

MEMBER 54TH CONGRESS U. S. Recommends Pe-ru-na.

Peruna Is A Healthful Tonic And Successful Remedy for Catarrh.

HON. W. E. ANDREWS.

Nebraska has furnished to our National Congress some of the brightest minds that have ever adorned that great national legislature.

Among these modern statesmen of that versatile, American type, is Hon. W. E. Andrews, of Hastings, Nebraska.

"I cheerfully recommend the preparation, Peruna, as a healthful tonic and a successful remedy for catarrh in its various forms."—Hon. W. E. Andrews.

Hon. Thomas Cale, who was elected to Congress from Alaska, is well known on the Pacific slope, where he has resided.

Hon. C. Slomp, Congressman from Virginia, whose home address is Big Stone Gap, Va., writes: "I can cheerfully say that I have used your valuable remedy, Peruna, with beneficial results, and can unhesitatingly recommend your remedy to my friends as an invigorating tonic and an effective and permanent cure for catarrh."

Some people prefer to take tablets rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna.

Mr. Boss Craig, Fork Vale, Tenn., had catarrh of the head for two years and had abandoned all hope of being cured, but to his surprise Peruna cured him sound and well.

MARKET DAY POSTPONED FOR A WEEK

(From Saturday's Daily Guard.) Owing to the heavy rain of today, Eugene's first market day was postponed by Manager Max Zimmerman until next Saturday, June 27, at which time the weather will doubtless be as good as such a rain as this season has long.

The program next Saturday, M. Zimmerman announces, will be bigger and better than heretofore planned and it is expected that the day will be a huge success. Another couple will be secured to be married in public and it is probable that new features will be added to the celebration. The big parade will be pulled off, as planned, and by having more time in which to arrange it, it will be better than it would have been today had not the rain spoiled the plans.

A good many farmers came to town today thinking that the rain would cease, but hundreds who were waiting on coming stayed at home.

Mr. Zimmerman, as well as the people of Eugene in general, regret very much that a postponement of the day is necessary, but this was the only thing to do under the circumstances.

LID ON S. P. TRAINS IN ALL DRY COUNTIES

As a result of the June election, at which so large a part of the state went dry, officials of the Southern Pacific are making preparations to put on the lid on trains through the dry counties. No liquor will be sold on the trains while they are passing through Lane or any other of the dry counties of the state and passengers will be obliged to do without intoxicating beverages they specially favor.

From Gregory, on the state line to the south, to Jefferson, where the Southern Pacific crosses into Marion county, the first oasis in this state for northbound trains, is about 300 miles, almost a day's run. Through all this dreary waste of country, passengers on trains will not be able to get a drop to drink to assuage their raging thirst.

The passenger department of the Harriman lines are preparing to have printed on the menu cards in the diners that drinks cannot be served on board trains while passing through dry counties. The same plan is followed in the East, when dry states are crossed by railroads. Passengers avoid the desolating effects of this regulation, however, by buying a sufficient quantity of wet goods before the lid is clapped on to last them until the train rolls into a state where the saloons have not yet been banished, and the blanket of prohibition spread over the state.

The railroads cannot do otherwise than comply with the law in regard to selling liquor in dry territory, and the passengers must abide by the restrictions. As the new regulations go into effect throughout the Oregon counties which voted themselves dry on July 1, plans are now being made by the railroads to prevent liquor being served on board trains while passing through the dry counties after that date.

MANY PHONES OUT AT PENDLETON

Owing to the fact that the saloons of Pendleton are to go out of business on July 1, about forty telephones have been ordered out at that time. When Eugene went "dry" two years ago ninety telephones were taken out, but within six weeks the company had gained back that number and within two months they were back to normal. It is not believed that the prospect and expects to gain back more phones than are lost within a few months after prohibition goes into effect.—East Oregonian.

NEWS NOTES.

Exclusive passenger trains will be put on the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad by the Harriman interests on June 22. This will be the first time in the history of this road that this line has had anything but mixed train service. An additional train will be put on the run between Albany and Yacouin, making two trains a day in each direction.

Oregon's fruit canning industry will not amount to $200,000 this season, although normally the industry amounts to at least $1,000,000. Business and not the fruit crop is responsible for the sweeping reduction in the output.

Commencement exercises for the Central Oregon State Normal School at Drain, which terminated last Wednesday, were the most successful and enthusiastic in the history of the school. Fourteen were graduated: O. C. Beale, Alva Drain, Marlon Ramsey, Lillian Ramsey, Mary Miles, Ruth Brawns, Ione Applegate, Mada Tracy, Belle Teague, Gertrude Mogen, Maude Ashworth, Mabel Woodruff, Charles Chadbourne and Rollin Dickerson.

Free Thomas, the architect, is completing plans for a handsome country home and barn for Thomas J. Kirk, who lives out in the country ten miles north of Eugene. The house contains ten rooms and bath. Mr. and Mrs. Kirk certainly deserve a good home, and according to the plans they will have something to be proud of.

Sanford Billings, a recent arrival from New York, has bought a corner lot at West Second and Washington streets, and will soon commence the erection of a two-story frame store building thereon.

An Albany man exchanged 25 cents for a hobo for a 75-cent watch, and it is running yet.

U. S. ENGINEERS PROMISE ASSISTANCE FOR SIUSLAW BAR

(From Saturday's Daily Guard.) William Kyle, the Florence merchant and capitalist, arrived in Eugene last night from Portland and left on this morning's stage for his home. While in Eugene he visited the office of the government engineers and laid before the officers in charge the plan of the citizens of the western end of the county to spend $100,000 to improve the mouth of the Siuslaw river. The scheme met with the hearty approval of the engineers and a promise was made that the promoters of the work will be furnished all the machinery and equipment necessary with which to do the work. It was also stated that the improvement, once started, would undoubtedly be continued by the government, and that it will not be many years until a first-rate harbor is made at Florence.

The plan is, as soon as the bonds are voted and disposed of, to commence work on a jetty at the mouth of the river on the south side. This would keep the water from spreading over the south spit and cutting it in the south channel. It is thought that $100,000 will be sufficient for this work, and by securing all the machinery and equipment from the government it will probably be done cheaper than that.

It will be remembered that the government, a number of years ago, started to build a north jetty at the mouth of the river. The sum of $150,000 was expended by the government and the work abandoned. It is the intention after the south jetty is completed to take up the work of the north jetty, where the government left off, and complete it.

It is said that by building the south jetty alone a minimum depth of 14 feet can be obtained over the bar. This is sufficient to admit any lumber carrier on the coast, and many coasting steamers could easily enter the harbor. With the completion of the north jetty, also a much greater depth could be secured.

Mr. Kyle and others who have interests at Florence, Astoria and other points along the river, in fact every one who has timber or other land that are drained by the river, are very much pleased that the promise of assistance by the government in this work has been secured.

If the bill empowering the issuance of the bonds is passed by the legislature next January it is planned to begin the work about next June.
