MORNING FIRE IN BUSINESS DISTRICT

(From Thursday's Guard.)

The little one-story residence on Olive street between the Schneider block and Burbach & Bristow's blacksmith shop was partially destroyed by fire this morning about 8 o'clock.

The building is owned by Gregory Burbach, the blacksmith, who had it leased to J. H. Vincent, the restaurant man. It was occupied by Alex and Edmund Tweed, aged about eleven and nine years respectively, and who are orphans, cared for by their uncle, H. B. Garberg, who is now in a logging camp on Fall Creek. The boys were in the Vincent restaurant at the time the fire was discovered and say they do not know how it started. They say there was a glass jar of kerosene on the table in the south bedroom, where the fire originated, but they say they had no lamp burning nor were they striking matches in the room this morning. When the flames were discovered they were issuing in large volumes from the windows of the building. The alarm was given and the fire team made a quick dash to the scene of the conflagration. A stream from the hydrant at the Bell grocery corner and one from the chemical engine were soon playing on the flames and they were extinguished in quick order. The house is practically ruined, however, and perhaps will be torn down, as it is old and valueless. There was no insurance. Some of the household goods were saved, but most of them were destroyed.

Had the fire gained further headway before being discovered it might have endangered the Schneider block and other buildings surrounding.

Fireman Croner wishes the Guard to advise the people whenever they discover a fire to keep their heads and go to the nearest telephone and ring up the fire station, telling in a few words as possible the location of the fire. Much time will be saved in that way. This morning several men were on the streets yelling "fire" before any one telephoned to the fire station.

EUGENE FURNITURE MEN IN INDICTED LIST

The Portland evening papers yesterday printed the names of the Oregon furniture dealers who had been indicted by the federal grand jury for maintaining a trust, as told about in the Guard's Associated Press dispatch last evening. The list incluedes the following Eugene men: H. M. Manville; "John Doe" McKinney, who are in the second hand business here, J. W. Kays, J. G. Chambers (F. E. Chambers doubtless), George L. Jennings and Clifford Edwards, who sold their business to Dugan & Miller, and H. Gordon, who sold out to Campbell-Fellman Co., and who is now residing at Portland. None of these men have yet been served with papers of arrest. Mr. Manville and perhaps some of the others will go to Portland at once to look into the matter. These men all signed the membership roll of the Oregon Retail Furniture Dealers' Association, but none of them have paid any dues and it was presumed by all that their names had been dropped from the roll. Their indictment is a big surprise, but none of them think they will be prosecuted.

SPEAKS GOOD WORD FOR FOLEY SPRINGS

H. F. McIlwand and wife last evening rteurned from a several weeks' stay at Foley Springs, one of the finest mountain resorts on the coast, where they had a pleasant time. A. A. Haflinger is proprietor of the hotel and runs a good place. The hot springs have a daily yield of 172,000 gallons at a temperature of 188 degrees. The springs are 58 miles east of Eugene, and a stage leaves that city Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at 6 a .m., arriving the same day. Foley Springs is just 2000 feet above the Pacific and the climate is very pleasant. The Three Sisters are only a few miles from the Springs, adding to the attraction of the place. —Albany Democrat.

He Fired the Stick.

"I have fired the walking stick I've carried over forty years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve. That has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Barrett, of North Mills, N. C. Guaranteed for piles, burns, etc., by W. L. DeLano, druggist, 25c.

H. R. Kincaid has bought of W. W. Judkins 170 acres, extending from the Willamette river where the railroad passes around the point at the east side of Fairmount (East Eugene), south a distance of about one and one-fourth miles, to where it joins the Kincaid donation claim, which extends south about a mile and a half farther to the land recently sold by Dr. Abraham Sharples. This gives Judge Kincaid 520 acres in one body, mostly in a narrow strip, about three miles long, running north and south, while his son Webster owns 100 acres along the east side, making a stock ranch of 620 acres.—State Journal.

A Fortunate Texan.

Mr. E. W. Goodloe, of 107 St. Louis street, Dalas, Texas, says: "In the past year I have become acquainted with Dr. King's New Life Pills, and no laxative I ever tried before so effectually disposes of malaria and biliousness." They don't grind or gripe. 25c at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

In the county court case of A. G. Hovey vs. J. R. Campbell, to recover money, the plaintiff filed a motion for dismissal today for the reason that the account has been settled.

BIG TUNNEL AT WEST COAST CO.'S MINES

(Special Correspondence.)

Cottage Grove, June 7—A. J. Adee, superintendent of the Oregon Securities property, now known as the West Coast Mines Company, was in Cottage Grove for a few days and reports the mill running. In the near future the new company will start the tunnel at or near the mill. It will be about 2000 feet in length and tap the Champion mine at a vertical depth of 1400 feet. This enterprise is looked upon by all those interested in Bohemia with a great degree of interest, as it will settle the question as to the depth and valuation of the Bohemia mines. We predict it will give old Bohemia a boom that will surprise the Bohemians themselves.

Logger Injured.

Thomas Frazier, a logger at the Nelson logging camp, six miles south of Cottage Grove, on the Coast Fork river, was struck on the head by a limb, thrown from a falling tree. He did not recover consciousness for six hours and it was thought that he never would rally. A physician was called and he is getting along all right.

News Notes.

You can see Senator Bob Veatch smile four blocks away since he read of Dr. Lane's election for mayor of Portland.

R. G. Clark came down from the Consolidated mine on Martin Creek, Bohemia, and reports work progressing nicely.

ROBNET TESTIFIES STRONGLY FOR DEFENSE

Moscow, Idaho, June 5.—Clarence W. Robnet, bookkeeper in the Lewiston National bank, and one of the coconspirators in the North Idaho land conspiracy case, on trial in the federal court before Judge Deitrich, took the witness stand on behalf of the defense today, and his testimony, taken as a whole, from a layman's point of view, was a signal triumph for the defense. What his testimony, direct or cross-examination may have produced for either side as a basis for argument before the jury remains to be seen. Suffice it to say that Robnet explained away to the evident satisfaction of the defense at least the serious allegations made against the defendants by witnesses and the phraseology of the indictment.

Robnet was on the witness stand about two hurs, during which he gave his testimony without hesitation. On cross-examination, which ordeal was surprisingly brief, the witness apparently kept himself well in hand and not once became confused. In substance his testimony was a general denial of every allegation made against the defendants.

Robnet admitted holding every conversation testified to by witnesses for the prosecution in which they declared he made overtures to them illegally to take up land. But Robnet had an entirely different version to place upon the conversations. According to his statements the witnesses who testified against the defendants and himself on his trial last November swore to a long series of flat falsehoods. There was never a word uttered by him to entrymen, according to his statements, which could have been construed to mean that he wanted them to violate the law when it came to taking up timber claims.

Little Gladys Croner, now in Seattle, is slowly improving under the care of Dr. McCulloch, a prominent specialist in childrens' diseases in that city. The doctor regards the case as very serious.
