THE HORSE SHOW AND MARKET DAY JUNE TWENTY

To let our readers know with whom they are dealing and who the people are that are inaugurating Eugene's first annual horse show parade and first monthly market day, it being the Messrs. Colgate and Zimmerman's intention to hold a regular market day every month, we will state that James B. Colgate is a grandson of James B. Colgate, of the great Colgate & Company's soaps and perfumes, of New York city, who was also president of the gold exchange, and Colgate Seminary, of Hamilton, N. Y., being named after him. He left $1,000,000 to that institution. He died about four years ago, leaving his millions. Jas. B. Colgate, who is in Eugene now, being one of his favorite heirs. He is about 25 years old, and is one of the most unassuming and modest young men in the world. He has his hobbies, however—a fine string of horses and a little fun and excitement. Mr. Colgate's father, Wm. Hoyt Colgate, is one of the prominent residents of Portland, also maintaining a residence in New York. So our readers may know that they are dealing with people up in "G."

Associated with Mr. Colgate is Max Zimmerman, an old-time family friend of the Colgates, and is now making a tour of the Northwest combining business with pleasure. He is known as the Blue Ribbon auctioneer of the Northwest, having gained his distinction at North Yakima, Wash., where he sold at the N. P. stock yards last fall 74 fancy heavy unbroken draft mares in an hour and a half, the prices ranging from $225 to $450, pretty good prices for young unbroken horses. So it pays the farmers to raise the best. The following are a few press notices from Seattle and Bismark, N. D., regarding Mr. Zimmerman:

Seattle Times: Max Zimmerman, of St. Paul, one of the best known horse auctioneers in the Middle West, if not in the United States, and whose reputation as an auctioneer is a national one, has decided that the Northwest offers better inducements in his line than any other part of the country and has come here to locate.

Bismark Tribune: Max Zimmerman is the best-natured and most capable auctioneer in the Northwest, whose "ballyhooing" is worth going miles to hear. Farmers, you will have a rare entertainment, besides big bargains, on his market days.

Mr. Zimmerman is a brother of Zimmerman, of Barrett & Zimmerman, of Midway, St. Paul, Minn, America's greatest horse dealers. So this is enough said. A great time is promised in Eugene Saturday, June 20, a day to be remembered as one of Eugene's greatest business and pleasure events. The red booster cards show who the boosters are.

EUGENE SEEKS VISIT FROM PORTLAND MEN

Eugene business men want the people of Portland to take a trip to the former city and inspect the big improvements made in the last year, says the Portland Journal. A committee of Eugene business men will within a few days come to Portland to make preliminary arrangements for such an excursion.

"We have been doing some good work at Eugene in the last year," said S. H. Friendly at the Portland Commercial Club today, "and we want Portland to make us a visit. Eugene is no longer an unimproved country town, but a thriving, good-looking city, prosperous and happy with what it already possesses, and the many greater and better things it is still to secure.

"We propose that a special train shall be run from Portland to Eugene on Wednesday, June 24, on a schedule that will permit the Portland delegation to spend the day with us. The train should leave Portland about 7 a. m., and returning reach Portland about 8 or 9 o'clock in the evening. These details can, however, be arranged to suit all. We want a big delegation of Portland men to come to Eugene some day this month and be the guests of the city of Eugene."

VOTE ON THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON BILL

Complete official returns from all counties but Harney, Malheur and Wheeler have reduced the majority in favor of the University of Oregon appropriation bill to 2131 says Sunday's Oregonian. Partial returns from Malheur county indicate that the bill has been defeated there, but it has carried in Wheeler, while Harney is in doubt. The complete returns from all three of these counties will not change the result in any way, for their vote is light and will break about even on the University question.

The counties of the Willamette valley have rolled up enormous majorities against the bill, Marion county leading the list with an adverse majority of 2213, and Linn following with a majority of 1902. In Columbia county the appropriation was defeated by one vote, and in Crook by 15. Several other counties returned small majorities against the bill.

Among the counties that have sustained the legislature and approved the bill, Multnomah heads the list with a majority of 8390. Lane county comes next with a majority of 1778, Jackson third woth 692 and Clatsop fourth with 609. The counties of Baker, Umatilla, Coos, Sherman, Klamath and Lake have all given big votes in favor of the bill.

The complete returns, with the exception of the three counties mentioned above, are as follows:

County	Yes.	No.
Baker	1219	834
Benton	543	1050
Clackamas	1216	2812
Clatsop	1184	575

Totals	42,163	39,532

Affirmative majority, 2631.

UNIVERSITY'S MAJORITY NOW OVER 3500

Complete official returns from all counties but Harney and Wheeler show that the University of Oregon appropriation bill has passed by a majority of 3369. The returns from the above counties will not change the result materially, for their vote is light and will probably break about even on the University question. Multnomah county has given the bill a majority of 9480 instead of 8390, as first announced.

The total affirmative vote on the measure, with the exception of the vote of Harney and Wheeler counties, is 43,253, as against a total negative vote of 40,149. In this city the bill has carried at the rate of 2 to 1; and in such cities as Astoria, The Dalles, Pendleton, LaGrande, Baker City, Roseburg, Marshfield and Ashland, the vote has been about two to one in favor of the measure. In many of the country districts of the Willamette valley the vote has been overwhelmingly against the University. The country districts of this county and of Eastern Oregon have given more favorable returns for the University, especially in the communities where the alumni and students of the University reside.—Oregonian.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS ELECT GRAND OFFICERS

Portland, June 9.—Officers were elected by the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Oregon yesterday to serve for the ensuing year. Installation of the new officials occurred yesterday afternoon, and the sessions of the grand chapter closed last night.

Numbers of out-of-town Masons are in the city in attendance at the various Masonic gatherings scheduled for this week. In addition to the work of conferring degrees there will be special lodge meetings of the various local organizations.

A. H. Stainer, of Salem, was elected grand high priest yesterday afternoon. Other officers elected are as follows: Deputy grand high priest, [illegible] Riddle, LaGrande; grand king, Frank J. Miller, Albany; grand scribe, C. J. Bellknap, Oregon City; grand treasurer, D. P. Mason, Albany; grand secretary, James F. Robinson, Portland; grand captain of the host, Orme Hayter, Dallas; grand [illegible], O. P. Coshow, Roseburg.

The grand high priest-elect appointed the following officers: Grand chaplain, P. O. Bors, Hoppner; principal sojourner, M. S. Woodcock, Corvallis; royal arch captain, J. M. Howe, Eugene; master of third veil, L. C. Marshall, Albany; master of second veil, George E. Davis, Canyon City; master of the first veil, Chris Evans, Portland; grand sentinel, D. G. Tomasini, Portland.

TAFT MACHINE REFUSES OFFERS OF COMPROMISE

Chicago, June 8.—A few handfuls of sand were thrown into the cylinders of the Taft political machine late today. So far everything that has come up has been handled quickly and decisively by the Taft men, but today from their own membership came a proposition to divide the Louisiana delegation, seating both Taft and anti-Taft delegates with half a vote for each. The committee brought about an adjournment rather than permit a vote to be taken today.

Members of the committee who have been ardent Taft supporters, but who have shown a disposition to yield to the appeals of the allied forces to compromise in the interest of harmony, will be subjected to pressure from Washington. To allow time for this was the purpose of the sudden adjournment today.

Hitchcock Will Fight Out.

Frank H. Hitchcock announced there will be no compromise. He is determined to fight for the seating of the delegates instructed for Mr. Taft and declared that he will insist that the committee pass upon all contests. To settle them in any other way, he said, would be unfair to the delegations themselves. He expressed the opinion that the committee should not shirk the responsibility of sitting in judgment upon the merits of every contest, and in his view he is supported by practically every committeeman of the West and South and many from the North.

Thus far contests have been settled from the states of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia and Kentucky and there has been no division of any of them. The reason for this has been the rule which denies a recall on any question unless it is demanded by 20 members and the anti-Taft people have not that number on the committee.

Bradley Is Indignant.

Kentucky offered a spectacular scene this afternoon when Senator-elect William O. Bradley, in presenting the case of Fairbanks from the Fifth district of that state, vehemently declared:

"I will present no further evidence before this committee. Under the circumstances it simply amounts to going against a brace game. Personally I shall not bolt the Republican ticket, but I want to warn this committee that it will be responsible for the result when the votes are counted in Kentucky."

According to a committeeman who just came out of the session, Bradley called Clayton B. Blakley of Louisville a liar, when Blakeley stated that Bradley had said the nomination of Taft would mean the defeat of the Republican party in Kentucky.

The two Kentuckians became wildly excited and their friends had great difficulty in preventing a personal encounter.

The Republican National Committee was forced to adjourn for a short time on account of the threatened collapse of the temporary building in which it is holding its meetings. A high wind loosened some of the framework and the members of the committee hastily adjourned until carpenters could brace the tottering structure.

HERMAN BILLEK MUST BE HANGED

Springfield, Ill., June 8.—The governor and the pardon board today refused to commute the sentence of death passed upon Herman Billek, who was convicted of having murdered the entire Vzral family in Chicago.

Billek was convicted after a hard-fought legal battle, which lasted two weeks. The poisoning of the Vzral family was a mystery for months before the crime was fastened upon Billek. The murderer will be hanged Friday.

Thinks It Saved His Life.

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine, says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for years for coughs and colds, and I think it saved my life. I have found it a reliable remedy for throat and lung troubles, and would no more be without a bottle than I would be without food." For nearly forty years New Discovery has been at the head of throat and lung remedies. As a preventative of pneumonia and healer of weak lungs it has no equal. Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve Wins

Tom Moore, of Rural Route 1, Cochran, Ga., writes: "I had a bad sore come on the instep of my foot, and could find nothing that would heal it until I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Less than half of a 25-cent box won the day for me by effecting a permanent cure." Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store.

FIGHT AGAINST PROHIBITION AT MEDFORD

Action was begun today to prevent prohibition from going into effect in Medford, as provided under the city charter, says the Medford Tribune. A temporary injunction was applied for from Circuit Judge Hanna by Attorney Robert G. Smith, representing J. C. Hall, to restrain the county court from declaring prohibition in effect in Medford, as provided under the local option law. It is expected that prohibitionists will seek to dismiss the injunction, which the wet forces will seek to have made permanent. Attorney McAlister, of the Anti-Saloon League, is in the city, presumably to defend the league's cause.

The charter's clause, under which the action is brought, reads as follows:

"The city council shall have power and authority within the city of Medford to license, tax, regulate or prohibit barrooms, drinking shops, billiard rooms, bowling alleys, dance halls, and all places where spirituous, malt or vinous liquors are sold or kept for sale, irrespective of any general law of the state on this subject, enacted by the legislature or by the people at large."

The county court is compelled by the local option law to declare the result of prohibition 11 days after the election. The case will be fought at every point by the wet town advocates.

Attorney Smith said today: "This is not a question of sentiment, but of law, which, I think, is altogether in favor of the charter, which was passed after the local option law. The only supreme court decision upon the point is that of the case of Renshaw vs. the county court of Lane county, where it was held that if the city charter had been specific on the questions involved, it would have been binding. Medford's charter is specific."

WOMEN WALKS MILES PUSHING A CART

SAYS HER HUSBAND DESERTED HER AND LEFT HER TO THE CARE OF HERSELF AND CHILDREN

A pitiful case of destitution and want is that of a woman and three little children who have been in Eugene since yesterday, having walked all the way here from somewhere in Marion county, where she says her husband deserted her, leaving her without any means of support. The woman, whose name is not learned, her whereabouts today not being known, arrived here yesterday afternoon with what few effects she could gather when she was turned out of her home, in a push cart. She traveled along the county roads and depended upon what little work she could obtain from persons along the route for the money with which to keep herself and children alive. She is said to be on her way to California, where she has relatives. The county authorities will probably look into the case if the woman can be found. She is said to have camped last night over across the river bridge.

NEW CLUB HOUSE FOR UNIVERSITY GIRLS

J. E. Yarnall, of this city, has recently bought a lot on Alder street from Professor F. S. Dunn, adjoining the latter's residence at the corner of East Fourteenth and Alder streets, and will erect there this summer a clubhouse for the Kiowa Tillicum sorority, composed of University girls who are now occupying the larger house owned by the Old Folks' Home of the Christian church on East Twelfth street. Plans for the building are now being completed by Architect John Hunzicker, and as soon as they are completed so that the contractors can figure on the building the contract will be let. The house will cost in the neighborhood of $6,000, and will be two stories and a half high, with a full basement. It will contain all the latest conveniences and appointments and will be a splendid home for this popular sorority.

FIFTEEN YEARS OF AGONY

Will You Continue to Suffer from Catarrh in the Face of This Testimony

"I suffered for fifteen years with catarrh troubles so bad that I had to leave the sea. I could not lie down to sleep at night on account of the constant catarrhal dropping. I went to two different hospitals for treatment, but without any lasting benefit. I was constantly raising yellow and green phlegm, and the trouble was so unbearable and nauseating that I was ashamed to go out in company. I have used only two bottles of Hyomei, and have been cured by the remedy. It has made full and complete recovery."—Captain Willis[illegible].

Hyomei is a dry, healing, antiseptic air, extracted from the eucalyptus groves of Australia. It is a pleasure to use Hyomei, because you do not take it into the stomach; you simply breathe in this germ-killing air, and relief is immediate, and complete recovery comes in a few days. Hyomei outfit, including an inhaler that will last a lifetime, costs $1. If it does not cure your catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, coughs or colds, the Red Cross Drug Company will give you your money back.
