JACK LONDON MAY BE DRIFTING ON PATHLESS SEA

San Francisco, Jan. 9.—Friends of Jack London, the author, are beginning to feel uneasy over his failure to arrive at the Marquesas Islands, which he was expected to reach early in December. London sailed from

NATHANIEL MARTIN DIES AT COTTAGE GROVE

Cottage Grove, Jan. 9.—Hon. Nathaniel Martin died at his home here this afternoon. He was born in Indiana in 1829. In 1854, with his family and an emigrant train of 12 teams and 50 persons, he started for California, where he arrived safely after a journey of six months. On the plains the party was hampered by Indians, and barely escaped the Mountain Meadow massacre. Mr. Martin came to Oregon in 1855, and settled in Lane county in 1860. In 1865 he secured the appointment as postmaster on a homestead five miles west of here, the office being named Cottage Grove. The office was soon ordered moved here, to be in closer touch with the Oregon & California stage line. Mr. Martin packed up the office and moved here, opening in a blacksmith shop. This was the origin of Cottage Grove. Mr. Martin was the first justice of the peace in this section and gained much popularity. In 1872 he was elected to the state legislature. Mr. Martin leaves a wife, almost 80 years old, and seven children, Willard H. Josse, Mrs. E. C. Barlow, John S. Joel, Ulysses and Nathaniel H.

GOVERNOR DEFENDS PARDON OF HEMBREE.

Salem, Or., Jan. 7.—In answer to numerous criticisms that have been made upon the release of A. J. Hembree from the penitentiary, Governor Chamberlain asserts that there is a grave doubt of Hembree's guilt of the murder of his wife and daughter and that whether there was doubt or not, the Governor is not responsible for the release. Hembree was turned loose upon parole under provisions of the parole law enacted by the Legislature of 1905. "That statute leaves me no discretion if the prisoner's conduct in the penitentiary has been good," said the Governor today. "His conduct in prison is all I have a right to take into consideration in determining whether to grant a parole. If that is an unwise regulation, the fault lies with the law, and not with me."

JAPANESE WAR NEWS FROM COTTAGE GROVE

Here is an exciting piece of war news from the Cottage Grove-Western Oregon. Marshal Snodgrass last week discovered that two Japanese were making diagrams of the Cottage Grove waterworks. These included the pipe line and another reservoir which they located on the flat south of the high school building. When discovered they separated and went north to Saguinaw. It is probable that he will locate and diagram the Booth-Kelly lumber flume. Later the other fellow was arrested on information that he had been making inquiries as to the number of guns, thickness of the armor, the mechanism

We Hear of More Cures

Of troubles originating in impure blood, scrofula, loss of appetite, catarrh, rheumatism, by Hood's Sarsaparilla than by all other so-called remedies combined. Somehow those cured by Hood's seem to stay cured, and they gladly tell the good news to others.

Scrofula Sore—"My wife had a scrofula sore on her leg for years. Many different medicines gave but little benefit. She turned to Hood's Sarsaparilla and the sore quickly healed. It is a good blood medicine." J. N. Darr, Crosby, Texas.

Afflicted 16 Years—"Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me of scrofula, with which I have been troubled 16 years, and caused by vaccination. My little daughter had a scrofula swelling on her neck and Hood's Sarsaparilla also cured her." Mrs. Nona Hootney, Hughey, Tennessee.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold everywhere. In the usual liquid, or in tablet form called Sarsatabs, 100 Doses One Dollar. Prepared only by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

lam and the general destructive powers of the automobile on exhibition in the show window of the Wynne Hardware Company, which he took for an infernal machine. On his person was found a snapshot of it. Mayor Jones brought the matter to the attention of the councilmen on Monday night and the little brown man was ordered deported forthwith, but on Tuesday morning the prosecuting attorney ordered him released as he did not wish to offend the milkado. Accordingly he was given his liberty, but was told that if he did make tracks for the Land of the Rising Sun, the infernal machine would be shipped there and his little island be blown out of existence.

JUDGE DUNNE SAYS COURT WAS BIASED

San Francisco, Jan. 9.—Superior Judge Dunne before whom Schmitz was convicted and Ruef pleaded guilty, did not hesitate to criticize the action of the court of appeals. He said:

"It is to be regretted that the hearing of this appeal came up before a court whose members have relatives and intimates and friends against whom many indictments were returned by the grand jury that returned these true bills. In view of these facts, I do not believe that the court was in the proper frame of mind to give this matter an impartial consideration and decide it strictly upon its merits. I am satisfied that the evidence and the law sustained the judgment and the verdict."

"I will further say that the jury which returned this verdict in accordance with the evidence and the law, will be remembered with respect and honor in the community long after the court which set aside the verdict has been forgotten."

LAWYERS SETTLE IT OUT OF COURT

Grants Pass, Or., Jan. 9.—C. H. Clements, the newly appointed city attorney, and Oliver Brown, a Grants Pass lawyer, who presented the two sides of a saloon case before the county court, passed hot words back and forth, and not being able to settle the argument in the courtroom with words, attempted to reach a settlement in the old-fashioned way outside a bar, and Clements knocked Brown into the gutter, sitting upon him until bystanders interfered. Neither was damaged much. Clements, who is a powerful, athletic fellow, has settled several arguments by the muscle method lately. A few days ago he tossed an obstreperous citizen out of his office and downstairs.

OLD-TIME STAGE DRIVER PAYS EUGENE A VISIT

TOM MORGAN, WHO HANDED REINS BEFORE RAILROAD WAS BUILT, HERE AFTER MANY YEARS.

Tom Morgan, of Heppner, who has been visiting old time friends in Eugene, went to Junction City today and after a short visit there will return to his home. Mr. Morgan was one of the drivers of the overland stages which passed through Eugene every day in the early times, before the railroad was built through here. He came to Eugene 40 years ago and made this city his headquarters, this being one of the division points, or where the drivers and teams were changed. He was here a couple of days in 1893, that being his first visit for many years, but this time he says he hardly recognizes the city, so much has it improved since his last visit here. He was shown about the city by a number of his old friends while here, and to a Guard reporter at the depot today he said he was delighted with the place and thinks it one of the finest cities on the coast.

WHERE IS B. W. DORSEY FORMERLY OF EUGENE

James L. Furnish, clerk at the Eugene Gun Store, informs The Guard that B. W. Dorsey, his uncle, who was employed at the Bangs stable in this city for several months up to last spring, is missing and nothing time past. He left here in the spring for Coos Bay with a stallion. In May he sent Sheriff Fred Jack a check for $20 with which to pay taxes on property he owns on the Siuslaw and the sheriff sent him a receipt. The check was later returned to the sheriff with the statement that there were no funds to Dorsey's credit in the Marshallfield bank upon which the check was drawn, and the letter containing the receipt was returned by the postoffice at Marshallfield, but where he went his relatives here have no idea.

THE TUTTLE ROAD LAW IS UPHELD.

The decision of Judge Galloway was reversed and the case dismissed. The suit will be carried to the United States supreme court. Other opinions were handed down as follows: City of Eugene vs. Lane county; city awarded tax levied by county for road purposes. State vs. Taylor and Trust, appellants from Baker county, reversed. Eldridge vs. Hofer and Zorn, appellants from Marion county, reversed. Robinson vs. Robinson Cheese Co., appellants from Tillamook county, dismissed. State vs. Bartlett, indicted jointly with S. A. Gardner, appellants from Baker county, reversed and new trial ordered.

MRS. CRUZAN PLEADS 'GUILTY TO OLD CHARGE'

She was fined $100 and the amount was paid.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Hallin, of Coburg, and Mrs. Peterson, of Buford, Wis., spent Sunday in this city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hochdanner. Mr. Hallin is superintendent of the Booth-Kelly Company's mill at Coburg, and while here visited the company's mill site in this city, and stated that he thought the company would erect a mill here provided the mill men won out in their suit against the railroad men for lower freight rates.

Some one, evidently familiar with the surroundings, broke into the S. P. depot at this city last Thursday night and took two trunks out of the building, carrying them out back of Wilhelm's warehouse, where they were broken open and a few articles taken therefrom. One of the trunks belonged to Arch Pierce, and the only articles he found missing were a coat and hat. Nothing else seemed to have been disturbed about the building, and it is quite likely that the parties doing the work were simply looking for a few articles of clothing, and had probably been loitering about the depot when the train came in during the evening, and thought that they could find something in them that would be of value to them. They entered the building by prying up one corner of the north door to the warehouse high enough to get one corner of it over a block on the floor and then swinging it far enough open for one to crawl in, when the door was unfastened and rolled open.—Harrisburg Bulletin.

BLEW UP SEVERAL SAFES SECURING ONLY $5

Forest Grove, Or., Jan. 8.—Crackmen ran riot in Forest Grove last night, having attacked three safes before they concluded operations.

The combination was blown off the safe at the Southern Pacific depot, but nothing was secured.

Two strangers, seen here yesterday, are suspected.
