CHANGE IN EUGENE BUSINESS FIRMS

H. Gordon Sells House Furnishing Business to E. L. Campbell and Jos. Fellman

New Firm Will Take Possession of Business on March First and Make Improvements Contemplated by Mr. Gordon - E. L. Campbell Sells Interest in the Guard Printing Company

H. Gordon, Eugene's largest house furnisher, has sold out his large furniture, carpet and house furnishing establishment, located at the corner of Eighth and Olive streets, in this city, to J. Fellman and E. L. Campbell.

While the transaction has just been closed, the new firm will not take possession of the business until the first of March.

H. Gordon started in the house-furnishing business in Eugene about seven years ago, and has built up one of the largest establishments of its kind in the state and is a thorough business man. Mr. Gordon has decided to move to Portland, where he will reside in the future. He recently purchased a fine business lot in Portland, but stated to a Guard representative that he is as yet undetermined as to what his future in the business world will be. Mr. Gordon will be missed in Eugene business circles, where he has played an important part of the upbuilding of the city.

The purchasers of the business are both well known in Lane county. Mr. Fellman is a business man of ability and holds large large timber and logging interests in western Lane county. Mr. Campbell is a member of the Guard Printing Company and has successfully managed the Guard's interests for the past four years. He has sold his interest in the Guard to other members of the firm, but will stay in his present capacity on the Guard till a successor for his place is found.

The new firm announces that it will follow Mr. Gordon's conservative policy, but will make several important improvements contemplated by him.

Lorane Items

Special Correspondence.
Lorane, Nov. 8.—Ben Crow returned from the hospital last week and it is reported that he is getting along as well as can be expected.

Captain O'Brien has gone to Eugene with parties from the lower Siuslaw, who will make final proof on their homesteads.

Mr. Fenwick, a young man, who left here some twenty-five years ago, has returned from Burns, where he has since resided. He intends spending the winter here and seems delighted to revisit old scenes and meet the friends of youth.

An attentive listener can not but detect the minor eld usually attending such renewals of friends, many spoken of as being here, hale and hearty have passed to the home beyond while the poet's words aptly fit when he says:

"Some few are still remaining,
To remind us of the past;
But they change, as all things change here,
Nothing in this world can last."
However, the remaining few heartily welcomed Mr. Fenwick to the family back and present residents greatly enjoy these reminiscences on other days. He came overland with a number of others, but the other parties have gone on to the coast.

Lowell, Nov. 7.—Charles Hill, Fred Hills and Victor Sharp were out of three days last week on the Grand Mountain and killed one large two gray wolves and four deer. They saw several more wolves, which they intend to kill more deer than the business as carcasses can be found in many places. Why not put a bounty on their scalps and give some encouragement to hunters to kill them?

The hunters are returning, some game is somewhat scarce.

NEWS NOTES FROM

JASPER VICINITY

Special Correspondence.
Jasper Nov. 7.—The dance, given last Friday night by Messrs. Delp & Sylvester, our newspaper keepers, was very largely attended, there being a great many in attendance from Springfield, Thurston, Pleasant Hill and Fall Creek. It was enjoyed by all. The music was furnished by the Walsh orchestra.

Our ex-merchant, W. B. Scott, is still in our midst. He is corresponding with several different parties, in view of finding a new location, but he says he expects to live here through this winter.

We do not see Mr. Edwards, the right-of-way man, in our locality any more. We suppose he is through here, as he has acquired all of the right-of-way except through the Dove Jacoby place. It seems they cannot come to terms.

E. C. Hills has purchased property in Eugene and moved there to live. He has rented his home to Artur Lindly for three years and Mr. Lindly has moved upon the same.

George Deane, our ex-blacksmith, is taking of moving to Colorado for his wife's health, as she is troubled considerably with rheumatism. We hope to hear of her complete recovery soon.

A telephone message was received here yesterday of the death of the six weeks old child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mitchell, of Pleasant Hill. It came very sudden and unexpected, as the child was seemingly well in the morning when Mr. Mitchell left for Row River, where he is engaged in logging and soon after he left it was attacked with croup and died soon after. Mrs. W. B. Scott has just returned from a two days visit with friends in Springfield.

Mrs. Katie Walsh and daughter Stella, took the train yesterday for Coburg, where they will spend a few days visiting Mrs. Walsh's daughter, Mrs. Owen Thompson.

Charles Eaton is working near Marcola at the S. P. sawmill and logging camp.

E. C. Hills, of Eugene, is in our burg transacting business today.

Word comes from the S. P. surveying camp near Hazel Dell that Hicks, the foreman of one of the surveying crews, has cut his foot quite badly.

Ab Mateny has just finished a log contract for B. K. L. Co. He will make his home at Jasper this winter. Saturday night the 17th is election night here for the W. O. W. officers. We would like to have a large attendance on that evening.
