Portland Market Report

Portland, Or., Aug. 1.—Demand for watermelons has suddenly developed with the warm weather of the past few days. Until yesterday there had been but few inquiries for melons, and Front street was becoming overstocked. The sales of melons today, however, are quite encouraging, and the stocks will all sell easily. More are arriving on each freight, but are being reshipped fast.

Some of the merchants are receiving more tomatoes than they can justly handle. All kinds of prices are ruling as a result. The tomatoes are usually of a good grade, and are Oregon product, shipped from The Dalles.

Oregon and California peaches will be short. The crop will be somewhat larger than the apricot crop, but it is not expected that they will ever drop to a very low figure, as the demand for peaches is greater than the demand for apricots. The same conditions will rule practically, however, in the apricot market.

Potatoes Plentiful
New crop Oregon Irish potatoes are plentiful and some of the early varieties have practically matured. With the trade generally these have taken the place of old stock, but with bakers and restaurant men there is still a limited demand for last year's tubers. This will entirely disappear within a week or two. New potatoes sell around $1 a hundred, and such of the old stock as is sold brings about the same price.

Market is Short of Berries.
But few berries of any kind were to be seen on Front street this morning. Red raspberries and black caps are scarce and their season will soon end. Blackberries are most in evidence now, but supplies of even these are low today. They sell at $1.25 to $1.50 per crate. Some wild blackberries have come in, but receipts were not so large as dealers expected. They bring about the same price as the tame product.

Country Creamery Butter Firm.
Receipts of country creamery butter on Front street have been light for some days and the market is slightly firmer than for some time past. Dry weather, which has affected the pastures, has lessened the cream output to some extent, and it is also said that farmers at this time of year, when the harvest is on, consume greater quantities than at other times. Prices of country creamery range from 27 1/2 to 30 cents a pound. City creamery is held at 30 cents and the market is considered firm.

Eggs Shrink Badly These Days.
Commission men urge their country shippers to lose no time in forwarding eggs to market, for the hot weather has a damaging effect on the product. They say shippers should hold them no longer than is absolutely necessary, small and prompt shipments being preferred to larger lots delayed in making up. Close candling results in serious shrinkage in practically all lots now being received from valley points. Prices have not changed since yesterday, and the market is weak.

Hogs Are Scarce.
Weather conditions at this time are against hog shipments even for a small distance outside the city. It is practically out of reason for packers to bring Eastern hogs into the Pacific coast markets. The small supplies have therefore left them without the usual light requirements for this time of year.

A feature of special interest in the hog market at this time is the fact that no arrivals were shown in the local yards either for today, last Tuesday, a year ago, or two years ago today.

Cattle Are Just Steady.
At the recent drop of 25c in cattle prices the local market is quite able to hold its own and for specially selected top stuff a fractional advance over $3.75 is some times obtained.

Today's cattle arrivals amounted to 150 head as against 250 head a week ago, 284 a year ago, and 36 head this same Tuesday two years ago. A year ago today cattle demand was just fair with values holding.

Firmer Tone in Sheep.
A firmer tone is everywhere shown in the sheep market and local conditions are well in line. There were no arrivals today and this had a stimulating effect upon values, but no changes were shown. Receipts a week ago were 400 head as against 600 head a year ago and 195 head two years ago today.

Portland Livestock Market.
Receipts of livestock at the local yards today consisted of six carloads, 240 head of cattle. The market generally is steady, with no change in prices since yesterday. Quotations are:

Cattle—Best steers, $1.85 @ $4.00; medium, $3.25 @ $3.50; cows, $3; fair to medium cows, $2.50 @ $2.75; bulls, $2 @ $2.50; calves, $4 @ $5.

Sheep—Good sheared, $4.00 @ $4.25; lambs, $4.75 @ $5.25.
Hogs—Best, $6.65 @ $6.75; lights, fats and feeders, $6.25 @ $6.50.

Portland Quotations.
Creamery butter—27 1/2 @ 30c.
Eggs—21 @ 22c.
Chickens—12 1/2 @ 13c.
Wheat—Valley, $1; bluestem, $4c.
Oats—$24.50 @ $25 per ton.
Barley—$21.50 @ $22.50 per ton.
Hay—Timothy, $16 @ $18; vetch, $7.50 @ $8; grain hay, $7 @ $8.
Mohair—Choice, 29c @ 30c.
Wool—Valley, coarse to medium, 18 @ 20c.
Hops—Prime, 6c @ 7c.
Potatoes—New, $1 @ $1.25 per cwt.
Onions—$1 @ $1.25 per cwt.
Chittim Bark—5c lb.

GORDON STARTS FACTORY IN PORTLAND

Herbert Gordon, formerly in the furniture business in Eugene, has gone into the manufacturing business in Portland. He has opened a small plant on Union avenue and will manufacture shade cloth and shade goods in general. The name of the firm operating the plant is Herbert Gordon & Co. Jerry Horn, also formerly of Eugene, is working for him. Mr. Gordon's five-story brick building at Park and Yamhill streets in the metropolitan district is now progressing faster than it has for several weeks past. The second story has been completed and the whole structure will not be finished until about December 1st. The contract calls for its completion by the first of October.

JOAQUIN MILLER IN EUGENE ONCE MORE

Joaquin Miller, the poet, is again in the city, having arrived a day or two ago from his trip to Eastern Oregon. He will leave soon for the lower Siuslaw river, where he and his brother, Geo. Melvin Miller, have filed upon a water right and intend to improve the power and eventually generate electricity for Eugene and other cities. The power site is forty miles from here, but that is not too far away to make an electric plant profitable. It is understood that the work of building the required canal will begin within a short time. Joaquin has made a lot of money in mining ventures in the last few years, and has plenty of it to carry out his plans. He will also build him a summer home in that vicinity and perhaps write a few poems there for pastime.

LOST VALLEY NEWS

(Special Correspondence.)
Lost Valley, July 29.—Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Williams left for Bend, Or., where they will spend a few weeks visiting friends.

R. G. and Byron Dunten leave for Harney county this week.

Several of the neighbors clubbed together last week and dipped their sheep. Three hundred and twenty-four head were run through the vat. Little Joe Parker, while helping with the sheep, took an unintentional bath in the vat.

The ice cream social was pronounced a success by all who attended. It was a number one success.

Miss Ida Mooney has gone to the Middle Fork district, to act in the capacity of nurse while her sister's family has the measles.

E. A. Wegner has just returned from a trip to Camp Creek, where he has been visiting his parents.

Roy Addington has returned from the Rigdon ranch, where he has been haying.

A. L. Roney, of Goshen, arrived in Zion last Monday evening, and Tuesday he and T. H. Hunsaker left for Crescent and Odell lakes for a fishing trip. They are both good hands with the line and we expect to hear of them landing the "big ones."

L. E. Parks, of Cloverdale, was in the valley today, buying sheep.

We noticed in last week's Guard an article about "Loggers not treated with fairness." Although Mr. Cleveland handled the papers without gloves, it is nothing more than their just dues.

Miss Jennie Cox and her mother, of Newberg, are visiting friends and relatives here.

The people of Marcola will go to Eugene oftener, as the railroad promises to put on two trains a day.

Mrs. Stolberg, of Wendling, who died Friday morning after a lingering illness, was buried at the Marcola cemetery Sunday.

Last week Fischer Bros.' team ran away and hurt Jack Mitchell, the driver, seriously.

Lee Calkins and wife returned from Portland yesterday and are visiting his brother, S. J. Calkins.

The Mabel baseball team played Marcola a game of ball Sunday, the score being 11 to 10 in Marcola's favor. It is reported that Wendling will play Marcola next Sunday.

Senator R. A. Booth, sons Roy and Lloyd, Worden Parri and T. E. Singleton arrived home last night from a month's hunting and fishing trip. They started at Roseburg on the first of July, and going up the north fork of the Umpqua river, crossed the mountains over into the Deschutes country, where the hunting was immense. A large number of deer were killed and all the fish they could possibly eat were caught. No bear were bagged as no signs were seen till near the end of their return trip and then they failed to run across any of the animals.
