MANY CONVENTIONS
WILL BE HELD IN
CITY OF PORTLAND

(Special Correspondence.)
Portland, Ore., Jan. 4.—Oregonians will be busy attending conventions to be held in this city during January. The list includes:

Jan. 13 and 14.—The Northwest Retail Harness & Saddlery Manufacturers' Association.
January 14, 15 and 16.—Oregon Horticultural Society.

Jan. 17 and 18.—Oregon State Press Association.
Jan. 21 and 22.—Retail Grocers' Association.
Jan. 21 and 22.—Oregon Retail Hardware and Implement Dealers' Association.

Jan. 23, 24, and 25.—Pacific Federation of Implement and Hardware Dealers.

A big excursion from the "Inland Empire," through Oregon and California, under the special auspices of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce and the Walla Walla Commercial Club, will spend all day Saturday, February 8, in Portland, where they will be given a ride over the city, luncheon and dinner and reception by a special committee of the Portland Commercial Club. Their itinerary also calls for brief stops at Roseburg and Medford. The chief purpose of this excursion is to interest the thousands of tourists now gathered in Southern California so that they may return to their Eastern homes by way of the Pacific Northwest.

The colonist rates, which resulted in bringing such a vast immigration to Oregon during September and October, 1907, will be in effect for March and April of 1908. The rate applies on all railroads, to all rail points in Oregon, on the same basis as before. $25 from Kansas City, Minneapolis and Duluth; $30 from St. Louis; $33 from Chicago; $50 from New York. The fare is $2.50 less on each ticket sold to a point east of Umatilla. An effort will be made by all the commercial bodies throughout the state of Oregon, to make these two months add 20,000 to the population of the state.

No convention ever held in Oregon has received the liberal national notice accorded to the recent meeting of the Oregon State Dairy Association. Pages have been devoted to it in the agricultural and dairy journals of the country, at a season when the Eastern dairymen are most strongly impressed with the climatic advantages of the state.

At the courthouse January 6, 1908, Fred S. Moody, of Yoncalla, and Miss Elizabeth H. Horn, of Cottage Grove, County Judge G. R. Christman officiating.

NEWS OF LOWER
SIUSLAW COUNTRY

Miss Grace Smith arrived last week for a short stay on her homestead on Maple Creek. She is teaching near Walla Walla, and left Monday on her way back to resume work.

Mrs. George Montgomery and Mrs. Fred Hewitt returned home Tuesday from Salem, where they went to consult a specialist concerning Mrs. Hewitt's little girl's eye. The child has had three surgical operations and is getting along nicely, with excellent prospects that the eye will be saved.

R. H. Bernhardt and son Paul returned home the first of the week from a trip to Portland. They brought back a team of horses, a new wagon and a gasoline engine which they had purchased. On the road in from Eugene Paul had charge of the steering apparatus and his father attended to throwing out and securing the bow line when they wanted to make a landing.

The Degree of Honor held their regular election of officers to serve for the coming term, at their meeting last Thursday evening. The following are those chosen to fill the various chairs: Mrs. W. O. Sutton, chief of honor; Mrs. Alfred Funke; lady of honor; Mrs. E. H. Anderson, chief of ceremonies; Mrs. D. E. Severy, recorder; Mrs. Geo. E. Gibbs, financier; Mrs. A. Ready, inside watch; Mrs. T. C. Saubert, outside watch.

Glenada item: Georhart Steinhauer was coming in from Eugene Monday with a double team and when nearing his brother Herman's place near Lake Creek a stub came down across his team. It was so rotten that it broke up and covered Steinhauer and his wagon with debris, but it struck the horses over the haunches with so much force as to crush them flat to the ground. Stangely, no bones were broken and the animals sprang to their feet and went on at a speed they had never aspired to before.—Florence West.
