BANKER SPENCER KNOCKED DOWN BY GEORGE PARK

Last night S. S. Spencer, president of the Merchants' bank, was assaulted and knocked down in the street by George Park. Spencer was walking along the sidewalk near the Hoffman House with L. H. Potter, vice president of the bank, when they were joined by Park, who walked a few feet with them. Park was intoxicated and began to talk about another banker beating him out of $2000. Spencer made no reply and Park, seeming to become enraged, struck him a stinging blow on the side of the head, knocking him off the sidewalk and into the street. Officer White placed Park under arrest, and the latter appeared in police court this forenoon at 10 o'clock. He was charged with assault and battery, to which he pleaded guilty, stating that he was very drunk and did not know anything of the affair until he was told of it by some of his friends this morning. Judge Dorris imposed the maximum fine of $100 and the money was paid. As Park left the courtroom he grasped Spencer by the hand and with emotion begged his pardon. George is a peaceable citizen when sober, but when liquor gets the best of him he is sometimes a "terror," as expressed by Judge Dorris.

BASKET SOCIAL AT BAILEY SCHOOL HOUSE

On January 10 at 8 p. m., at the Bailey schoolhouse, one of the most enjoyable evenings in the history of the district was spent at a social given by the ladies of the vicinity. Each lady present brought a basket, which was very attractive and well filled; the baskets being placed on the stage for sale. J. H. Dunlap was unanimously chosen for auctioneer, and soon disposed of them to the highest bidders. After a handsome supper was served the remainder of the evening was spent in a social way, assisted by a graphophone. It would hardly be realized that the hour of 11 p. m. had so soon arrived when the attendant departed for their homes.

WOOLWINE BOUND OVER TO COURT

Clyde Woolwine, a young man aged about 20 years, was arrested last evening about 5 o'clock by Constable Plank, on a statutory charge preferred by Mrs. E. Gersack, mother of Hattie Chapman, the 15-year-old girl who attempted suicide the other day. A few days ago the girl, who has been turned over to the juvenile court, told the reason for her attempt at self-destruction. She said that Woolwine had ruined her and she thought that he had left town to get rid of her. Woolwine's arrest followed and he was taken before Judge Bryson, of the justice court, last evening. He waived examination and was bound over to the circuit court in the sum of $600. He is yet unable to furnish the bond. J. M. Pipes is his attorney.

ANNUAL MEETING OF FIRST NATIONAL BANK DIRECTORS

The annual meeting of the directors of the First National bank of Eugene was held last night. The old board of directors and officers were re-elected and various other matters discussed, among them being that of additional room for the bank. It will be remembered that the bank some time ago purchased the one-story brick building adjoining the bank building and at the time it was announced that a second story would be added, the entire first floor of the two buildings to be occupied by the bank. No architect has yet been employed to make the changes but this matter will be attended to some time this summer.

THE PAST YEAR HAS BEEN THE MOST PROSPEROUS IN THE HISTORY OF THE BANK.

MAKE THE STOMACH WORK Indigestion Can Never Be Cured by Molyocodding.

Don't try to cure your stomach trouble by coaxing, fussing, dieting and molyocodding. Make the organ work. If it cannot take care of the food you eat without complaints such as flatulence, indigestion, headaches, and the feeling of fullness or distress, make its muscles work by using Mi-o-na stomach tablets. The time to treat a disordered or weakened stomach is when you begin to suspect that you have indigestion, or the suspicion will turn to certainty very soon. The heartburn, the flatulence, the coated tongue and heavy and dull feeling after eating that come occasionally after you eat too much of something that does not agree with you, can all be cured by Mi-o-na.

Try a 50-cent box of Mi-o-na and Hull's guarantee of money back if it does not do all that is claimed for it.

An undertaking on appeal to the supreme court of the Gue liquor case, which was recently decided in favor of Gue and against the city by the circuit court, was filed today.

R. LaBarre Goodwin, who has painted a portrait of J. W. Johnson, first president of the University of Oregon, will deliver the picture tomorrow. It will be hung in Villard hall, in the centre of the stage, and will be enclosed in a beautiful frame. The portrait is true to life and is certainly a splendid work of art. Mr. Goodwin has been in Eugene for the past three months and during that time has done some of the finest painting ever seen here. He has a splendid exhibit at the Hotel Smeede, and it would pay any one who is at all interested to visit it. There are numerous paintings of landscapes in and around Eugene, birds of game birds. Mr. Goodwin paints from real subjects, embalming birds so they keep their original shape, and paints them true to nature. He is an artist of rare ability.

..It Is Prudent to Insure.. your life or your property. Why is it not as important to insure against adversity in the future by keeping your funds in a bank account? Allow it to accumulate until a time comes when you need it badly—that is when you will appreciate its true worth. Just as the value of your life insurance increases as you grow older, so will your bank account grow as you add to it weekly or monthly. In fact, the possibilities of your bank account are limited only by your earning and saving capacity. An account with this bank is good insurance.
