmingly executed by Miss Neva Perkins and the beautiful ring service was impressive. A large number of guests were present and after hearty congratulations were extended light refreshments were served.

Miss Marie Curria, of Cottage Grove, and Mr. L. Gray, of Salem, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Curria, Wednesday evening, June 27, Rev. S. E. Meninger officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Gille left for a two weeks' outing at Newport Thursday morning. They expect to make their home in Roseburg.

A very quiet wedding Wednesday evening, June 27, was that of Elizabeth Hutchinson, of Cottage Grove, and Dr. J. O. VanWinkle, of Wendling, celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. L. N. Van Winkle of the Halsey M. E. church, father of the groom, officiating. The guests present were only those of the immediate families of the contracting parties. # TILLMAN ON PITCHFORK AND BIG STICK

Washington, June 29.—Tillman called up the conference report on the rate bill and said he had refused to sign it because the conferees failed to include oil pipe lines in the divorcement proceedings regarding transportation companies. He said influences behind this action are sinister, although he would vote for the report because he could not get a separate vote on the pipe lines. He said:

"For a time the big stick and pitchfork were aligned together, but when the pitchfork got to the firing line it saw the big stick's coat tails bustling toward the rear. The president was sliding on all fours to get between Father Allison's legs."

The conference report on the rate bill was then passed by the senate.

The rate bill now requires only the president's signature. The senate immediately adopted a joint resolution making the law effective sixty days after being signed.
