

LARGE DEAL IN DOUGLAS COUNTY TIMBER LANDS

Far exceeding in magnitude any of the timber land transactions ever heretofore made in this county is the sale of two tracts, just consummated, whereby the Roach-Musser Lumber Co., of Muscatine, Iowa, acquires 30,000 acres of fine timber lying several miles east of Oakland, Oregon, and the Wm. Musser Lumber Co., of Spokane, Wash., procures about 12,000 acres on Rock creek, a well-known tributary of the North Umpqua river, about 25 miles east of this city, says the Roseburg Review. The tract east of Oakland is embraced in townships 23, 24 and 25 south, ranges 2 and 3 west, and the consideration paid therefor amounts to over $500,000. The other tract of about 12,000 acres is all tributary to Rock creek and the purchase price is $12.50 per acre, aggregating $150,000, or a total of over $650,000 for the two tracts. Of this total the sum of $300,000 has already been paid.

As may be inferred from the above, the two companies mentioned are allied institutions while operating separate plants at the places mentioned. The Mussers are also allied with the Weyerhaeuser Timber Co., and work in conjunction with them. They were represented here by R. M. Fox, vice president of the Roach-Musser Lumber Co., who for the past year has made his Pacific coast headquarters at Spokane.

The Calapooia tract of 30,000 acres as sold by Bradford & Finley, of Portland, and G. K. Wentworth, of Chicago, Mr. Wentworth holding a half interest, and the two first named gentlemen the other half. The Rock Creek tract was sold by the individual holders of the claims, the negotiations being conducted and brought to a successful termination by F. E. Alley, of this city. These two tracts, we understand, comprise practically all the desirable timber in their respective localities, and the purchasers are making no effort to add to their holdings.

The new owners expect to begin operations in manufacturing the timber on their holdings thus acquired, just as soon as practicable, and will take up the Rock creek interests first. They do not expect to attempt to float logs down the North Umpqua river, but will lay railroad tracks from the Southern Pacific lines to their holdings.

SPRINGFIELD NEWS OF THE PAST WEEK

The merry-go-round on the vacant lot at the rear of the Fleming building is doing a good business and is packed every night from 7 to 9 o'clock. The proprietor is of the opinion that Springfield is one of the best towns in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Chesire returned Saturday from an extended visit in Sumpter and Portland. Mr. Chesire informs the News that he will remain at Springfield and will engage in some line of business in the near future.

The houses are fast beginning to fill up by families who will make their home in Springfield during the winter months. There are now only five vacant houses in town.

SERVED INJUNCTION ON LUCKY BOY COMPANY

Geo. Fisher, special deputy sheriff, who was sent to the Blue River mines to serve the injunction upon the Lucky Boy Mining Co., restraining them from maintaining the obstruction in the road from Blue River City to the mines, returned to Eugene last night. Upon application of a large number of mine owners in the district, Judge Harris issued a temporary injunction, pending the decision of the suit in the circuit court for a permanent injunction.

Mr. Fisher to a Guard reporter this morning stated that the gate which has been maintained by the Lucky Boy people across the road at their property had been removed before he arrived there, news of the injunction order having preceded him to the mines. The matter will be finally settled at the regular term of circuit court next month.

October 8, 1906, aged 58 years, Mrs. Noah Buoy, of Creswell, Or.

Susan Mary Hughes was born at Eldorado Springs, Cedar county, Missouri, October 8, 1848. In 1853 she crossed the plains with her parents, settling at Creswell, where she had ever since resided with the exception of one year in California.

In the spring of 1863 she was married to Noah Buoy, of Creswell, who survives her. She leaves three sons to mourn her loss, John W. Buoy, of Eugene, and George L. and Burton H. Buoy, of Creswell.

In her early life she joined the Christian church, of which she remained a member until her death. The last three years of her life she was an invalid, but one who endured patiently and cheerfully the suffering she was called upon to undergo. In her long residence in one community she made many friends who will miss her kindly nature and generous heart. "She hath done what she could" was exemplified in her life.

Mrs. Laura Bean

Mapleton, Oct. 10.—Laura Elizabeth Coleman Bean was born at Lorne, Oregon, June 21, 1870, and died at her home at Mapleton, Oregon, October 8, 1906. Her illness was very brief, and her death came as a great shock to her many friends. She leaves a husband, two children, Horace, aged five, and Rupert, three; and three sisters, Mrs. Jessie Seales and Miss Belle Coleman, of Lorne, and Miss Rose B. Coleman, of Junction City. Miss Rose Coleman and Mrs. R. S. Bean and son, Ormond, came in from Eugene by private conveyance to attend the funeral, which was held October 10th at the Mapleton church, Rev. M. J. Ballantyne officiating.

Mrs. Bean received her education mainly in the public schools and State University in Eugene, completing her preparation for teaching at the Monmouth Normal School. She taught for ten years in the public schools of Lane county, until her marriage to Fred C. Bean, of Mapleton, June 28th, 1900, since when she has resided at Mapleton. For the past seven years she has been a member of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Salem, and those who know her best know her to have been possessed of a beautiful Christian character, manifested by a cheerful readiness to look always upon the bright side of all circumstances, and many deeds of kindness to those around her. Her loving presence and tender care will be sorely missed in the home which it was her pride to make a pleasant one.

Alberta, the little daughter of A. P. Knowles, is seriously ill of congestion of the lungs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nicolle were down from Indian creek Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. F. C. Bean.

Mr. French, who has been in the Siuslaw country looking after the interests of the Eugene Register, will leave tomorrow for Eugene.

STATE MAKING STRONG SHOWING AGAINST STANDARD

Findlay, O., Oct. 12.—The state is today trying to show the connection between the Standard Oil and subsidiary companies. The Ohio and Manhattan oil companies, Buckeye pipe line and Solar Refining Company are involved, the records of each being presented in an effort to show that one man controls all of them.

Deputy Oil Inspector Shafer, of this city, testified that the Standard has a distributing station upon the property bought from F. L. McManus, the state trying to show by Shafer's testimony that the relations of the Solar Refining Company with the Standard are too close to permit of competition, although the two are ostensibly competitors.

Court records showing transfers of land to the Standard were read in court as part of the evidence as to the existence of a trust.

This afternoon the state scored heavily against Standard by establishing the relations between the Solar Oil Purchasing Agency and the Standard, showing there is no competition in Findlay between the Standard and Solar refineries.

J. C. Saps, local purchasing agent in the office with the Buckeye pipe line, testified that he received information of credit balances over the private lines of the Buckeye Company, the state contending that this admission proves that the original trust agreement is still in force. Adjourned until Monday morning.

ENGLISH HOP CROP IS VERY LIGHT

The English hop crop, as was expected, proves to be almost a record-breaker—in point of smallness, says the Portland Oregonian.

The official figures of the British government, made public yesterday, show that for 24 years there has not been such an unsatisfactory output.

The following London cable was received by Klaber, Wolf & Netter, of Portland, yesterday morning: "Government's estimate of English crop is 245,688 cwt., or 6,612 cwt. less than 1904. This is the lowest estimate of English crop in 50 years, except in 1879 and 1882."

Joseph Harris, of Salem, representative of Benjamin Schwarz & Son, received the following London cable: "Official estimate of English crop is 246,000 cwt. Market is firm."
