

What a Traveling Man Said

He spent Market Day and Sunday in Eugene and complained because he had not stayed in Albany where he said it was more quiet

One of the reasons why its so lively here is that many of those who contemplate building realize that now is the opportune time to begin, since building material has hardly ever been so reasonable in price, and probably never will be again. We surely hope not.

We have several teams on the jump delivering lumber and if you will leave your order with us we will put on another team

SOCIETY EVENTS.

Since the gayeties of Commencement, society seems to be taking a rest. Many of the clubs have adjourned for the summer.

One enjoyable feature of the week to the theatre-goers was Miss May Robson in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary." It was one of the best plays seen in Eugene for a long time.

Mrs. Tromp entertained the Aloah Club Wednesday afternoon at her home in the Working flat. The afternoon was spent in playing cards. Mrs. Littlefield won the first prize and Mrs. Whitson the consolation prize. The guests of the club were: Mesdames J. L. Page, Frank Page, Harry Keeney, L. J. Whitson, Anna Wilkins, W. C. Barbour, C. F. Littlefield, Nelson (Chicago), Nettie Kress, Mrs. Tromb served a dainty luncheon.

Last Saturday afternoon, Mrs. John Buoy entertained at her home on West Eleventh street in honor of Mrs. Stone of Portland. The afternoon was spent in playing cards, in which Mrs. McMorrison won the first prize and Mrs. Hayes the lesser one. Mrs. Buoy was assisted in serving lunch by her daughter, Miss Beatrice. Those present were: Mesdames George McMorrison, James Hayes (Baker), J. K. Pratt, L. E. Tibball, I. H. Bingham, Stone (Portland), E. E. Mink.

McClain-Parker. The dining room of the dormitory was the scene of a pretty wedding, Tuesday evening, when Mr. Carl McClain and Miss Grace Parker were united in marriage in the presence of a large assembly of invited relatives and friends. The service was read by Rev. H. N. Mount. The room was artistically decorated with a profusion of white daisies, sweet peas and ferns. The ceremony was performed under a canopy of green. Miss Archambeau played the wedding march. The bride wore a dress of white silk trimmed in real lace and carried a shower bouquet of Shasta daisies. She was attended by a sister of the groom, Miss Lulu McClain of Ellison, Iowa.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Parker (Junction), Mr. and Mrs. Edwards (Corvallis), and Miss Barr (Portland). Mr. and Mrs. McClain went on a short trip and after their return will make their home in this city, where Mr. McClain is an instructor in the University.

Poppleton-Lincoln. A marriage of interest to a number of Eugene people is that of Miss Irene Lincoln to Ralph Poppleton June 30, in Portland. Both are graduates of the University of Oregon. Miss Lincoln graduated in the '05 class, while Mr. Poppleton was a member of the '07 class.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. A. E. Wheeler and Mrs. Archie Livermore entertained informally about forty guests in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Brooks. Rev. Brooks was formerly pastor of the Congregational church in this city, but now of Berkeley, Cal. The afternoon was spent out on the lawn. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wheeler and Livermore.

One of the enjoyable affairs of the week was a tally-ho and picnic party to Hayden's Bridge. Mr. and Mrs. George Willoughby chaperoned the party. After a delicious picnic dinner and lunch, the party started, reaching home at a late hour. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. George Willoughby, Grace Ruby, Marguerite Dunne, Ollie Burton, Mabel Johnson, Jessie Linton, Pearl Jameson (Portland), Euzenia Hembree, Ted Cooper, Charley Watts, Clarence Carter, Newton Johnson, Warren Rae, Willie LeMasters, Copperall, Iola Smith, Steve Burton.

Thursday the Sunday school of St. Mary's Episcopal church enjoyed their annual picnic on the banks of the McKenzie river. Mrs. P. K. Hammond and Mrs. Buoy chaperoned the picnic.

Automobile parties are beginning to be very popular. Tuesday evening Prof. and Mrs. F. G. Schmidt, Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Read, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Hampton and Miss Alice McElroy went for an automobile ride to Fairmount Heights.

Professor Hawthorne and family left Wednesday morning for their cottage at Seal Rocks, where they will remain the rest of the summer.

Thursday afternoon and evening Mrs. J. W. Kays entertained the members of the Thimble Club and their husbands in honor of her niece, Miss Scott, of Pennsylvania. The afternoon was spent in needlework. An interesting feature of the afternoon was the working of buttonholes in which Mrs. A. T. Cockerline won the first prize and Mrs. Robert Pratt won the second prize, while Mrs. Wilson won the consolation prize. The guests of the club were: Mesdames S. J. Wilson, Harris, S. J. Stratton, Lloyd Bellman, Caldwell (Seattle), Brooks (Berkeley), Goldsmith and Miss Zeda Goldsmith (Oregon City). At six o'clock the husbands arrived much to the surprise of the ladies for supper. Supper was served on the lawn, beneath the trees. The tables were decorated in red, white and blue. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Bellman and Mrs. Wilson. In the evening guests played whist on the lawn. The lawn made a very beautiful appearance lighted with a profusion of Chinese lanterns.

KIDNAPPER ESCAPES PURSUING POSSE.

Coalinga, Cal., July 2.—Tony Loveall, the daring outlaw, who planned the sensational kidnaping of Miss Edna Domingue, which has aroused this whole section of the country, has eluded his pursuers and though sick, is holding up isolated families, forcing them to give him food and is carrying out a remarkable campaign which promises to rival that of Tracy, the famous bandit.

The posse surrounded him yesterday in a narrow valley and closed down as far as possible before nightfall. Then they had to wait. During the night Loveall passed out between the sentinels and escaped. He seems to know every inch of the ground and is able to make his way with the speed and accuracy of an Indian. So rapidly does he change his course and shift his base of operations that the pursuers have little chance of capturing him until he is overcome with fatigue or hunger.

HARRISBURG PERSONALS.

Dr. E. B. Phelps was a visitor at Eugene Thursday last taking in the sights of that city, as well as looking after some business matters. Mr. and Mrs. London of Cottage Grove were here the first of the week on a short visit and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hay. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Upmeyer drove to Eugene the first of the week on a short business trip and to visit with friends as well.—Bulletin.

SIX ARE DEAD IN FIREWORKS' EXPLOSION

Cleveland, July 3.—An explosion of fireworks in the five and ten cent store of Kresgo & Co., this morning was immediately followed by flames bursting from the windows of the building. At 12:40 the firemen discovered the bodies of five women who had been smothered in the basement. A young boy who also lost his life in the fire was identified as James Parker.

The dead are: James Parker, aged 5 years; Emma Shoemaker; Miss Marie Wagner and three unidentified. The injured will probably total a score, at least twelve girls receiving injuries jumping from the windows. Some of the girls sustained broken limbs and other cuts and bruises. A panic of hundreds of clerks and customers followed the explosion. The flames and smoke filled all the upper floors. Two of the dead were clerks at the fireworks counter, which was constructed so that their escape was cut off and they perished. It will not be known until two hours after the fire, if any other lives were lost. The fire started when one of the pieces of fireworks. A spark ignited other pieces and the conflagration followed.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS AT LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, July 3.—Two slight earthquake shocks were felt in Los Angeles and vicinity at 5:02 this morning. No damage was done.

San Diego, July 2.—A slight shock of earthquake occurred early this morning. It was generally unnoticed.

NORTH YAMHILL STAGE IS ROBBED

North Yamhill, Or., July 2.—Passengers and drivers on the North Yamhill-Tillamook stage were held up by a masked robber at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Frank Perkins the driver, and three passengers were relieved of their valuables at the point of a revolver. When the handoff departed he carried with him the United States government registered mail sack, which the stage was carrying to Tillamook.

The hold-up was pulled off about four miles west of North Yamhill, at the point where the heavily timbered mountainous country intervenes between this city and Tillamook. The amount of money and valuables looted from the passengers and driver is not known.

Immediately after the lone handoff had disappeared in the forest Frank Perkins lashed up the horses to the nearest farmhouse, about a half a mile distant. Here a telephone message was sent to North Yamhill. Sheriff M. F. Corrigan and a posse started on a man hunt in an automobile. Up to a late hour no word had been received from them.

Six years ago the North Yamhill stage was held up by a lone handoff at the same place as this morning's robbery. The other robber was never captured.
