SPRINGFIELD NEWS ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST

John Hayes and wife, who recently arrived in Springfield from the Philippines, expect to make this city their future home. Mr. Hayes is a barber by trade, and expects to follow that vocation. Mrs. Hayes is a daughter of Mrs. Fred Snyder.

The enumeration of the Springfield school district has recently been taken and shows an increase of 20 per cent over the last enumeration. This shows a remarkable growth and we would like to be sighted to a district that can make a better showing.

Quite a surprise was sprung upon the public yesterday when it was announced that Henry McCollum and Miss Mabel Watson were united in marriage Thursday, December 26, 1907, at 11 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, west of Eugene. Rev. E. J. Emmons officiated. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about twenty-five relatives and intimate friends.

George Allison, senior partner in the firm of Rowe & Allison, sold his interest in the pool hall and confectionery business to L. Rowe. Mr. Allison has been a member of this firm for the past year and a half. He has not decided as yet what he will do in the future, but expects to remain in Springfield.

The Booth-Kelly mill closed down last Wednesday, laying off the entire crew for a week or until after the holidays, when it is hoped that work will be taken up again with a much larger crew.

O. W. Johnson sold his fine residence property on Mill street last Tuesday to J. A. Stansbie. The deal was brought about through the real estate agency of J. J. Browning. Mr. Johnson informs the News that as soon as spring opens and the weather settles down he will start the erection of one of the finest residences in the city.

The carpenters are now busy putting in the shelving in the I. O. O. F. building and getting ready for the Harry M. Stewart stock of merchandise. The building will be ready to occupy as soon as the big plate glass front is completed. It is understood that the completion of the building is delayed by the contractors being unable to get mill work.

The masquerade dance given by a committee of several young men at the opera house Wednesday night proved quite a success both socially and financially. Only a small crowd were masked, but those who were had the usual good time. Prizes were awarded to the following persons: Best lady waltzer, Mrs. Thomas Tucker; best gentleman waltzer, John Graham; best lady two-step, Gladys McHenry; best gentleman two step, Roy Frantz; best sustained lady character, Mattie Wilson; best sustained gentleman character, Jack Stanley; worst sustained lady character, Frank Whitman; worst sustained gentleman character, Charlie Hardt—News.

WOULD RUIN LUMBER INDUSTRY OF OREGON

R. A. Booth, of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company, who was in Portland yesterday on the way home from Washington, D. C., to his home in Eugene, said today that the proposed rate for lumber to the East would mean serious consequences to the Oregon lumber business. Mr. Booth sounds this alarm on behalf of the manufacturers of the Northwest. He added: "It is admitted that some considerable profit has been made by the lumber people, but it is largely represented in larger and better plants that would be greatly reduced in value if the increased rate is sustained."

"I believe the railroad people are much impressed to find the margin of profit to manufacturers as small as it was shown to be. Knowing it now as they do, if they persist in demanding the advance they knowingly do it at the peril of the industry."

"It is to be regretted that the conflict between the shipper and the railroads is so marked, but the lumbermen are not the aggressors. They are fighting for an existence. If they win, the Northwest will advance as never before. If they lose new theories must be tried that heretofore we have approached with much reluctance."

The $3.10 rate asked for between Willamette valley points and San Francisco differs somewhat from the Eastern rate case, but involves the same principle, being an interstate rate. By an arbitrary advance in this rate on lumber the Southern Pacific company is threatening total destruction of the lumbering industry in the Willamette valley, and, in fact, throughout Western Oregon, where there are not located at water shipping points.—Journal.

STUDENTS FROM MANY OREGON COUNTIES

The following table, taken from the records of the registrar's office, shows that the students of the University of Oregon come from practically every county in the state. That they are not from the homes of the rich is shown from the fact that nearly 75 per cent of them are either wholly, or partially earning their own way. Most of them are registered from the smaller cities of the state that support good high schools. The following counties are represented: Baker, Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Coos, Curry, Douglas, Gilliam, Grant, Josephine, Jackson, Klamath, Lane, Linn, Morrow, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Sherman, Tillamook, Umatilla, Union, Wasco, Washington, Wheeler, Yamhill.

VIDA ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.)

Vida, Dec. 30.—The weather up here has a wintry look. Lots of snow in the mountains and still some falling.

Nearly every one has had the grip or is having it, but no one has had it very badly.

An Xmas tree of unusual beauty and splendor, heavily loaded with presents, was displayed Xmas night in the Order of Washington hall at Vida. A nice program was rendered and a very funny and laughable Santa Claus was attendance who made lots of fun for the little folks. The tree was given by the home folks for the children. Through the benevolent spirit of our enterprising merchant, F. E. Clayton, of Vida, by his bountiful gift of sweets to each and every child, our gifts to the little ones were considerably enlarged. The kindness of Mr. Clayton was appreciated by all, and he has our thanks.

Through the misunderstanding of words great discomfort sometimes ensues, as can readily be seen as you read this little story which I was fortunate enough to hear related by an old and early pioneer, who was one of the participants in the incident. Now this happened many years ago, before civilization had reached these mountains very far. Two pioneers, who were desirous of exploring this new country, started one morning from where the city of Springfield now stands, each carrying large packs of provisions and blankets upon their backs. They set out upon the poorly constructed trail along the McKenzie river, and after tramping and trudging along through an early fall, cold and driving rain, they at last made their way as far as what is now known as Gate Creek, just as it was beginning to get dark, and there they decided to camp for the night. One of the fellows threw off his pack, and in weary words said "Lie there!" The other one, mistaking "lie there" for "bear," scrambled up a small sapling, pack and all, and at the same time yelled "Where?" Now the first man also misunderstood, and in great excitement he too, made for a tree, and after three or four unsuccessful attempts he finally reached a place among the limbs, cold, chilly and almost out of breath. After about 15 minutes of cautious peering around and anxious listening by both fellows, the first fellow at last asked: "Where is the bear?" "Who said bear?" said the second man. "You did," said the first. "I did not; you did." And it was getting to be quite a hot argument as they slid down, and it looked as if two good pioneer friends would clash over the misunderstanding of words. Now, dear readers, always speak clear and distinctly.

A case of infantile was revealed at Roseburg by the discovery of the remains of a newly-born babe in a sewer. The body was badly decomposed. There is no clue to its mother.

MRS. HULL RELATES FALSE STORY OF HER SISTER'S TRAGIC DEATH

New York Dec. 31.—It is reported today that Mrs. Agnes Young, supposed victim of a murder at Harrison, N. J., is alive and employed in a real estate office in this city. In an interview she is quoted as saying that she knows Mrs. Hull, who identified the murdered woman as Mrs. Young, but is unable to understand why Mrs. Hull should tell such a story as she did to the police.

Mrs. Hull told the police that she parted from Mrs. Young on Christmas day and that Mrs. Young was about to start for Harrison in company with Charles Myers. Mrs. Young declared today that while she knew Mrs. Hull she had not seen her for two years.

When Mrs. Hull was told that Mrs. Young was alive she declared the murdered woman was her own

BOMB EXPLODED AMONG BROKERS OF STOCK EXCHANGE

Rome, Dec. 31.—A dynamite bomb was exploded in the stock exchange of this city today. Sixteen persons are known to have been injured. Some of the injured are buried under portions of the buildings, which collapsed, and firemen, police and troops are on the scene conducting the work of rescue. It is supposed that the bomb was thrown with the intention of preventing the customary end of the month liquidation.

The explosion occurred shortly before 4 o'clock, and as the exchange is in the centre of the city, thousands gathered round the spot. The crowd was suddenly seized with fear of further outrages and made a rush to quit the spot, greatly endangering life and limb.

The suspicion that the explosion was intended to prevent liquidation increased. The plan was to destroy millions in securities, but the explosion occurred too late and liquidation was over and nearly all the securities had been removed.

BUILDING BLOWN UP IN NEW YORK CITY

New York, Dec. 31.—A bomb was thrown against the front of a two-story frame building on East 149th street before daylight and endangered the lives of eight persons who were asleep therein. The fish store of Joseph Rae was demolished, and his daughter injured. Rae asked the police because his wife had left him and taken up refuge with her father.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood—they work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily; when unhealthy some of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with the kidneys.

W. W. Gossett, of 558 Madison street, Eugene, Or., says: "I served during the war in the 77th Ohio regiment, under General Grant, and came through the battle of Shiloh without a scratch. For about four months last year I had a most persistent dull aching across the loins and kidneys. It hurt me if I stooped or made any sudden movement. When splitting some wood out in the yard a sharp sudden twinge of pain caught me in my back and I could not move to save my life. A little while afterward I happened to read about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at W. L. DeLanau's drug store. I began the treatment and it effected a permanent cure." (From statement made March 10, 1903.)

Cured to Stay Cured.

On February 9, 1904, Mr. Gossett confirmed the above statement, saying: "I have had no occasion to use any kidney medicine since 1903. The cure I described—before is permanent."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood—they work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily; when unhealthy some of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with the kidneys.

W. W. Gossett, of 558 Madison street, Eugene, Or., says: "I served during the war in the 77th Ohio regiment, under General Grant, and came through the battle of Shiloh without a scratch. For about four months last year I had a most persistent dull aching across the loins and kidneys. It hurt me if I stooped or made any sudden movement. When splitting some wood out in the yard a sharp sudden twinge of pain caught me in my back and I could not move to save my life. A little while afterward I happened to read about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at W. L. DeLanau's drug store. I began the treatment and it effected a permanent cure." (From statement made March 10, 1903.)

Cured to Stay Cured.

On February 9, 1904, Mr. Gossett confirmed the above statement, saying: "I have had no occasion to use any kidney medicine since 1903. The cure I described—before is permanent."

MRS. HULL RELATES FALSE STORY OF HER SISTER'S TRAGIC DEATH

New York Dec. 31.—It is reported today that Mrs. Agnes Young, supposed victim of a murder at Harrison, N. J., is alive and employed in a real estate office in this city. In an interview she is quoted as saying that she knows Mrs. Hull, who identified the murdered woman as Mrs. Young, but is unable to understand why Mrs. Hull should tell such a story as she did to the police.

Mrs. Hull told the police that she parted from Mrs. Young on Christmas day and that Mrs. Young was about to start for Harrison in company with Charles Myers. Mrs. Young declared today that while she knew Mrs. Hull she had not seen her for two years.

When Mrs. Hull was told that Mrs. Young was alive she declared the murdered woman was her own

BOMB EXPLODED AMONG BROKERS OF STOCK EXCHANGE

Rome, Dec. 31.—A dynamite bomb was exploded in the stock exchange of this city today. Sixteen persons are known to have been injured. Some of the injured are buried under portions of the buildings, which collapsed, and firemen, police and troops are on the scene conducting the work of rescue. It is supposed that the bomb was thrown with the intention of preventing the customary end of the month liquidation.

The explosion occurred shortly before 4 o'clock, and as the exchange is in the centre of the city, thousands gathered round the spot. The crowd was suddenly seized with fear of further outrages and made a rush to quit the spot, greatly endangering life and limb.

The suspicion that the explosion was intended to prevent liquidation increased. The plan was to destroy millions in securities, but the explosion occurred too late and liquidation was over and nearly all the securities had been removed.

BUILDING BLOWN UP IN NEW YORK CITY

New York, Dec. 31.—A bomb was thrown against the front of a two-story frame building on East 149th street before daylight and endangered the lives of eight persons who were asleep therein. The fish store of Joseph Rae was demolished, and his daughter injured. Rae asked the police because his wife had left him and taken up refuge with her father.
