SENATOR DICK ENDORSED AFTER LIVELY CONTEST

Ohio Republicans Badly Torn by Factional Fights—Many Delegates Oppose State Machine Led By Senators Dick and Foraker in State Convention

Dayton, O., Sept. 12.—There was much excitement during the second day of the Republican state convention. Senator Dick's antagonists were not satisfied with his selection again as state chairman and introduced a motion that the convention request him to resign. An uproar ensued and Senator Foraker rushed to the platform to defend his colleague.

Upon putting the motion Dick was supported by a vote of 573 to 285, but his opponents refused to make it unanimous.

A platform was adopted containing a "dogfall" plank on the revision of the tariff.

Because Foraker requested that the matter be not mentioned no resolution endorsing him for president was offered.

He is closely watched to prevent further attempts at self destruction.

The prisoner was weeping when taken aboard the steamer and says the whole thing is a plot against him; that the truth will soon be known and people will see he is not to blame.

UNCLE SAM PREPARES FOR CUBAN TROUBLES

Washington, Sept. 12.—There is much activity in the state, navy and war departments on account of the Cuban situation. Major E. E. Ladd, a trusted officer in the military secretary's office, has started for Havana on a "month's leave of absence to attend to private interests."

It is thought the government means to have an army officer present in case of trouble.

The cruiser Denver, it is announced today, has been ordered to Havana. She should arrive there today or tomorrow, and the gunboat Marietta, now at Santo Domingo, has been ordered to Cienfuegos. These orders were issued by the president from Oyster Bay. The Des Moines will await orders at Key West.

The Denver left New London, Conn., on September 8th under orders to stop at Norfolk. Two days later orders by wireless telegraph were given her to go to Havana at full speed, which she proceeded to do without stopping on this coast.

ADVERTISING BRINGS PEOPLE TO FAR WEST

Interesting Address of R. C. Rorabacker of Spokane, Publicity Committee, Before Convention at Salem—Facts and Figures That Tell the Story

Salem, Or., Sept. 12.—The State Development League opened its three-day session at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. In spite of the drawing power of the races there was a good attendance of delegates when Secretary Tom Richardson rapped to order, and President Theo. M. Wilcox, of Portland, delivered the opening address. Frank N. Derby gave a hearty and cordial welcome to the Capital City, as president of the Salem Commercial Club, and the committee of one hundred Salemites on reception and entertainment were in evidence everywhere.

Judge Lowell, of Pendleton, made the principal address of the session, and his telling points were heartily applauded.

At today's session a feature was the address of R. C. Rorabacker, of the Spokane, Wash., Chamber of Commerce publicity committee. His subject was "Some Real Results From Immigration Advertising," and he said in part:

To the advertising man whose experience qualifies him to occupy a position as manager the fact that good advertising pays has long since become an axiom. It is his concern merely to see that he gets the best advertising possible—that he makes his dollars buy all they will pay for. He realizes that the great volume of results can never be traced, that what is visible indicates merely the tendency, and that the more general and less specific the campaign the
