Portland Market Report.

Portland, Or., March 7.—Jobbers were notified this morning of an advance of 30c in sugar, made by the Western refinery. The other California concern had not followed up to noon, but there is little doubt but what they will announce a change during the day.

It was said this morning by a prominent wholesaler that no orders were being booked by the C. & H., but the agent here denied the report. Coast sugar is still 40c under New York quotations, and those best informed say there is every prospect of another advance, as raws are going up in the East.

It would be interesting to have the facts as to the amount of stocks that have been secured by jobbers and retailers on the recent decline, for there are evidences of a large movement, though accurate statistics are unobtainable.

The following dispatch is interesting in view of the coast situation: San Juan, March 5.—The present sugar crop will prove a financial failure unless the price of sugar advances. Although the weather is good and the abundance of cane has enabled grinding to be carried on without interruption, the cost of production is excessive. The cost of labor is nearly double the average for recent years, Spanish silver is nearly at par and the railroad rates are very high. Planters complain that they are working exclusively for the benefit of the railroads, which are charging from 25 to 50 cents for hauling a sack of sugar, 325 pounds weight, to port. It is alleged that the principal railroad, which recently increased its stock 50 per cent., did so that it could get the high dividends that it is earning. These, it is said, are almost entirely due to the high freights on sugar.

No Change in Farm Products.
Egg receipts were not particularly heavy this morning and commission houses reported a fairly good outside inquiry. Quotations are unchanged, and if anything the market shows a trifle of improvement.

There continues to be a good demand for chickens and ducks. Turkeys and geese are out of season, and what few sales are effected are about confined to pairs for breeding purposes.

Fruits and Vegetables.
Two cars of oranges, the regular shipment of bananas, a car of mixed vegetables and a car of celery were unloaded this morning. Prices unchanged.

ELMIRA ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.)
Elmira, March 6.—H. H. Fisk and his sister Mamie spent Friday at Elmira.

Ted Lemley, of Springfield, was here buying sheep last week.

Frank Condon left for Mapleton Tuesday morning after spending a month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bradford.

Norman and Homer Mays spent Saturday and Sunday in Eugene.

J. C. Pettit, of Noti, spent Monday at Elmira.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Walters are spending a week in Portland.

The ladies of the C. W. B. M. auxiliary at Elmira will serve an oyster supper March 15th for the benefit of the church. Supper, 25 cents each. There will be speaking and music by the phonograph. Everybody cordially invited.

NOTICE.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Llewellyn Telephone Company will be held at the Central schoolhouse on March 30, 1907, at 1 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of electing five directors, and transacting other business.

OLA HALDERSON,

President.

Life Guards.

The Life Guards are two regiments of cavalry forming part of the British household troops. They are gallant soldiers, and every loyal British heart is proud of them. Not only the king's household, but ours, yours, everybody's, should have its life guards. The need of them is especially great when the greatest foes of life, diseases, find allies in the very elements, such as colds, influenza, catarrh, the grip, do in the stormy month of March. The best way we know of to guard against these diseases is to strengthen the system with Hood's Sarsaparilla, the greatest of all life guards. It removes the conditions in which these diseases make their most successful attack, gives vigor and tone to all the vital organs and functions, and imparts a genial warmth to the blood. Remember the weaker the system the greater the exposure to disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the system strong.

E. M. Streeter, of Creswell, was in the city Monday.

Wade Miller, of Cottage Grove, was a business caller at the Guard office Monday.

W. M. Bogart was in the city from Coburg last Friday.

Gum McPherson, of Springfield, was a caller at the Guard office Tuesday.

J. W. Cox, of Springfield, was a pleasant caller at the Guard office Monday.

JASPER ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.)

Jasper, March 6.—We have a new driver on the Fall Creek mail back in the person of "Dad" Eaton.

The new church that is being built at this place is progressing nicely. It has just received its first coat of joint, and the shingles are being put on.

The ferry boat at this place that was put out of commission by the high water, is again in operation, with Philip Sylvester at the helm. It is much better ferrying than it has been for some time.

E. C. Hills has just finished moving his dwelling house off the railroad right-of-way.

Mr. Price and Mr. Metzger, representing the Spaulding Logging Company, have been in this locality for about two weeks buying timber, principally white fir and balsam. It is reported that they made several deals.

One of our trappers has been very successful trapping—that is, if catching white rats count for anything—as he has caught several.

We wonder if the editor of the Daily Register ever changes his quotations on the price of eggs in the Portland market, as it has been quoted in his paper at 37 and 40 cents for the past six months.

A Miss James, of near Dexter, is working for Mrs. Daisy Eaton. Harvey Eaton left yesterday for Coburg, where he will work for the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company on the race at that place.

Mrs. K. Walsh and daughter, Stella, and son, John, will leave Thursday for Blachley, where they will have a visit of about three or four weeks with Mrs. Walsh's daughter, Mrs. Owen Thompson.

Tom Warner, of Fall Creek, was visiting a widow last Sunday on Mt. Glenn, and on the way home had a stroke of heart failure and came near not getting over it. Many a man has felt faint of heart after being to see his best girl, but we guess this was not a case of this kind with Uncle Tom.

Phone girls have many ills, for which they take some nasty pills; if a healthy and happy girl you'd be, Ring up for Rocky Mountain Tea. Linn's Drug Co.

A ROUSING WINDUP

Prices forced down still lower in order to unload by

Saturday, March 9th

And now for bigger and more sensational bargains than ever stared you in the face before.

Dire necessity of reducing our mammoth stock drives us to sacrifices of such sensational magnitude and brings to the people of Eugene and vicinity the never forgotten opportunity to buy clothing, furnishings, hats, shoes and many other other articles at a trifle.

You will simply marvel at the savings if you come.

Those alive to this opportunity will not stay away, but supply their present and future needs. The rousing wind-up sale means if you have already bought during the first great rush, you will be justified in coming for the second load, and come prepared, expecting the biggest money's worth you ever bought in your life.

We try to lay this matter before you as plainly as possible so the most skeptical ones will not be left behind. Buy your easter outfit here. Easter is only a few weeks distant.

The extent of price cutting is forcibly demonstrated in our mens' suit department.

LORANE ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.)

Lorane, March 6.—Mrs. L. E. Ward has returned, after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Eugene.

Mr. French, of Eugene, gave a lecture here last Thursday evening in the interests of the Sinslaw Development Company, and other representatives of the company are now at work in our valley.

S. H. McKernan has sold his place here and purchased property near Cottage Grove. He will soon move his family to their new home, where they anticipate a happy future and may they realize their anticipations is the wish of many old friends and neighbors. Some twenty years' residence here has doubtless endeared the place to them and we suspect that Sam's joy will be somewhat tinged with sadness when he locks the house for the last time on the old homestead.

M. B. Stone and L. E. Ward have gone to Eugene on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrington will soon move to Cottage Grove, where they have purchased property and intend to make their future home.

Mrs. Atkinson is visiting in Eugene.

Miss Cora Addison has closed a successful term of school at Cartwright and will soon go to take charge of a school at Walton.

J. Atkinson is in Eugene, a jurymen from this place.

Bert Seward is here from Portland on a visit.

Preparations for Easter exercises are in progress and it is whispered around that the Ladies' Aid Society has a pleasing surprise in store for the occasion, of which more anon.

A burglar broke into Dick Crow's house last night and stole a gun and a quantity of provisions. An investigation of the premises and strange tracks by the roadside seem to justify the belief that after eating a portion of the provisions he betook his way to Smith river. Some think he is the same man who was ordered to leave a vacant house in the vicinity of Cartwright, where he had taken up his abode during the stormy weather of January, and from which place he sallied forth after dark for something to eat until he became the neighborhood hobgoblin, frightening women and children nearly out of their wits. A searching party is trying to locate him.

Found at Last.

J. A. Harmon, of Lizeamore, West Va., says: "At last I have found the perfect pill that never disappoints me; and for the benefit of others afflicted with torpid liver and chronic constipation, will say: take Dr. King's New Life Pills." Guaranteed satisfactory. 25c at W. L. DeLano's, Druggist.

A Great Outside Remedy.

Most pains are of local origin—a "crick" in the back, a twinge of rheumatism, a soreness all over arising from a cold—are all cured by outside applications. The quickest, safest and most certain method is Allcock's Plaster, known the world over as a universal remedy for pain. They never fail, they act promptly, they are clean and cheap. You can go right ahead with your work while the healing process goes on. Sixty years' use has given them a great reputation.

Pleasant and Most Effective.
T. J. Chambers, Ed. Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec. 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it in my family and can cheerfully recommend it as the most effective and best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." Sold by Linn Drug Co.

and remember the next time you suffer from pain—caused by weather—when your head bursts from neuralgia—try Ballard's Snow Liniment. It will cure you. A prominent business man, Hempstead, Texas, writes: "I used your Liniment. Previous to using it I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism and Neuralgia. I pleased to say that now I am free from these complaints. I owe that I owe this to your Liniment."

CURED HIMSELF.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with Lumbago, at different times, and tried one physician after another, I gave up all hope. I then tried once more, and got a box of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which me almost instant relief. I cheerfully recommend it, and add my name to your list of cures."
