

WOMEN WHO BELIEVE IN PERUNA

Honest Women Who Are Not Afraid to Tell the Truth About Pe-ru-na.

The Value of Health.

Who can set a money value on health? It is absolutely priceless.

No one in good health can fully appreciate what it means to have poor health. The days are long and tedious. The nights horrible and painful. Nothing goes right. Even the mind becomes dazed and injured by continued poor health.

Once liberated from the thralldom of sickness words fail to express the joy and relief.

Peruna has been the means of relieving more women from ill health in the United States than, perhaps, any other medicine.

A multitude of women stand ready to give testimony in favor of Peruna whenever occasion offers.

Dyspepsia Entirely Relieved.

Miss Lillie C. Martin, Shelbyville, Tenn., writes: "Everybody says I look better than I have for two or three years, and I sincerely thank you for your kind advice."

"I believe your treatment has entirely cured me. I can eat anything I want. I believe your remedies will cure any case of indigestion or dyspepsia."

Since I have used Peruna I have a splendid appetite, enjoy life and perfect health.

MRS. F. E. HENDERSON

Caught Cold Easily.

Mrs. F. E. Henderson, 221 Ninth St., Milwaukee, Wis., writes: "I never had any faith in patent medicines until I tried Peruna, but my experience with this reliable medicine has taught me that there is one which can be trusted, and which will not fail in time of need."

"For the past few years I have found that I caught cold easily, which would settle in a most unpleasant catarrh of the head. I had to be especially careful about being out of evenings, and not to get chilled when dressed thin for parties, but since I have used Peruna my general health is improved, and my system is in such good condition that even though I am exposed to inclement weather it no longer affects me."

"I have a splendid appetite and enjoy life, being in perfect health."

Pe-ru-na Tablets.

For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have labored incessantly to create Peruna in tablet form, and their strenuous efforts have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna tablets. These tablets represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna, and each tablet is equivalent to one average dose.

Mrs. Josephine Holst, 102 E. First St., Portland, Ore., writes that she was troubled seriously with catarrh of the throat, that she used Peruna and was wonderfully helped in two weeks, and in a little over two months her system was rid of all traces of catarrh.

MISS HELEN SAUERBIERE

Head and Throat.

Miss Helen Sauerbiere, 815 Main St., St. Joseph, Mich., writes: "Last winter I caught a sudden cold which developed into an unpleasant catarrh of the head and throat, depriving me of my appetite and usual good spirits."

"A friend who had been cured by Peruna advised me to try it and I sent for a bottle at once, and I am glad to say that in three days the phlegm had loosened, and I felt better, my appetite returned and within nine days I was in my usual good health."

WANTS MARRIAGE CEREMONY DECLARED NULL AND VOID

Louisa A. Bowen today began suit in the circuit court against David B. Parmenter, asking the court to annul and declare void their marriage, which was solemnized in Eugene October 21, 1907, by Rev. M. C. Wilson.

It will be remembered that Parmenter, who resided on a farm near Walker station, was sued for divorce by Mrs. Parmenter No. 1 last fall on the ground that he had married another woman without being legally free from his first wife. She was granted the divorce and Parmenter was arrested on the charge of bigamy. When his case came up for trial at the last term of court he could not be found and his bond was declared forfeited.

Mrs. Parmenter alleges in her complaint that Parmenter, in June, 1907, also married a woman, who is represented to her through letters that he was unmarried; that his wife had been dead for two years; that he owned a valuable farm worth $5000 and raised wheat, oats, corn and several kinds of fruit, that he was a man who "remembered his God," and requested her to come to Oregon from North Dakota, where she was then living, and become his wife. He also asked her to bring her son and he would educate him and make a farmer of him. She came to Oregon and the marriage ceremony was performed in Eugene by Rev. M. C. Wilson on October 21, 1907.

It will be remembered that when Mrs. Parmenter No. 1 arrived here from Tacoma to begin suit for divorce Mrs. Parmenter No. 2 immediately left Parmenter, who afterward left the country.

INTERNATIONAL LAW

THEME OF SPEECH

BY ELIHU ROOT

Washington, April 24.—The second annual meeting of the American Society of International Law opened here today. A long program will keep the hundred or more members of the society engaged until tomorrow night.

A feature today was the annual address of Secretary of State Elihu Root, president of the society, in which it was most interestingly shown that world is being governed by public opinion, and that public opinion is becoming more humane and less warlike.

Mr. Root said in part: "In the vast majority of practical questions arising under the rules of international law there does not appear on the surface any reason why either party should abandon its own contention or to yield to the arguments of the other side. This apparent absence of sanction for the enforcement of the rules of international law has led great authorities to deny that these rules are entitled to be called law at all and thus apparent hopelessness of finality carries to the mind which limits its consideration to the procedure in each case a certain sense of utility or argument. Nevertheless all the foreign affairs of the civilized world are continually discussing with each other questions of international law publicly and privately, cheerfully marshaling facts, sifting evidence and presenting facts, thus building up and establishing rules of international law that there are such things to be done, and in countless cases nations are yielding to such arguments and shaping their conduct against their own apparent interest in the particular cases under discussion in obedience to the rules which are shown to be applicable."

"Careful consideration seems to lead to the conclusion that there are sanctions for the enforcement of international law no less real and substantial than those which insure obedience to municipal law."

"In the majority of cases men refrain from criminal conduct because they are unwilling to incur in the community in which they live the public condemnation and obloquy which would follow a repudiation of the standard of conduct prescribed by that community for its members. Where it happens that the law and public opinion point different ways the latter is invariably the stronger. The force of law is in the public opinion which prescribes it. Conformity to the standard of business integrity, which obtains in the community, is necessary to success. Social custom and standing, power and high place in the professions, in public office, in all associated enterprises depend upon conforming to the standard of conduct. The loss of these is the most severe penalty society can inflict."

"The rules of international law are enforced by the same kind of sanction, less certain and peremptory, but continually increasing in effectiveness of control. A decent respect for the opinions of mankind did not begin with the American declaration of independence, but it is interesting that the public opinion of the world has advanced so that the settlement of disputes between nations are brought about by an appeal to that international public opinion, the power and effectiveness of which the new world has done so much to promote."

"The deference shown to international public opinion is in due proportion to a nation's greatness and advance in civilization. The nearest approach to defiance is found among the most isolated and least civilized of countries, whose ignorance of the world prevents the effect of the world's opinion, and in every such country internal disorder, oppression, poverty and wretchedness mark the penalties which warn mankind that the laws established by civilization for the guidance of national conduct cannot be ignored with impunity.

"Manifestly this power of international public opinion is exercised not so much by governments as by the people of each country whose opinions are interpreted in the press and determine the country's attitude toward the nation whose conduct is under consideration. International opinion is the consensus of individual opinion in the nations. The most certain way to promote obedience to the law of nations and to substitute the power of opinion for the power of armies and navies is, on the one hand, to foster that decent respect for the opinions of mankind which we showed in our declaration of principles of government in 1776, and on the other hand spread among the people of every country a just appreciation of international law to which national conduct ought to conform; that the general opinion whose approval or condemnation supports the sanction of the law may be sound and just, worthy of respect."

STAGE COMPANY

SUED FOR $61,000

Portland, April 23.—C. W. Maynard, of Olympia and Chehalis, former state treasurer of Washington, filed suit against the Umpqua River Steam Navigation Company, of Gardiner, Oregon, for $61,000 personal damages in the United States circuit court this morning on the grounds that he had been severely injured and crippled as the result of a stage coach accident near Scottsburg, Oregon, in March last year.

Mr. Maynard alleges that the use of his left arm has been injured permanently as the result of a broken collar bone, and that he has suffered ever since the accident. The stage went over an embankment, this being due to the carelessness of the driver, says the plaintiff.

For six weeks afterward Mr. Maynard says he was confined in the North Pacific sanatorium in Portland. He says also that he has been sick and disabled ever since the accident.

He was on his way to Marshfield, having taken the stage at Drain. W. F. Jewett is president of the company owning the stage, and O. B. Hindsdale secretary and treasurer.

JUNCTION CITY

WANTS MORE LIGHT

Arrangements have been made with the Ralston Electric Supply Co. of this city, to do a large amount of electric wiring at Junction City, and within the next week it is expected that a force of men will wire the business and residence districts that have not already been supplied with lights. Up to the present time only part of the city has had electric lights, and as the owners of the power plant did not have available money for the work they turned the same over to the Olbank company. R. D. Robinson was in Junction last week making final arrangements and outlining the work to be done. He says the Junction City council will have some work done on its streets and with the amount of business houses and residences that have spoken for lights it is expected that the company will be busy for a week or more.—Albany Herald.

ABOLISH MERRY WIDOW

HATS IN CHURCH

Burlington, N. J., April 22.—Several local churches have proposed a ban upon Merry Widow hats in the congregation during the services. Pastors declare that men are becoming fewer at the services as the number of big hats increase, and that the popular style threatens to make many male backsliders.

Ushers in some of the more crowded churches were at their wits' end to seat their Easter congregation. Pews which have comfortably accommodated six persons would hold no more than four when the quartet wore large hats.

In the prominent churches here it is proposed to request women who wear their big hats to church to check them at the cloakroom during the service.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

WINS IN LOUISIANA

New Orleans, April 23.—Returns from yesterday's state election showed that James Sanders, the Democratic nominee for governor, and all other candidates on the Democratic ticket were elected by large majorities. The indications are that of 60,000 or more votes polled throughout the state, Henry N. Pharr, Republican candidate for governor, received less than 10 per cent.

In the four parishes in which prohibition elections were held incomplete returns indicate that the victories will be about evenly divided.

W. H. Lytle, of Pradenton, is in Eugene for a few days.

THE DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE

HOLDS MEETING

(From Saturday's Daily Guard.)

The Lane County Democratic Central Committee met at the law office of L. M. Travis in the Eugene Loan & Savings bank building this forenoon at 10 o'clock, 12 precincts being represented. There were also present a number of the candidates for county offices.

The committee ratified the action of last Wednesday in re-electing the old officers, who are: L. M. Travis, chairman; M. S. Wallis, secretary, and S. S. Spencer, treasurer. The committee discussed plans for the coming campaign and decided to accept Statement No. 1 as the paramount issue on the legislative ticket. A motion was made and carried that the officers of the central committee be empowered to select delegates from the county to the state conv. at Portland, to be held some time next month, and that the delegation be instructed to use all honorable means to have the state convention instruct the Oregon delegates to the Democratic national convention to vote for William Jennings Bryan as the nominee for president.

PLEASANT HILL CEMETERY

IMPROVEMENTS

The school directors of Pleasant Hill have decided to erect a women work fence around the Pleasant Hill cemetery in the near future. They have circulated a petition and people donated freely. Not feeling all that are interested in the cemetery, they are requested to leave what they wish for fixing the yard with Darwin Bristow at the First National Bank, and those that have subscribed do the same.

MANY ARE TAKING

FOREST EXAMINATIONS

The civil service examination for positions in the forest reserves is being conducted in the armory pavilion today by Supervisor C. R. Seltz, of the Umpqua and Tillamook reserves. There were seventy informal applications for the examination, but when the work began this morning there were only 32 on hand. The written work will probably be finished up today, and the field work will begin tomorrow, probably lasting two whole days.

One whole side of the armory pavilion is fitted up with tables and chairs for the examination. Each man is supplied with a printed list of questions for the office test and the answers are written on blanks supplied for that purpose. Those who are taking the examination are as follows:

A REAL GIBRALTAR

Manila, April 23.—The erection of a fortress that cannot be broken and the building up of a power that will be supreme in the East is declared to be the policy of the United States in the Far East.

The powers are just waking up to this fact and for that reason they believe the plan for moving their naval base from Olongapo to Manila bay is in line with the plan to make the bay bristle with 14-inch guns that all the navies of the earth cannot pass them.

A recent article in the Novorossia Vremya points out that Uncle Sam is constructing a naval base at Cavite of such strength that he can command and insist upon an open door in China.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

LYNCH MURDERER IN MINNG TOWN

Rholite, Nev., April 23.—Joe Simpson, who killed James Arnold on Sunday, was lynched at Skidoo, Cal., last night. A small band of citizens overpowered the sheriff's guard and hanged the prisoner to a telegraph pole.

Simpson was a gambler and was hanged to the cross-arm pole to which he was bound Sunday, after he made his attempt on the life of Cashier Dobbs, of the Southern California bank at Skidoo. He bore an unenviable reputation and was imprisoned and after threatening Dobbs shot and killed Arnold in the most cold-blooded manner.

Arnold was a butcher and heavily interested in mines. As justice of the peace he had been instrumental in prosecuting Simpson on several occasions. The lynching is greatly applauded.

MAY PURCHASE

THE BIG INTEREST OF O. C. & N. CO.

Oscar J. Smith, of Reno, Nev., J. R. Ware, of Chicago, and H. F. Collett, of San Francisco, who have been on Coos Bay for three or four days investigating the holdings of the Oregon Coal and Navigation Company, left this afternoon for San Francisco, where a deal will probably be closed for the purchase of the property, says the Coos Bay Times.

The Oregon Coal & Navigation Company's holdings include the steamship M. P. Plant, which plies between Coos Bay and San Francisco, the Libby coal mine, waterfront property in Marshfield and Empire and several thousand acres of land near this city. It is understood that about $500,000 is involved in the deal.

Just before leaving today Mr. Smith said he had no statement to give out. He said that the deal was simply on and that nothing except premature news could be made public now. Mr. Collett is a mining engineer and spent most of his time inspecting the Libby mine and coal property.

"I am very favorably impressed with this country," said Mr. Smith, for whom this was the second visit to Coos Bay. "It is going to develop very rapidly from now on and I am anxious to get in on it. What we will do will depend upon the conclusion reached after a discussion of the investigation. I am already convinced that Coos Bay, on account of its resources and location, has a great future."

The Oregon Coal and Navigation Company has headquarters in San Francisco. No one here knew of the deal until the investigation of the Libby mine property aroused suspicions.

State Treasurer Steel was the principal witness for the state, but he failed to remember many of the details of his business with the defunct bank.

FULTON CONGRATULATES SUCCESSFUL RIVAL

United States Senator Charles W. Fulton has written a letter to H. M. Calk, who defeated Fulton for the senatorial nomination last week, in which the senator extends his congratulations to his successful opponent and assures him of such support as the senator can give. In conclusion Senator Fulton says he believes Calk will be elected. Senator Fulton's letter, which was written on the eve of his departure for Washington to resume his duties, is as follows:

Portland, Ore., April 20.—My dear Mr. Calk:—I am leaving for the East in the morning, and before going wish to extend to you my congratulations on your nomination and assurances of all the support I can give. Trusting and believing that you will be elected, I am, sincerely yours, "Signed" "C. W. FULTON."

Immediately upon his return to Washington Senator Fulton will take up the matters that have been pending during his absence from the senate. He will first devote himself to insisting on action on the railroad land grant resolution, which has been held up, and the senator expects to have this reported out of the committee, where it is now peacefully reposing.—Portland Telegram.

COLEMAN ELECTED AS DELEGATE TO CONFERENCE

Salem, April 23.—Word has been received by the friends of Dr. J. H. Coleman in Salem that the former president of Willamette University has been elected a delegate to the general conference from the Troy conference, which met at Saratoga, N. Y., Friday. Dr. Coleman's name is also prominently mentioned as a candidate for bishop before the general conference.

Dr. Coleman's election after six years' absence in the West is regarded as an excellent tribute to his popularity at home. The other candidates are reported to be his supporters and will work as a unit in forwarding his interests when the general conference meets in Baltimore in June.
