CURTIS FILES WATER RIGHT NOTICES ON SALT AND DIAMOND CREEKS.

ONE CANAL TO BE SEVEN MILES LONG AND OTHER ONE MILE—HARRIMAN O UTILIZE POWER OF STREAMS FOR OPERATION OF TRAINS OVER MOUNTAINS.

S. W. Curtis, of San Francisco, who is thought to represent the Southern Pacific company in numerous water power site filings in Lane and Linn counties during the past two years, today filed with the Lane county clerk notices of filing on two more sites, one on Salt creek and the other on Diamond creek, which are tributaries of the upper Willamette river. Curtis has been working in this section of western Oregon for a long time and one or two crews of civil engineers in the employ of the Southern Pacific company have surveyed the streams where his filings have been made, so that it is altogether probable that he is a Southern Pacific man. Some time ago the papers contained items to the effect that Harriman intended to utilize the waters of the mountain streams of the West for the operation of turbines over the mountainous regions, and this work is, no doubt, preliminary to the construction of the Natron-Klamath Falls branch, with a view of operating the trains over the line by electricity at some future time.

Salt Creek Canal.
The papers in the Salt Creek filing call for the appropriation of 16,000 miners' inches of water under six-inch pressure, the appropriation being equal in volume to a continuous flow of 400 cubic feet of water per second over and past the point of diversion of the proposed canal, which is on the north bank of the creek, 250 feet above the bridge of the crossing of the mountain streams of the West for the operation of turbines over the mountainous regions, and this work is, no doubt, preliminary to the construction of the Natron-Klamath Falls branch, with a view of operating the trains over the line by electricity at some future time.

Diamond Creek Canal.
The Diamond Creek filing calls for the appropriation of 16,000 miners' inches of water and the point of diversion is 500 feet below the second Diamond Creek falls. The canal will be 15 feet wide at the bottom and eight feet deep. The general course will be in a northerly direction on the east bank of the stream and the canal will be one mile in length, the water discharging into the natural water courses tributary to Salt Creek, then diverting from Salt Creek and carried through the Salt Creek canal mentioned above. There will be one reservoir, a dam across the creek at the point of diversion. The notices of appropriation were posted at the power sites on November 4.

Died—At his home southwest of this city Monday evening, November 18, 1907, Christian Funk, aged 65 years and 8 days. Mr. Funk was born in Virginia and lived in that state and in Missouri and Nebraska until about six years ago, when he came to Harrisburg and purchased a large farm, where he resided until his death. Three years ago he went East and while there was married to Mrs. Tilla Lowell, in Iowa, and during the last year she had devoted almost her entire time in caring for her husband, as he had been in very poor health. He was a member of the M. E. church, and also a member of the I. O. O. F., holding membership in a lodge in the East.
Milton A. Rodgers, who was born in Adair county, Kentucky, January 1, 1825, died November 17, 1907, at the advanced age of 82 years, 10 months and 16 days. He was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Alford in Chariton county, Missouri. To their union were born seven children, six daughters and one son, all of whom were present at the funeral, together with his beloved wife and many sorrowing relatives and friends. He was an old pioneer of the year 1850, having come to this country in an ox wagon from Missouri. He was frugal, kind, industrious and benevolent, and all who knew him loved and respected him deeply. He was a patient sufferer before his death for two years, but he steadfastly waited for the change. He had been a Christian for some years, and was a faithful member of the M. E. South, at Muddy. He was a choice spirit and has gone to the haven of eternal rest and peace.—Bulletin.

Springfield city is $246,450, and of the school district, which is No. 19, $533,270. In 1906 it was as follows: City, $231,430; school district, $447,055. In 1905 as follows: City, $111,210; school district, $217,260.
The reason for the big increase made in 1906 over the previous year was the policy inaugurated by Assessor Keeney to assess all property as near its real value as possible, instead of about one-half its value, which had been the custom before. The increase this year over 1906 is due to the extensive improvements in the city and the increase in population.
The totals for other municipalities and school districts in the county have not yet been footed up but the work will be completed soon.

HITCHCOCK REFUSES TO GIVE ANSWER
New York, Nov. 20.—Raymond Hitchcock, the actor, refused to answer questions put to him when he was called today as a witness in the action for criminal libel brought by former Congressman William Astor

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK.
Chancellor against William R. Hearst. Hitchcock bases his refusal upon his constitutional rights in that, as he was himself under indictment he could not be compelled to make answers which might tend to incriminate or degrade him. The witness was sustained by the court and an adjournment taken until tomorrow, as the defense was not prepared to call other witnesses today.
Hitchcock is under indictments growing out of charges made by young girls, and the libel alleged by Mr. Chanler associated the complainant with Hitchcock in the society of these girls.
The defense today asked Hitchcock whether Chanler was present at the actor's Great Neck, L. I., home on a certain Sunday in the latter part of 1906, when two girls were guests at his house. To this and subsequent questions the witness refused to reply.

FORAKER IS
TAFT'S OWN STATE

Columbus, O., Nov. 20.—United States Senator J. B. Foraker, of Ohio, was today endorsed for re-election to the senate and for the Republican nomination for president at a joint meeting of the executive and advisory committees of the Ohio League of Republican Clubs at a meeting held in this city. The committees also declare that they have no sympathy "whatever with the proposition that has been advanced that Senator Foraker be eliminated or retired from public life because he was not able to agree with the president as to the rate bill or joint statehood for New Mexico and Arizona, nor about the Brownsville matter."
The action of the joint committees at once brought out a challenge from A. I. Vorys, manager of the Taft presidential canvas, for a popular primary to determine the choice of the Ohio Republicans of a candidate for president.
The meeting of the joint committees of the Ohio Republican League was held this afternoon. About 5000 ardent supporters of Mr. Foraker, members of the committees or holding proxies, were in attendance.

NEWSPAPERMAN SHOTS LEADING THEATRE MANAGER
Kansas City, Nov. 23.—Richard C. Horne, an editorial writer on the Kansas City Post, shot and seriously wounded O. D. Woodward, manager of the Willis Wood theatre and president of the Post Publishing Co., and slightly wounded Managing Editor J. H. Groves in Grove's private office at noon today. Woodward is president of the Woodward Amusement Company, with theatres in Omaha and other Western cities, and is one of the best known theatre men in this part of the country. Groves for a number of years was managing editor of the old Kansas City Times.
The Post has been cutting down its editorial force and Groves notified Horne today that he was discharged. Woodward was visiting in Grove's office about noon. As he was leaving Horne confronted him, leveled a pistol at him and without a word shot Woodward. Horne fired two more shots into the body. Groves attempted to make his escape but was shot in the hip.
Woodward's condition is believed to be serious.

TRIED TO BRIBE PRESIDENT GOMPERS
Norfolk, Va., Nov. 20.—A great sensation was created in the American Federation of Labor this afternoon by President Gompers in his speech replying to the attacks upon him and other officers of the Federation by the Manufacturers' Association, when he told of an alleged attempt to bribe him at the Victoria Hotel, New York, in October, by a young newspaper man giving his name as Charles Brandenburg. The young man, President Gompers said, declared that he represented the National Manufacturers' Association, and was prepared to offer him immunity for all exposures and make him financially secure for the remainder of his life if he would sign a certain paper and otherwise aid in the exposure of the other leaders of the American Federation of Labor, with the

ADAMS DEFENSE MEETS SURPRISE AT BATHDRUM

Rathdrum, Ida., Nov. 20.—The state sprung a surprise on the defense in the Steve Adams case today when it made an attempt to bring in evidence of other confessions which are alleged to have been made by Adams in relation to other crimes in which the defendant is said to have been involved with officers of the Western Federation of Miners. At the first trial of Adams, at Wallace, Ida., last February, no such attempt was made by the state for the reason that it did not want the defense to become familiar with evidence which might be used in the Hayward case. Now the state wants to throw open the entire case.
Most of the morning was spent in fighting the right of the state to bring in other confessions other than that in which Adams implicates himself in the murder of Fred Tyler, and the court has taken the matter under advisement.
Judge Woods stated this morning before he had heard authorities presented by the state that in his opinion that matter should not be brought into this case.
In the event of the state being allowed to ask the defendant about other confessions it is stated that one of the state's witnesses in rebuttal will surely be Harry Orchard. Other

POWERS WINS POINT IN TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE

Georgetown, Nov. 21.—The defense in the Caleb Powers trial today renewed its motion to have Jas. Howard, now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary, brought here to consult with Powers and his attorneys. Over the objection of the commonwealth's attorneys, Judge Morris granted an order for Howard to be brought from the Frankfort penitentiary and placed in jail with Powers, where they will have ample opportunity to consult.
Later in the trial Howard will testify for Powers.
Yesterday the trial judge dismissed the special venire of Jurymen on the ground that the officials who summoned them were prejudiced against the defendant.
Another fake advertising scheme has been worked on the long-suffering business man—the rural mail directory. The postoffice department refuses to give out these lists and turned the proposition down cold, but the fakirs go right on working the public. The local newspapers that are bending every nerve and energy for the town and carry big pay-rolls, and spend every dollar in the city, are deprived of support by this means, while the transient fakir puts the money in his pocket and leaves for the next place.—Salem Capital Journal.
