A dose of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will relieve it. Try it for whooping cough, for asthma, for consumption, for bronchitis. J. G. HAMPTON EXPIRES AT HOSPITAL AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS OF APOPLEXY—UNCLE OF THE HAMPTON BROTHERS

J. G. Hampton, an early Oregon pioneer and an uncle of the Hampton Brothers, merchants and bankers, in this city, died at the Eugene hospital Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock, after a week's illness of apoplexy. The funeral will be held at the home of Mrs. M. E. Hampton at the corner of East Tenth and Pearl streets tomorrow forenoon at 10 o'clock with interment in the A. F. & A. M. cemetery.

Mr. Hampton was born in Missouri 67 years ago, coming across the plains to Oregon in 1845. He settled in Yamhill and became engaged in farming. He resided there until thirty years ago, when he removed to the Goose-Lake country in Lake county, where he was engaged in farming and stock raising until about three years ago, when he came to Lane county and lived two years on the farm of his nephew, Horace Hampton. He went to Baker City with Horace last year and lived there until a few months ago, when he returned to Goshen. He was taken ill a week ago and brought to the Eugene hospital. Mr. Hampton was never married. He leaves two brothers, W. W. and J. L. Hampton, of Paisley, Lake county, and one sister, Mrs. Eliza Riggs, of Burns, Harney county, besides numerous other relatives. He was an honored citizen and had many friends all over the state.

ESTHER MITCHELL IN VAUDEVILLE

Aberdeen, Wash., Sept. 7.—This city had a guest of more than usual celebrity Thursday in the person of Esther Mitchell, of Holy Roller fame. The manner of her appearance was quite dramatic. She was found at 3 o'clock in the morning in the empty hall of the Sailor's union on lower F street. Officer Kelly found the woman, alone. She said she was Esther Mitchell and that in looking for a lodging house she had seen the door open and had gone in to seek a resting place. The officer took her to the station, where she was put in the woman's ward for the rest of the night.

When brought into the police court it was found that her story was true and she was allowed to depart.

She gave as her reason for being here that she had been engaged to enter a vaudeville theatre at Hingham, and she was going there. As she is out on parole, nothing can be done with her.

She talked freely of her dreadful deed, saying she was sometimes sorry she had killed her brother, but she could not help it, as she was so much under the influence of Creffield.

She said she had now lost all faith in him, and has no further use for Holy Rollism.

There is a strong sentiment here that she should not be allowed to fill her engagement on the stage.

THE M'KINLEY MONUMENT IN BUFFALO.

It was on Sept. 5, 1901, that the late William McKinley made his famous speech, advocating reciprocity with all countries and especially friendly relations with the countries of this continent, at the Pan-American exposition in Buffalo. The next day he was shot down by Czolgosz. On Sept. 5 of this year Buffalo dedicates a noble monument to his memory. It is of pure white Vermont marble and stands in Niagara square, in the central part of the city. At the base are four lions, the work of the well known animal sculptor, A. T. H. Proctor. The cost, $105,000, was defrayed by the legislature.

SECRETARY TAFT IS GUEST OF OREGON

Portland, Or., Sept. 6.—William H. Taft, 300 pounds of statesmanship, reached Portland from Tacoma at 7 a. m. today and will be shown every attention until he leaves for Seattle early tomorrow morning. Although this is Secretary Taft's first visit to Oregon, the people of the whole state are eager to honor him and the reception at the Rose City is not local in any respect. All sections of the state are well represented in the demonstrations that mark his coming.

The bulky secretary of war will spend the whole day here and this will be so fully taken up that not one moment will be wasted. Mr. Taft is being shown the city from all sides and will be hurried to Vancouver Barracks, where General Greely will give a reception to the head of the war department. Officers at the post will have an opportunity to meet him.

The reception committee which elaborated argument in favor of the income tax, but he would postpone it indefinitely. He agreed with the president in regard to an inheritance tax, but that, too, he would postpone until a more convenient season. He did not seriously object to the valuation of railroads, but he did not declare for it immediately. He is on the way to the Philippines to tell the Filipinos that, while he thinks they ought to have self-government after a while, he wants it postponed for the present. It is not strange, therefore, that he should yield to his ruling spirit in the matter of statehood, and tell you to put it off.

Mr. Bryan took up, one by one, Mr. Taft's objections to the Oklahoma constitution, and argued against the soundness of the secretary's contentions.

Postpones Tariff Revision.

"Have you read his Columbus speech? If so you will find in it an arraignment of protection as we have it—an appeal for a revision of the tariff, but he paralyzed the force of his own speech by postponing the tariff reform until after the election. Tariff reform is never undertaken by the Republican party just after a Republican victory, because the victory is taken as an endorsement of Hodson, president of the Commercial Club; S. G. Reed, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Tom Richardson, manager of the Commercial Club; S. B. Vincent, secretary of the Manufacturers' Association.

BRYAN FINDS NEW NAME FOR TAFT

Oklahoma City, Sept. 5.—Ten thousand persons heard William J. Bryan here tonight in reply to the recent address of Secretary of War Taft upon the Oklahoma-Indian Territory political situation in Convention hall, and 3000 persons who were unable to secure admittance to the auditorium attended an overflow meeting nearby. Mr. Bryan was enthusiastically received.

In addition to scoring Mr. Taft roundly for placing his personal ambitions above the welfare of the people of Oklahoma, and attacking the views of Mr. Taft on national policies, Mr. Bryan declared that the constitution of the proposed new state was even better than that of the United States.

Calls Taft Great Postponer.

"He is inclined to postpone everything," said Mr. Bryan. "He promises to acquire the title of the 'great postponer.'"

"In a speech made not long ago at Columbus, Ohio, he announced himself as in favor of tariff revision,

EUGENE COLTS GIVE FRAKES TEAM HARD DRUBBING

DEFEAT THE TRI-CITY BUNCH 8 TO 1—WON FROM COBURG IN THE MORNING GAME—SPRINGFIELD SUFFERS DEFEAT AT HANDS OF FRAKES, 12 TO 4

(From Monday's Guard.)

Three games of baseball in one day is going some for Eugene, and the dyed-in-the-wool fans took in all of them yesterday. The home team won two of them, the one from Coburg in the forenoon by the score of 8 to 1, and the one from the Frakes, of the Tri-City league, in the afternoon, by the one-sided score of 8 to 1. The other game was won by the Frakes from Springfield by the score of 12 to 4. The first two games were good exhibitions of the national sport, but the third was poorly played, as the players, some of them taking part in three games, were tired and errors were frequent. A large crowd attended the afternoon games and at the morning performance the grand stand contained a goodly number of the faithful.

A feature of the two afternoon contests was the playing of Schimpff, McCredie's former Coast League pitcher, who held down second for the two local teams. He played all the first game of the afternoon with a good lead, which seemed to give him encouragement, and from that point on they went after the Portland bunch unmercifully. DeNeffe, the south paw twirler, was at his best, and at no time after the first inning, when he was a trifle wild, did he allow the Frakes to reach further than third.

The Eugene and Springfield teams were practically one and the same, the only difference in the line-up being the batteries and one or two other changes. The score of the morning game was as follows:

The case of B. D. McLean vs. Richard Matney, to recover a horse which the defendant alleges that the plaintiff traded to him but afterward wanted to trade back, was tried before Justice of the Peace Bryson and the following jury this afternoon: Henry Hopkins, M. The jury returned a verdict for the defendant but afterward the man traded back again and McLean paid Matney $10, besides the costs of the suit. L. M. Travis was attorney for the plaintiff and C. A. TELL OF ATUO TRIP TO BELKNAP SPRINGS

CHARLES E. RUNYON AND PARTY ARRIVE AT PORTLAND—A MAGNIFICENT COUNTRY

Charles E. Runyon, official court reporter for the fifth judicial district, with a party of six, women and men, has just returned to the city after an outing of five weeks, during which automobiles were driven for the first time to Belknap Springs, a few miles from the summit of the Cascades, in Lane county, says the Portland Telegram.

The trip to the springs, which are 201 miles from Portland, occupied three days. For a large part of the drive the roads were good and over these a speed of 80 to 90 miles a day was easily made, but when the foothills of the mountains were reached travel was more difficult, and on nearing the springs the rough mountain roads were such as to make automobile travel hard. But the springs were reached without mishap of any kind, and the party passed several weeks there and at places of interest nearby.

Mr. Runyon says the country about Belknap Springs is one of magnificence, hardly surpassed anywhere in Oregon. A finer place for a summer outing could hardly be imagined. One of the advantages of the place is that it is not difficult of access. The party met with quite a number of Portlanders at the springs and at other places between here and there. The hotel that stood at the springs some years ago burned down and has not yet been rebuilt. At present the resort is used merely as a camping ground, and there are now a good many campers on the scene. Many Eastern Oregon people pass a part of the summer there.

With pack horses the party one day made a trip to the Three Sisters, which are among the largest mountain peaks in the state. At the springs hot water gushes from the hillsides, and the place is one of the favorite bathing resorts of the state. In the party besides Mr. and Mrs. Runyon were Mr. and Mrs. Will H. See, Miss Sult, Mrs. M. Bishop and Attorney L. K. Adams.

EVAPORATING PRUNES AT THE ALLEN CANNERY

MANAGER ALLEN SAYS CROP THIS YEAR MAY EQUAL BUMP. HIS CROP OF 1906, WHEN MANY TONS WENT TO WASTE ON ACCOUNT OF INABILITY OF DRYERS TO HANDLE THEM.

The Allen Fruit Company began the work of evaporating prunes this morning and from now on the evaporating plant at the cannery will be a busy scene till the crop is finished. The prunes are already coming in at a lively rate and a big force of men is at work at the evaporator. Prunes are being worked on first, but the Italians are arriving and in a few days they will be worked on.

W. G. Allen, manager of the evaporator and cannery, says the prune crop this year will be nearly if not entirely as large as that of last year, when more prunes were raised in this vicinity than the evaporators could possibly handle, and many tons went to waste. Efforts will be made at the Allen plant, however, to take care of more than last year, and as several of the evaporators in the country have enlarged, it is probable that the greater part of the crop can be saved this year.

The price being paid at the cannery for prunes is from $12 to $15 per ton, according to quality. The capacity of the evaporator is about 600 boxes per day.

fact, has been all summer. The large force of women and girls is now engaged in canning Bartlett pears and some tomatoes have already been put up, although they have not fairly begun to come in yet. Mr. Allen says the prospect for a big run on tomatoes are good, as the crop seems to be fine. Some prunes have also been canned during the last few days.

LAND FRAUD CASES TO BE RESUMED

Announcement from Washington that the Oregon land fraud prosecutions are to be resumed is the first definite information the people of this state have been able to get on this important subject, says the Oregonian. United States Attorney Brinson, however, is still unable to say when they will be able to proceed with the trials of the pending cases. He says he is awaiting instructions from United States Attorney-General Bospart, by whom the land fraud prosecutions will be directed.

For the same reason Mr. Bristol declines to make any statement as to his plans for further investigations of alleged illegal operations in the public lands in this state. It seems to be the wish of the department of justice to first clear the docket of untried cases before making a further investigation into public land matters.

Henry Has the Papers.

Though Mr. Bristol has not been officially advised of the wishes of the interior department and the department of justice, it is understood that Henry, who is on his way to Portland from San Francisco, for a conference with Mr. Bristol, will deliver to the latter all of the documents, with the probable exception of the Binger Hermans' receipt of the John Hall cases. It is said to be the wish of Mr. Henry to personally prosecute these cases when he has concluded his engagement in San Francisco.

The other cases that are pending, although worked up by Mr. Henry, it is understood, will be turned over to Mr. Bristol with instruction to hasten them to speedy trial.
