LITTLE CHANGE IN OREGON TEXTBOOKS

Salem, Or., June 3.—Prices of text books, unlike prices of all other necessities of life, show no advance today over six years ago. While the bids submitted this afternoon to the state text book commission have not been made public, representatives of the text book publishing houses say the figures will not be above those named in the contracts made in 1901, though cost of paper, wages and freight have very materially increased. No reduction in prices can be expected, either, though there is some likelihood that changes will be made resulting in some reduction in the total cost of books to the patrons of public schools. It is understood that publishers of nearly all books now in use have offered to renew their contracts at old prices. While members of the commission are maintaining absolute secrecy as to their intentions, there is a very well established opinion among text book men who have been talked with at various times in the past two months that a few changes are practically certain. Abandonment of the vertical system of writing, adopted six years ago, is probable, with the adoption of the medial system, about half-way between the vertical and the old slant style of writing.

A patrol of infantry appeared on the scene soon afterward and fired upon the crowd, wounding thirteen. Thirty arrests were made in connection with the affair.

CAR SITUATION IS IMPROVING

For the past two or three days the car shortage situation has been considerably improved. The Booth-Kelly Company at Springfield may have reasons to complain for not getting their share of cars, but nevertheless they seem to be getting more daily now than they have heretofore been able to get weekly. During the past two days Superintendent Bassett has shut down the mill and put his entire force to loading cars. If cars can be obtained there will be more loads of lumber shipped from Springfield within the next thirty days than any three mills in the county. Mr. Bassett claims that if necessary he will keep his entire force loading for the next thirty days. It begins to look as though the car famine was about to end and if the Southern Pacific Company can supply the demand, the night crew at Springfield that has been so long talked of will soon be a reality.—Springfield News.

SUMMARY OF OREGON TRACK TEAM WORK

The victory of Oregon over Washington and Idaho in the track meet at Seattle May 30 ended the season for the Oregon track team. The team this season has been far the best in the history of the university and even in the history of the Northwest. The team is heralded by various Northwest papers as being the strongest college team in the United States, and the records made conclusively prove that the Oregon track team could compete with and push very close any team in the land.
The Records Broken.
 On May 17 in a meet with the Washington State College the Oregon team began its career of record-breaking. In the discuss McKinney, the Baker City weight man, established a new Northwest record of 120 feet 3 3/4 inches. He also broke the record in the shot put for the Pacific coast, shooting out the 16-pound weight 45 feet 1 1/4 inches. Moore established a new Northwest record for the low hurdles on a curved track of 25 3-5 seconds. Hug also broke the state and Northwest records in the hammer throw on the same day when he threw it 144 feet 4 1/2 inches. In the 220-yard dash Kelly tied the world's record for a curved track in the time of 21 3-5 seconds.
 At Corvallis a week later Zacharias broke Hug's record in the hammer by a magnificent cast of 150 feet 1 1/2 inches. Captain Moores at Corvallis also tied the world's record and established a new coast record in the low hurdles of 23 2-5 seconds on a curved track.
 At the tri-state meet at Seattle on Thursday the track was in such condition that no record-breaking runs were made. McKinney tied the collegiate record in the United States and made a new Pacific coast record for the shot put of exactly 45 feet. Zacharias then also threw the hammer for a Northwest record of 155 feet 8 inches.
The Point Winners.
 The way the point winners line up is drawn from the following tabulation. Each man who makes five points is entitled to the track "O"; the indoor meet at Columbia does not count in the points and so is omitted. In the three meets, Pullman, Corvallis and the tri-state at Seattle, against four teams, Oregon took 234 points out of a possible 366. The individual scores for the season are as follows:
 Kelly 56
 Moores 27
 McKinney 27
 Hug 27
 Zacharias 23
 Kuykendall 18
 Huston 13
 Reid 11
 Moulten 10
 Robinson 5
 Oberhauffer 3

STATE CLOSES IN IDAHO LAND CASES

Moscow, June 1.—After the introduction of some documentary evidence tending to prove, as the prosecution contended, the overt acts alleged in the indictment, the prosecution rested "its case in chief" this afternoon. Twelve days were consumed by the government in presenting its evidence. Two were consumed in the securing of a jury. The defense announced that it will not take more than three days for it to present its evidence. In that event the case should be in the hands of the jury before Saturday night.

INDUCED WOMAN TO SWEAR FALSELY

Moscow, Idaho, June 1.—Testimony tending to show that J. B. West, former register of the Lewiston land office, was bribed by the Lewiston National Bank officials to expedite the "putting through" of the land office entry men of the bank officials was the sensational statement made on the stand this morning by Mrs. May J. Harris, of Spokane, while testifying in the North Idaho land conspiracy case. She said that when she demurred to swearing falsely, incidental to taking up a timber claim, Clarence W. Robnet, bookkeeper at the bank, co-conspirator in the case at bar and convicted last fall of subornation of perjury, said to her in substance, "Oh, that's all right; all you have got to do is to keep still. Mr. West will put you through—we have got them paid for that."

THROW NAMES IN WASTE BASKET

Says Eberlin, Southern Pacific Land Agent, When Roseburg Men Make Tender for Timber Land.
 Roseburg, Or., June 1.—Attorney Orcutt and Al Creason, who represented the Douglas county settlers who wish to purchase railroad lands, have returned from San Francisco, and state that they called upon Mr. Eberlin three times before they finally were admitted. The chief clerk informed them that Eberlin knew who they were, where they were from and their mission, and that it would do no good to see him. Mr. Orcutt persisted and was finally admitted, when he said he invited Orcutt to throw them in the waste basket. They were left on file, however, in the railroad agent's office.

BOYS AND GIRLS ARRESTED AND JAILED

(From Tuesday's Guard.)
 Between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning Officers Croser and Purdy arrested Howard Farlow, Guy Richmond, Ethel Williams and Anna Whetsell for being drunk after 12 o'clock and for being drunk and disorderly. The two girls and the Richmond boy were locked up in the city jail while Farlow was taken to the county jail for the remainder of the night.
 It appears that the four had been about the streets a greater part of the night drinking and creating a disturbance. This morning just before their arrest the officers found the girls in F. L. Chambers' yard, concealed behind some shrubbery. When asked what they were doing there they replied that they were waiting for Farlow and Richmond to take them to a room at the Lewis and Clark lodging house. Richmond had already gone to bed and was found in one of the rooms. Just as Farlow was coming down the stairs after the girls he was met by the officers and ran. Officer Purdy gave chase and after a run of a hundred yards or more caught him.
 When taken before Police Judge Dorris this morning Farlow stated that he had bought a quart of whiskey from a stranger, whose name he didn't know, and that he had passed the bottle around among the crowd. As the Richmond boy is only 15 or 16 years old, Farlow will be held on the charge of giving liquor to a minor. Farlow is 19 and the girls about 18 or 19 each.
 The girls do not reside in Eugene, having come here a couple of weeks ago. They have frequently been noticed on the streets late at night by the officers and have been watched on several occasions, but this is the first time they have been in any trouble. They are a hard looking bunch.
Sentence Rescinded.
 The youthful wrongdoers were brought into police court at three o'clock this afternoon. Under the new law passed by the last legislature, which has just gone into effect, all persons under the age of 18 must be taken to the juvenile court for trial. Young Richmond comes under this law and he will be taken before County Judge Chrisman. Young Farlow pleaded guilty to the charge of being on the streets after twelve at night, but the girls pleaded not guilty. After the evidence of the night officers was given they were pronounced guilty. The judge announced that he would reserve sentence until tomorrow. In the meantime they will remain in the city jail. The charge of giving liquor to a minor, against Farlow, will probably be investigated later.

SHIPPING NOTES OF FLORENCE PORT

Numerous Schooner Loads of Lumber Leave for San Francisco.—The M. Wolf Came Near Being Shattered.
 The launch Lena is carrying the mail to Mapleton for a few days while the Hazel is laid up for repairs. The Washalora finished loading at Acme Wednesday and went down the river yesterday on her way to the sea.
 The schooner Mayflower has loaded at the Oregon & California Lumber Company's mill, and was towed down the river yesterday.
 The schooner Oakland finished loading Monday and left that night for San Francisco with a cargo of lumber from the Oregon & California Lumber Company's mill.
 The schooner Sausalito finished loading at the Oregon & California Lumber Company's mill Tuesday and crossed out over the bar for San Francisco that night.
 The ball game between Mapleton and Florence teams last Sunday resulted in a victory for the Mapleton boys. The score stood, Mapleton, 26; Florence, 19.
 The schooner Hugh Hogan sailed for San Francisco last Thursday night after loading at the Oregon & California Lumber Company's mill.
 The schooner Coquille was towed out to sea last Thursday night, with a cargo of lumber from the Saubert mill for the San Francisco market.
 "M. Wolf" came near being "shattered" a few days ago for a trip to San Francisco. It happened in this way: Mr. Wolfe left Florence on board the schooner Hugh Hogan, expecting that the vessel would stop at Coos Bay and he would go ashore there. On Friday a message was received here from the owners, ordering the schooner to come direct to San Francisco. That evening the steamer Roscoe left for Coos Bay, overtaking the Hogan during the night and delivering the message. Mr. Wolfe was awakened from sleep and put into one of the lifeboats and taken to the Roscoe in the darkness.—Florence West.

WANTED WIFE TO ENTER SHAMEFUL LIFE

A recent issue of the Oregonian contains the following concerning a couple formerly residing at Florence:
 Alleging that her husband, John H. Ford, continually urged her to enter a life of shame for his benefit, Stella Ford, 17 years old and a bride of a year, asked for a divorce in Judge Frazer's department of the circuit court yesterday. Her story is one of abuse and inhuman treatment from the time she married Ford at Eugene, Or., February 16, 1906. She said he struck her on various occasions and from the first was unfaithful and unreasonably brutal. Finally she left him at Wendling, where he was working in a sawmill. She has been living with her sister at 270 Grant street ever since.
 Dave Flahay, a street car conductor, testified that Ford was a drunkard and "good for nothing." The lawyer representing the young wife said that the girl's mother was dead and that the girl was misled and deceived by Ford.

PAST WEEK HAS BEEN WARM AND DRY

Few Small Showers in Eastern Counties, But No Rain of Consequence. Temperature Reached 90.
 Following is a portion of the regular report of Oregon weather conditions for the week ending June 3, as sent out by the weather bureau at Portland:
General Summary.
 A few small showers fell Saturday at scattered places in the eastern counties, but no rain of consequence was reported elsewhere and the soil is getting very dry. In the coast counties the mornings were generally foggy, and on one day the fog was so dense as to be misty. The afternoon temperatures were unusually warm, with a maximum of 90 degrees and over on the 30th. During the last three mornings of the week it was cooler and in some of the some of the eastern counties the temperatures were dangerously near the frost mark but no frosts occurred so far as known. The sunshine was above normal and, except the foggy forenoons in the coast counties, there was only one day sufficiently cloudy to be noticeable, and the abundance of bright sunshine was the dominating feature of the week.
Willamette Valley.
 Portland, Multnomah county.—The weather during the week was generally clear and warm, Thursday and Sunday being particularly warm days, the maximum temperature on the former day reaching 93 degrees. Sunshine was unusually abundant.
 Salem, Marion county.—The week was clear and warm.
 Corvallis, Benton county.—Unusually warm weather, with westerly winds, prevailed all week.
 Welches, Clackamas county.—During the fore part of the week the days were clear and bright, but during the latter part they were warm and very cloudy, with variable winds.

OREGON HOPS ARE TO BE HELPED

Oregon will be represented in the London hop market next week by the establishment of the branch house of Klüber, Wolf & Netter Company in that city. H. E. Freeman, of this city, is expected to arrive there Monday morning and will open headquarters there at once.
 The idea of establishing a branch house in London originated with M. M. Netter, of the firm, about a year and a half ago. Just previous to the San Francisco earthquake he started out on his trip and intended to open a branch in the English metropolis at the time. He was so horrified at the news of the San Francisco disaster that he returned to this city, but the project was never allowed to die. "I believe that the establishment of our branch house in London will do much for the Oregon hop in Europe. The house (which is the first Oregon one in Europe) will introduce the Oregon product everywhere throughout Europe and expects to gain for this state a world's reputation as a hop producing section."
 Just at present the hop market is very quiet. Crop conditions are said to be much improved everywhere. Phil Neils, the veteran hop man, received a letter this morning from Bohemia, stating that present prospects were for a bumper yield there.—Journal.

REMARKABLE RESCUE.

That truth is stranger than fiction has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon stopped, the bleeding rapidly diminished, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c and $1 at W. L. DeLano's drug store. Trial bottle free.
