

FRENCH WARSHIPS OPEN GUNS UPON CASA BLANCO MOORS

Tangier, Aug. 6.—The French cruiser Galliee was bombarding the Moorish quarter of Casa Blanca when the last steamer, which arrived here today, left that port. The Kabyles attacked Casa Blanca and the Moorish authorities appealed to the commander of the Galliee for assistance. He landed 60 men and a Spanish cruiser landed forty. The landing party was fired upon by the Kabyles and seven Frenchmen were wounded. The combined Franco-Spanish force thereupon cleared the city of the hostile tribesmen. Guards were placed around the consulates and the bombardment commenced.

TWO FRENCH WARSHIPS DESTROY NATIVE VILLAGES

London, Aug. 6.—A dispatch from Tangier says that the French cruiser DuChayla also participated in the bombardment of Casa Blanca, the native villages being destroyed. During the bombardment a battery of Casa Blanca opened fire on the warships, which returned the fire, causing the Moorish commander to cease and send a messenger asking the pardon of the French commander, which was refused. He was ordered to report to the French consul.

FRANCE AND SPAIN WILL ACT TOGETHER

Paris, Aug. 6.—Representatives of the Spanish and French governments have agreed to a note informing the powers signatory of the Algiers convention of the intention of France and Spain to keep within the terms of the convention. The situation after the landing of troops at Casa Blanca will determine the subsequent measures to be taken by France and Spain. No outside power is expected to co-operate with the powers mentioned.

YESTERDAY'S NEWS FROM SEAT OF WAR

Tangier, Aug. 5.—The situation at Casa Blanca continues serious. Several vessels arrived here today, one carrying 250 Jewish and a number of French refugees, and another steamer with 545 persons on board, including many Europeans. They report the situation most alarming, the town still being in the power of the natives. All Europeans have been taken on board a vessel in the harbor.

In spite of the presence of a French cruiser in the harbor a large body of Moors attacked the refugees as they were leaving, but soon desisted, proceeding to the Christian cemetery, and dragging out a number of corpses from the vaults and began to burn them. A body of soldiers arrived on the scene and fired on the Moors, a number of whom were killed, and the band dispersed. The cruiser did not bombard, owing to the requests of consuls, who feared reprisals.

Oran, Algeria, Aug. 3.—French troops are being massed here and at points in the interior in readiness to embark for Morocco. Two French cruisers arrived today.

Toulon, Aug. 3.—It is announced that two more cruisers will leave tonight for Morocco.

CONGRESSMAN JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS.

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 2.—Incomplete returns from the Democratic primaries held today throughout the state at this hour show Congressman John Sharp Williams leading Governor Vardaman by about three to one. The count is progressing slowly because of the extreme length of the ticket.

In the contest for governor Charles Scott and A. P. Noel are leading the other candidates with only a small margin. As yet not more than half of the state has been heard from, and neither side will concede the election. To select the gubernatorial nominee a second primary will be necessary.

For lieutenant-governor Luther Manship is leading by a large majority. The day was favored by excellent weather and an unusually heavy vote was polled. No disorder was reported from any point.

REPUBLICANS NAME TICKET IN NEW STATE

Guthrie, Okla., Aug. 1.—For governor, Frank Frantz; lieutenant-governor, N. G. Turk; Chicotah; secretary of state, Thomas Robnet, Ardmore, I. T.; attorney-general, Silas Reid, El Reno.

With the chief places on the state ticket filled, the Republican state convention took a breathing spell late tonight. Not in the history of the party in Oklahoma has there been such an ovation to one man as the one that greeted the announcement that Governor Frantz was renominated head of the ticket without opposition. The delegates cheered for several minutes, and basked the efforts of Chairman Murphy to restore order. The action was not unexpected by the feeble opposition, and its resignation seemed to carry the convention off its feet. There was little division on the other nominations.

ROOSEVELT WILL NOT BE CANDIDATE

Washington, Aug. 1.—President Roosevelt will not permit the Republican national convention to nominate him for another term. This information, in corroboration of his own knowledge and opinion, that Mr. Roosevelt would not have permitted the Ohio Republicans formally to commit themselves to Secretary Taft if he were not unalterably determined not to be a candidate himself.

SANFORD WILL BUILD MODERN STRUCTURE

JAMES SANFORD, OWNER OF BURNED OREGON HOTEL BUILDING, DETERMINES TO ERECT BRICK HOTEL THIS FALL—WILL BEGIN WORK ON MODERN TWO-STORY BLOCK NEXT MONTH

James Sanford, owner of the Oregon Hotel Building, which burned today, stated after the fire this afternoon that he would build this fall, starting next month, a two-story brick, fire proof, with all the latest improvements, costing in the neighborhood of $15,000. The building will be divided into a hotel, one store room and a barber shop.

It will have an eight-foot frontage and a depth of ninety feet. Mr. Sanford owns back to the alley, a distance of 160 feet, and in case the need is felt the hotel can have an addition built on to the back.

Mr. Sanford's loss was approximately $100,000, with no insurance, but he does not seem to care particularly, having intended to tear the building down next Spring anyway.

Cherry Brothers, who owned the other three buildings, may build or they may not. In fact, they have no definite plans yet, and in case of a good offer would be likely to sell their land, which is very valuable as a location for a large hotel or business block. The new postoffice will be diagonally across from the corner.

Wells, Garrett and Mitchell, who purchased the lots on which the little old house next to the Midgley block stands, will probably build some time in the future, but have no plans matured at present.

KOREAN SOLDIERS FIGHT WITH JAPS

Seoul, Aug. 2.—A battalion of Korean troops, resenting disarmament, mutinied, and at a given signal attacked three mounted Japanese officers, who had arrived at Little West Gate barracks to demand the surrender of their munitions. Two of the Japanese officers escaped on horseback. The third one fell from his horse and escaped afoot.

Firing then began and the Koreans sallied out of Little West Gate into the street, but were forced to retire under a Japanese fire from the tower gate. General Okazaki ordered out reinforcements at 10:30 o'clock and the barracks and adjacent buildings were completely invested. There was continuous sniping and also fire from the Japanese machine guns.

A Deadwood, S. D., dispatch says: The sudden and unannounced departure for New York this week of Geo. W. Glover, who is suing for an accounting of the estate of his mother, Mrs. Mary G. HOSTILE MOORS BEATEN IN BATTLE

Tangier, Aug. 5.—The latest advices from Casa Blanca say that the most hostile of the Moorish tribesmen surrounding the town have retired, after a bloody battle with the natives inside. The French cruiser Galliee will bombard the native quarter of Casa Blanca in event of the renewal of attacks on Europeans. There are fears the troubles will spread to the west coast of Morocco, as the natives are greatly excited and a French warship has been sent to Mazagan.

Troops to Morocco. Paris, Aug. 5.—Several thousand troops will be sent to Morocco by the French government.

OAK HILL ITEMS

Oak Hill, Aug. 5.—Harvest is here once more and most of the farmers are busy taking care of their crops.

We have been having some very hot weather of late.

Crops on an average are rather light.

S. P. Wynegar has his new barn almost completed. Harry Ensign has gone to the mountains for a couple of weeks. Frank Powell Jr. is working on the steam hay baler.

The purchase of a new organ for our Sunday school speaks well for the members of this locality, who should all take an interest in the work.

Rev. Stillman, our new pastor, will fill his regular appointment hereafter.

There will be a musical program and entertainment held at the Oak Hill school house Saturday, August 17. Ice cream and cake will be served after the program. Small admission fee.

E. C. Smith shipped in a good bunch of horses from eastern Oregon to Oregon City some time ago and sold part of them. They were then taken to Woodburn and Salem and are now in this city, and the remainder of the herd will be taken to Eugene. Mr. Smith says horses are very high east of the mountains.

The buccaros had all gone to harvesting at big wages, so that he could not hire the horses driven across the mountains to Albany direct.—Albany Herald.

It is certain that Dan Kelly will go to Jamestown as representing the majority of Oregon, for the committee reports that it has almost money enough raised to send him, and it is understood that the rest will soon be forthcoming. Multnomah will soon be sent Kelly, but as the local men offered to pay the expenses of Hayward and himself, all he could do was to accept the offer by which he could represent the institution which provided the training through which he has become the runner that he is.

JAP OFFICER SAYS STOESEL DESERVES HONOR

Paris, Aug. 6.—Captain Tsuneda, the Japanese military attaché here, who, while upon the staff of General Nogi, conducted negotiations for the surrender of Port Arthur, in an open letter defends General Stoessel, defender of the fortress, upon the eve of the latter's courtmartial for surrendering to the Japanese. All the Russian food, he says, was exhausted and twenty thousand Russians under arms were in no condition to fight. They might have held out two weeks longer, but it would have meant inevitable slaughter. Japan lost sixty thousand lives by gunfire alone.

Japan honors Stoessel's bravery and Tsuneda points out that Russia should treat him likewise.

OIL KING NOT WORRIED BY FINE

Cleveland, O., Aug. 5.—If Judge Landis' decision has been a great blow to John D. Rockefeller he does not show it. Bright, almost blithe, and with a joke upon his lips as he spoke of it, he attended services at the Euclid avenue Baptist church on Sunday morning.

"There's nothing to say about the decision, is there?" he queried good naturedly when pressed to discuss it. Then he backed up the church aisle of being prompt tomorrow morning in keeping their engagement with him to play golf.

"I am an early riser, you know," he said with a laugh. "I suppose with you newspapermen 8 o'clock is an unearthly hour, but you know it was the early worm that was caught."

He shook hands with a friend he had not seen for some time and inquired where he had been.

"I've just come up from North Carolina," the man replied.

"They're going after the trusts down there too, eh?"

SPENCER BUTTE IS LIVELY RATTLE SNAKE COUNTRY

A rancher by the name of Hess on a branch of Spencer creek has killed this spring seventeen rattlesnakes. Last spring, however, he did better, for he slew twenty-four of the reptiles. Most of this year's kill was made in a den, but that there is still another in the same vicinity is conclusive from the fact that two young men while hunting jack rabbits killed eight or nine.

Spencer creek has long been known as a rattlesnake country. In fact there are many snakes all around Spencer Butte, for east and south of the main mountain a number have been killed this year.

In early days the country literally swarmed in places, according to old timers, but now there are comparatively few. This year, however, there seems to have been an unusual number of snakes, probably because Lane county is dry—a climate that the rattlers like especially well.

Last month one was killed a mile out of town in a dry ditch with a little water. The snake had come down to drink. It is not known how many rattles it had. Some that Hess killed had twelve, but most of them were young.

Judging from what is said the snakes around Spencer creek are of the more sluggish nature, and while as poisonous as the black mountain rattlers found so often in the Cascades, are not so energetic, and not so often looking for trouble.

BRUTAL CRIME OCCURRED IN DAYTON SUNDAY

Dayton, O., Aug. 5.—Anna Markowitz, 24 years of age, a pretty Jewish girl, was found dead here, her body bruised and cut and bearing evidences of brutal treatment. At the hospital, with a mortal wound in his abdomen and his head a mass of bruises, is Abram Gordon, a young traveling man from Indianapolis. Under suspicion of being the perpetrators are James, Jacob and Bertha Markowitz, brothers and sister of the dead girl. The crime occurred in the very same place where Dina Gilman was assaulted and murdered some months ago.

Gordon, also known as Cohan, was walking yesterday with Anna and Bertha near the Soldiers' Home, but what occurred has not clearly developed, except that Bertha reached the Soldiers' Home, terror stricken and breathless, and said that highwayman slipped up unheard behind Gordon, struck him with a blackjack and then shot him in the stomach. A man then attacked Anna, but meantime Bertha escaped. Anna was dragged into the bushes, where the poison found her. Her clothing was torn from her body in the terrific struggle and there were evidences of an assault. The girl was dead from strangulation.

The brothers and sister were arrested when they went to the jail to learn what had been ascertained of the crime. They admitted that their mother objected to Gordon's attention to Anna, and the brothers did not deny they had followed the trio into the woods.
