PORTLAND MARKET REPORT.

Portland, Ore., March 13.—Further shipments of California butter to this market are expected within a few days, and it is quite probable that local prices will be put down this week in order to meet the competition from the south. This is the season of high production in California, and it is always a few weeks earlier than that of Oregon. As yet there is no serious accumulation of Oregon crops here but production is steadily increasing and the necessity of a lower price is generally felt in the trade.

Potatoes Here From Bermuda. Real Bermuda potatoes have entered the Portland market and have sold wholesale at 15c a pound. The arrivals were of the garni chill variety and were in fine shape. They came in via New Orleans and the express charge alone amounted to 6c a pound. The potatoes were packed in crates and were generally of small size. Levy & Spiegel, the receivers, say they are among the best supplies ever seen from the islands. It has been many a year since potatoes were shipped to Portland from Bermuda—the high express rate and the fact that Oregon and all Pacific coast states produce a good potato of their own makes shipments from the faraway winter resort almost an impossibility. Bermuda potatoes have a taste peculiar to that country; stocks being rather sweet, yet totally unlike the regular sweet potato. For this reason they are attracting much attention by being displayed in front of a Fourth Street house.

Cheese Market Is Steadier. A steadier tone is shown in the local cheese market. Trade is better—supplies being picked up more freely than for some time and quotations are getting closer together than for several months past. Young Angerles are very scarce and for this reason some supplies were brought up from California on the steamer. These stocks are being offered along the street at 16c a pound.

Wheat and flour trading is very light. Prices nominal in all the former. Asparagus is higher here than in the South because of a severe frost in southern California. A shipment of California egg plant came in this morning. Hides are very weak with values about unchanged. Coffee market continues to show firmness especially for the milder grades.

Portland Livestock Market. The local livestock market today was reported steady at yesterday's quotations. Prevailing prices are: Cattle—Best steers, $4.25 @ $4.50; medium, $3.50 @ $4.00; cows $3.25 @ $3.50; fat to medium cows, $2.75 @ $3.25; bulls $2.00 @ $2.75; calves $3.75 @ $4.50.
Sheep—Good $5.50 @ 6.00; lambs $5.75 @ 6.50.
Hogs—Best $5.25 @ 5.50; lights, fats and feeders, $5.00 @ 5.25.

Portland Quotations. Creamery Butter—30 @ 32 1-2c.
Eggs—17 @ 18c.
Chickens—14 @ 15c.
Wheat—Valley $3; Bluestem 85c.
Oats—Per ton, $26 @ 28.
Barley—Per ton, $27 @ $29.
Hay—Timothy, $18; Cheat $14.
Grain Hay—15 @ 16.
Molasses—Choice, 29 @ 30c.

The Kind You've Always Bought
Bears the Signature of L. J. Hill

FOR YOUR SUNDAY DINNER, try the following delightful dessert: 1-2 cup English Walnut macaroni, 1-2 dozen figs, cut up fine, 1 lb. package JELL-O, any flavor. Dissolve the JELL-O in a pint of boiling water. When cool and beginning to thicken stir in figs and nuts. Serve with whipped cream. Delicious. The walnuts, figs and JELL-O can be bought at any good grocery. This makes enough dessert for a large family, and is very economical.

FOUR INDICTMENTS FOR LIQUOR SELLING

The grand jury this afternoon returned four indictments for liquor selling. One was against Allen Beck, who is already serving a thirty-day sentence for the same offense, and another against Andy Taylor, of the city. He appeared and gave bail and will enter his plea later. The other two persons indicted have not yet been arrested and their names withheld until they are in custody.

Jesse Nielle is out from the hospital. He is a member of the singing firm of Feilman & Nielle, and states that the company got out about half of its loss out of the woods this winter because of the lack of enough water in the river to float them down.

DIED
(From Tuesday's Guard.)
At his home at 395 West Seventh street, in Eugene, at 8:10 o'clock this morning, Valentine Robert Fuller, aged 61 years, after a lingering illness of Bright's disease, complicated with other ailments. Deceased was born February 14, 1847, at Louisville, Ky. He came to Oregon over 20 years ago, settling near Eugene, and had resided here ever since. He leaves a wife by a second marriage and a daughter, Mrs. Park Shoff, of Santa Clara, Cal. She was formerly Miss Mabel Fuller, having been married about five years ago. Mr. Fuller was an old soldier, a veteran of the civil war, having served with the First Minnesota regiment. He was a member of the Baptist church and lived a consistent Christian. He was a good citizen and will be missed by many friends. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

MARRIED
Miss Madeline Bettis and Geo. B. Ward were married at the home of the bride's parents at Coburg on Friday, March 6. The bride is a popular and respected young lady of Coburg and the groom is a well-appearing young man, recently of Harrisburg. There were about eleven guests present. Rev. H. A. Wood, who has recently arrived from the East, performed the ceremony. The happy couple have the well wishes and congratulations of all their Coburg friends.

BURGLARY AT JUNCTION CITY LAST NIGHT
Special to Daily Guard.
Junction City, Or., March 10.—Last night some one entered W. C. Washburn's residence, through a window at the rear of the house and carried off two suits of clothes and all of the silverware. There is no clue to the perpetrators, but it is thought to be the work of some one who is acquainted with the house.

LIFE GUARDS.
The Life Guards are two regiments of cavalry forming part of the British household troops. They are gallant soldiers, and every loyal British heart is proud of them. Not only the King's household, but your's, ours, everybody's should have its life guards. The need of them is especially great when the greatest foes of life, diseases, find allies in the very elements, as colds, influenza, catarrh, the grip, and pneumonia due in the stormy month of March. The best way we know of guard against these diseases is to strengthen the system with Hood's Sarsaparilla—the greatest of all life guards. It removes the conditions in which these diseases make their most successful attacks, give vigor and tone to all the vital organs and functions, and imparts a genial warmth to the blood. Remember the weaker the system the greater the exposure to disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the system strong.

W. S. Abbott has bought Charles Gold's interest in the Eugene-Crow-Mound stage line, and he will be associated in the business with Frank Holland. Mr. Abbott is an old stage driver from Humboldt county, Cal.

Earl Couch, the boy who stole a number of copper vessels from Julius Goldsmith's cigar store and sold them to junk dealers, was committed to the reform school today. He was taken to Salem by Colonel J. M. Williams on the noon train.
