

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH RELIEVED.

Perhaps No Medicine in the World Has Relieved More Cases of Catarrh of the Stomach Than Pe-ru-na.

ALDERMAN GEO. W. WEICK, DENVER, COL. SAYS: "I HAVE USED PERUNA FOR CATARRH OF THE STOMACH AND IT HAS HELPED ME WONDERFULLY."

SOME OTHER STARTLING TESTIMONIALS.

ALDERMAN GEORGE W. WEICK, 1151 South Seventh Street, Denver, Colo., Alderman Eleventh Ward, writes: "I have used Peruna for catarrh of the stomach and it has helped me wonderfully."
Chronic Stomach Trouble. Mr. Samuel A. Seal, Route 2, Treadway, Tenn., writes: "It gives me great pleasure to testify to the great good your medicine, Peruna, has done for me in a chronic case of catarrh of the stomach. I was confined to my bed for some time, and could not sit up. I had tried everything that I could find recommended for catarrh, without any benefit. I tried the best physicians in Hancock County, with little or no benefit. I then tried two of the best physicians in Hawkins County, and found they were doing me no good. I was gradually growing worse. "Then a friend of mine, passing by, handed me one of your pamphlets, and seeing how Peruna was recommended for catarrh, I sent to Rogersville, Tennessee, next morning, a distance of about fifteen miles, and procured some of your Peruna, and began taking same according to directions, and after taking a few days I began to get better. "I continued using it until I was able to go to work on the farm again, and now I am in very good health and do work on my farm. People who Object to Liquid Medicines Should Buy Peruna Tablets

SAYS WIFE HAS VERY BAD TEMPER

Arthur W. Summers yesterday began suit in the circuit court against his wife, Frances M., for divorce and for the custody of their minor child, Clifford. In his complaint Summers alleges that he and his wife were married at Junction City on January 14, 1905. He claims that his wife has an unmanageable temper and is continually interfering with his business, thus holding him up to the ridicule of persons with whom he does business and with his family and friends. He alleges that she has threatened to kill him. Williams & Ben are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

ELECTION NOTES

Sheriff Smith was the only Democrat elected to county office in Linn, but they got the members of the legislature and carried the county for Chamberlain.

Linn goes about 1200 against the University appropriation; Tillamook, 122; Yamhill, 700; Clackamas, 490; Washington, a few hundred and Benton about the same; Marion, 1500. The appropriation carries Jackson, Josephine, Douglas, Klamath, Lake, Lane, Multnomah (by 5500), Coos, Wasco, Wheeler, Umatilla, Baker and probably all the other Eastern Oregon counties except Wallowa. The vote in the state outside of Multnomah will be close.

The U. of O. appropriation bill is defeated in Linn county by 1000 to 1500 votes. Some precincts have voted almost solidly against it. In Kingston, for instance, there was only 1 vote for it and 47 against. In Tallman there were only 7 for it. This was Eugene Palmer's precinct. He declares that three of these were mistakes.—Democrat.

In Benton county the Republicans elected Gollaty sheriff, Hawley commissioner, Mack superintendent, Newton recorder, Wilker surveyor, Boyce coroner; the Democrats, Moses clerk, Buchanan treasurer, and Richards assessor. B. F. Jones will be joint representative of Polk and Lincoln.

Clastop county, Senator Fulton's home, gave Chamberlain 300 over Calkins.

Congressman Hawley has a majority of over 15,000 and Ellis as much in the second district, indicating about 30,000 Republican majority, which is about Bailey's majority.

B. B. McKinney has bought the quarter block at the corner of West Tenth and Charnelton streets from J. Holt Brown for $4200. He will build a fine residence there in the near future.

Final proofs on timber claims were made before U. S. Commissioner W. W. Calkins today by Minnie M. Holcomb, Ackwith, Iowa; Carey O. Smith, Coburg; Josiah B. Taylor, Eugene, and H. K. Shirk, of Eugene, and today by Milo J. Skinner, Coburg.

Heart to Heart Talks.

YOUR SON—DO YOU KNOW HIM?

"Oh, my boy is all right. He may be a little wild, but I am sure he would not do anything very bad." That was the way a fond mother spoke of her son when a friend hinted concerning the young man's habits. The son is of age, a kind hearted, bright young fellow, and is the idol of his mother. What are the facts about the boy? In a word, he is doing about everything a boy ought not to do. He does more than take an "occasional drink." He gambles regularly. He attends to business all right in business hours. Out of business hours he devotes himself to various vices. The fact is this young man is rapidly going to the dogs. And there is pathos in the thought that his mother believes he is a good sort of boy, only "a little wild." She will never know her son as he is until some crisis comes. Some day he is likely to disgrace his family and cruelly shock a disinterested mother. Why is the son going wrong? He comes of a good family. He has been well educated. His mother has taught him from his youth up the principles of right living. Having fortified him in this way, his parents do not dream that the son is leading a dissolute and unclean life. Father and mother do not know their son. They do not know his real thoughts, habits, inclinations, associations. They think they do, but they don't. It may be this boy got away from home influences when he was a lad. Many boys do get away early. Mothers sometimes are unable to keep a string around them. Mothers sometimes think they are keeping tabs on the little fellows when they are not doing so. They are deceived. It matters not when the young man here mentioned happened to be corrupted. This is sure—his case is a typical one. There are thousands of young men deceiving their parents just as this one is doing. Being of the stature and age of men, they are free to come and go as they will. It is difficult to know their manner of life. And you would have difficulty in convincing the parents that their boys are not all right. Do you know your big boy? You may think that, having got him safely up to manhood, you can let him go, whereas you ought to know that manhood presents many special and peculiar temptations. Do you know your son? Are you sure? Judge Harris today granted a divorce to Claude Spencer from Lela M. Spencer. The ground for this action was desertion.

STATE VOTE ON AMENDMENT MEASURES

It is difficult to obtain authentic returns from the various counties of the state on the several initiative and referendum constitutional amendments voted on at the election on June 1. Some of the counties make no returns whatever on the amendments and it will be impossible to learn anything about them until the official returns are canvassed. From the returns at hand, however, although yet quite incomplete, it is possible to state with reasonable accuracy the results. The pluralities for and against the various measures are estimated by the Oregonian as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Measure, For, Against. Includes items like Pay of legislators, Location of state institutions, Increasing number of judges, etc.

J. O. STOREY BUYS MORE EUGENE PROPERTY

AND WILL EXTEND HIS THOROUGHbred HEREFORD BREEDING FARM—OTHER SALES

E. J. Frasier, general manager of the Lane County Land & Investment Company, returned from Portland yesterday, and while there closed a deal with J. O. Storey for the Rickman farm, containing 520 acres, and lying three miles southwest of Eugene. Mr. Frasier did not give out the figures but it is understood to be in the neighborhood of $15,000. This makes a most valuable addition to the 381 acres Mr. Frasier recently sold to Mr. Storey for $23,860. It is Mr. Storey's intention to develop one of the best thoroughbred Hereford breeding farms in Western Oregon. As a nucleus he has already secured about 20 head from the best noted herds on the coast, including two cows imported from England. While in Portland yesterday Mr. Frasier also sold a very valuable property to Jonathan Johnson, for $11,460. Mr. Johnson is the gentleman to whom Mr. Frasier recently sold the Storey residence property in Portland for $10,000, and the Dunn farm, 1 1/2 miles southeast of Eugene, for $17,250, also the Whitney farm of 381 acres adjoining Eugene on the southwest for $15,875. Although Mr. Johnson is making some pretty large investments in Portland he still intends to make his home in Eugene, and has great faith in the future of the city. Including the Levinger farm at Springfield, which Mr. Frasier just sold to William Beals, from California, for $20,000, and the Leah place, for $2500, it brings his total recent sales up to the handsome figure of $116,045. This does not include minor deals in town lots and city property.
